FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.
- (ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.
- (iii) Requests for Confidential Informant Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of confidential informant records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(D), (b)(7)(E), and (b)(7)(F) [5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(7)(D), (b)(7)(E), and (b)(7)(F)] and Privacy Act exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. § 552a (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records would reveal confidential informant identities and information, expose law enforcement techniques, and endanger the life or physical safety of individuals. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches and Standard Search Policy. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems, such as the Central Records System (CRS), or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. The CRS is an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. The standard search policy is a search for main entity records in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include a search for reference entity records, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files.
 - a. Main Entity Records – created for individuals or non-individuals who are the subjects or the focus of an investigation
 - b. Reference Entity Records- created for individuals or non-individuals who are associated with a case but are not known subjects or the focus of an investigation
- (ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Foreseeable Harm Standard. As amended in 2016, the Freedom of Information Act provides that a federal agency may withhold responsive records only if: (1) the agency reasonably foresees that disclosure would harm an interest protected by one of the nine exemptions that FOIA enumerates, or (2) disclosure is prohibited by law (5 United States Code, Section 552(a)(8)(A)(i)). The FBI considers this foreseeable harm standard in the processing of its requests.
- (iv) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative “FBI file.” An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.

In the wallet were his Oregon learner driver's permit bearing the same number as his current driver's license, as previously noted. His Social Security card and possibly his Kaiser Insurance Card were also in the wallet. Neither the wallet nor the identification were ever recovered.

During that same time, [redacted] was associated with a radical group of people, whose activities centered at a business establishment known as Environmental Furniture, located on Third Street, west of Yamhill, near the Federal Building, in Portland. Ostensibly, water beds were sold at the business establishment, but their primary activity had to do with the sale of various hard drugs stored and dispensed in the basement of the establishment. The people with whom he was associated were heavily into drugs and were of an extremely radical bent. Most of them attended Portland State College at the time, and he recalls several conversations concerning the Weather Underground, but he does not recall any specific conversations. He maintained that he did not know if any of these people were directly connected with Weatherman, and assures that he was not. His only interest was in the narcotics aspect of the business, [redacted].

[redacted] and his associates often hung out at the Four Court Fountain, located near the Portland Civic Center. He believes that both that business and Environmental Furniture are still in operation, but he knows nothing of their current ownership or activities.

The following persons were associates of [redacted] in 1971, and were connected with Environmental Furniture:

[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

[redacted] had jumped parole in California.

[redacted] an ex-Marine.

[redacted]

MP 88-5387

[redacted] possibly LNU [redacted]
[redacted], [redacted] of Environmental Furniture at one time.

[redacted] could not say how his identification became lost, but believes that his associates just named were capable of stealing it. He assured steadfastly that he had never sold or given his identification to [redacted] or to anyone else. He stated that he did not recognize [redacted] name, and does not believe that they were acquainted. He did recall a [redacted] who was associated with his former colleagues and who traveled between the Bay area in California and Portland. He raised money for rock concerts and may have been a former disc jockey. He was a relatively small man, who was "spaced" on drugs, and his girlfriend was named [redacted]. He could not say if this person is identical with [redacted] or not.

At approximately the same time in 1971, a number of [redacted] checks were either lost or stolen. [redacted] could not say who was responsible, if the checks were stolen, but did state that one of the checks was written in the amount of $50.00 to a school in southern California, possibly Northwest School of Business. Whoever wrote the check signed [redacted] name to it, and none of the other missing checks were ever cashed. The school to which the check was written was believed by [redacted] to be a restaurant and hotel management correspondence school. His bank was the First National Bank of Oregon.

In January 1972, [redacted] entered on duty with the U.S. Air Force (USAF), and did not return home again until April 1973. It is his recollection that just before leaving the Portland area for the military, he gave his Kaiser Insurance Company Card to his father. [redacted] could not recall if that card was a duplicate or not. He states that he has not carried or seen a Kaiser card since that time. He explained that his father is a longshoreman in Portland, and that he was insured by Kaiser, through his father's employer, while he was a juvenile.

On August 28, 1972, [redacted] lost his wallet in a public telephone booth located on the corner of the intersection at 52nd and Holgate in Portland. Contained in his wallet at that time was his Oregon learner driver's permit, number 1910435, and his Social Security card. He explained that he had been making a telephone call in the booth and had his wallet out. He ran from the booth to catch a ride with a friend, and left his wallet behind. When he came back, the wallet was gone. He believes that he applied for a duplicate learner driver's permit in the State of Oregon within the next day or two after the loss. Three days after the wallet and identification were lost, his wallet and all of its contents were received from an unknown person in the mail. [] subsequently received his duplicate license, and carried both the new and the old licenses with him until they expired and a new one was issued.

[] stated that he had not seen or heard from any of his 1971 associates as previously listed, except in April of 1973 when he spoke briefly with [] at Environmental Furniture. [] was home again late in 1976 but did not see any of those former associates.

In 1975 and 1976, [] was assigned with the USAF at RAF Lakenheath, an Air Force base near London, England. One night near the end of December 1976, [] had been drinking with friends at the NCO Club there. The next morning, he found that he had lost his wallet and its contents, including his military identification card, his Social Security card, and his Oregon driver's license. Despite an extensive search in an effort to locate the missing items, none were ever found. [] cannot say if anyone stole or found his identification at that time. Within about two days of that incident, [] transferred back to the United States and proceeded, on furlough, to Portland. At that time, he made application for and subsequently received, the duplicate Oregon driver's license which he had in his possession at the time of the interview.

[] maintained that he had no information relative to [] to the best of his knowledge, but stated that he could possibly be of greater assistance if he could see a photograph of [] and possibly his associates. He assured that he would cooperate in any way that he could in this matter.

Re: [redacted]

DETAILS:

On 11/19/77, four Weather Underground Organization (WUO) members and Clayton Van Lydegraf, a former Communist Party member since the early 1930s and subsequent founder of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC), who in 1974, was believed to be in contact with the WUO, were arrested in Houston, Texas, and Los Angeles, California, on State of California and Federal charges. These arrests were the direct result of this Bureau's penetration of the WUO by these SAS. SA [redacted] went underground in San Francisco [redacted] and SA [redacted] went underground [redacted]. Our San Francisco Office targeted these SAS against Van Lydegraf, who eventually won his confidence. Van Lydegraf invited SA [redacted] to [redacted]. SA [redacted] developed the confidence of Van Lydegraf through [redacted] into the confidence of Van Lydegraf. [redacted]

Van Lydegraf instructed [redacted]

[redacted] where they would make contact with [redacted]

[redacted] in the Santa Monica, California area, Van Lydegraf introduced [redacted] to two women known only as [redacted] and [redacted]

[redacted] were long-time members of the WUO who had previously engaged in bombings and were currently interested in revolutionary activity. [redacted]

[redacted] as members of a combat team which planned on taking military action against the Government and other entities which believed were opposed to their revolutionary principles. [redacted] and was introduced to [redacted] [redacted]. From evidence gathered by these SAS throughout the Summer of 1977, [redacted] was identified through fingerprints as [redacted] identified as [redacted] who was arrested during the "Days of Rage" in 1969 in Chicago, Illinois. Following their arrest on 11/19/77, [redacted] was identified as [redacted] a Chicago Police Department fugitive as a result of the "Days of Rage" as well as a Selective Service fugitive from 1972 until 1977, at which time process was dismissed against him in view of President Carter's amnesty program for Selective Service violators of the Vietnam era. [redacted] was tentatively identified as [redacted] (not her true name, investigation continuing to positively identify her).

[redacted] and [redacted] was [redacted]

Re: [redacted]

These subjects are presently incarcerated and held on very high bail.

Los Angeles airtel and FD-255 dated 11/28/77 recommended both SAS, who are assigned to the San Francisco Office, be called to Washington, D. C., and be given Quality Salary Increases recognition personally by the Director. Los Angeles also recommended that these SAS appear at FBIHQ to brief appropriate FBI personnel regarding their undercover activities.

By teletype dated 12/22/77, we advised Los Angeles and San Francisco that the Director's schedule did not permit him to meet with the SAS during the first week of January. However, from 1/24-26/78, an undercover Agents seminar, coordinated by the Selective Operations Unit, CID, would be held at the FBI Academy and that the SAS are invited to participate and should advise FBIHQ whether they can attend.

We also informed them that if the SAS are available, the Director's Office will be consulted to determine whether the Director's schedule during the above dates is such that arrangements can be made for these Agents to meet with him personally.

Re: [redacted]

Los Angeles teletype dated 12/24/77, advised that SAS [redacted] and [redacted] would be able to attend the seminar on 1/24-26/78 and would be most desirous of meeting with the Director at that time.

Following the arrest of the individual subsequently identified as [REDACTED] he was found to be in possession of an Oregon driver's license (ODL) in the name of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] date of birth [REDACTED] ODL No. [REDACTED]

Investigation at Portland regarding the [REDACTED] ODL revealed that [REDACTED] described as male, [REDACTED] obtained his license [REDACTED] at the East Portland Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) office, and at the time of issue he gave his address as [REDACTED]. A review of [REDACTED] ODL application revealed that when he applied for his license, he used Wyoming driver's license (WDL) No. [REDACTED] for identification. He also indicated on his ODL application that he was born in Oregon; however, a review of birth and death records at the Oregon Bureau of Vital Statistics (BVS) failed to substantiate this fact.

[REDACTED] address is an eight unit apartment complex. On November 21, 1977, address [REDACTED] was queried through the Columbia Region Information Sharing System (CRISS), and the inquiry revealed that [REDACTED] date of birth [REDACTED] listing address as [REDACTED] was the complainant in a larceny from an automobile on November 6, 1977, and stated that her purse, containing keys, cash and identification was taken.

On December 16, 1977, [REDACTED] (protect), [REDACTED] advised that the following named individuals resided at [REDACTED] during August, 1977:

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

HO 174-2459

By communication dated October 20, 1977, the Los Angeles Division of the FBI advised two agents of the FBI, acting in undercover capacities, had met with [redacted] (subsequently identified as FBI Identification Order fugitive [redacted] and [redacted] (subsequently identified as [redacted]). The meeting was for the purpose of discussing questions related to past readings by MARX, ENGELS and LENIN. A discussion was held concerning "Why were women largely excluded from the armed bodies and the use of weapons at the beginning of the class state?"

[redacted] the leader of the discussion, gave the undercover agents a copy of a paper written by the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC) in San Francisco, namely CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF, also known as HARRY, who is the leader of PFOC.

The paper concerned the upcoming Women's Conference to be held in Houston, Texas, in November, 1977, sponsored by the United States Government Committee that was formed for International Women's Year. The paper noted that delegations of women from around the country plan to attend and discuss such topics as the equal rights amendment, abortion, gay rights, etc. The paper stated that there were ten states sending delegates committed to carry on campaigns against these issues. The paper stated among these delegates would be wives of the Ku Klux Klan and supporters of [redacted]

The paper pointed out the need to defeat this government-organized attempt to co-opt the women's movement. The paper stated the government would like to point to this conference and say the grass roots women's movement is against all these issues. The paper included slogans "Victory in Houston" and a second slogan to the effect to defeat the government organized white male chauvinist conference.

After the agents read the paper, [redacted] stated sources had an assignment. She stated there was a primary and secondary target. The primary target is to send a clandestine team to Houston for defensive purposes and to not take any offensive action in Houston. The defensive action would entail lending aid and support to women at the conference who may be beaten or harassed by the repressive forces of the state - the Ku Klux Klan or other reactionary groups that plan to attend the conference.

The plan was for the defensive team to bring no weapons to Houston, but make arrangements to purchase weapons in Houston.

The secondary target is to take offensive action so the purpose would clearly indicate political support for the people's causes at the convention. This action would be a violent act which would not occur in Houston, but probably in Los Angeles.

Subsequent meetings by this group resulted in the following decisions:

1. Three individuals would come to Houston in a covert capacity to assist any minority which had any difficulties. The three were [redacted] a white female known as [redacted] and undercover Agent [redacted]
2. An overt group of PFOC members would also come to Houston from California and would have a display booth at the Women's Conference. This group would be in contact with the covert group only through CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF (leader of the PFOC) who was also coming to Houston for the convention.
3. Under Agent [redacted] was to travel to Houston via bus with three handguns in his luggage which would be used by the covert group, if needed.
4. The target for the act of violence was California State Senator JOHN V. BRIGGS whose office would be bombed in California to bring attention to the Women's Conference. BRIGGS was chosen because he is a well known opponent of gay rights who has publicly supported [redacted]

After arriving in Houston, the covert group was placed under surveillance.

SURVEILLANCE AND ARREST OF VAN LYDEGRAF

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

On November 19, 1977, CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF, a white male, was the subject of a physical surveillance conducted by Special Agents [redacted]

[redacted] of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). VAN LYDEGRAF was observed driving a red and white Dodge Aspen bearing Texas License QNW 354. VAN LYDEGRAF alone in the vehicle, stopped at the corner of North and North Main before turning left and proceeding west on North Main to Interstate 45. At Interstate 45 VAN LYDEGRAF proceeded north on the feeder road to Cavalcade where he turned right. VAN LYDEGRAF continued east on Cavalcade until he reached Fulton, where he turned right then left into a Dairy Queen stand. VAN LYDEGRAF re-entered Fulton heading north. He stopped at the corner of Fulton and Cavalcade, in the lane nearest the curb where the traffic light controlling his movement was red.

At this time Special Agents of the FBI conducting this surveillance were informed by Special Agent Supervisor [redacted] (over the radio) that a Federal warrant has been issued in California for the arrest of VAN LYDEGRAF, and that he was to be stopped and placed under arrest. This message was conveyed by the use of a pre-arranged code "The cold front has arrived".

The traffic light controlling VAN LYDEGRAF's movement turned green, however, his path had been blocked by FBI vehicle, HO 21, operated by Special Agent [redacted]. VAN LYDEGRAF was subsequently informed of the identity of [redacted] and [redacted] as Special Agents of the FBI and thereafter placed under arrest by them.

At approximately 11:00 a.m., the three of us departed Leo's Restaurant and proceeded to a Purple Heart Thrift Shop which is located on Main Street in Houston where we did locate a used typewriter and purchased it for approximately $15.00. We then proceeded to an American Opinion bookstore which is located on Richmond Street in Houston, where [] put on the short, curly very dark colored wig with gray streaks running through it that she brought with her from Los Angeles. We entered the store and talked to the same man we had talked to the last time we were in Houston. This man stated that he was very optimistic about the number of conservative people that were going to attend the pro-life rally at the Astro Arena, and stated that if we were going to attend, we should get there very early. [] stated that she would like some more information on anti-abortion literature and this man stated to her that there was a pro-life office in a building not far from there on Richmond Street and directed us to this office. U

[] and I drove up to the building that had a pro-life office in it and [] went in and did, in fact, get some literature. When she got back in the car, she and [] decided that it would be a good idea to drive out to Pasadena and possibly browse inside the KKK bookstore which is located at 1619 Redbluff Road, Pasadena, Texas. U

We arrived near the KKK office in the early afternoon and had something to eat at a nearby hamburger stand where we could watch who was coming and going from the Klan store. After finishing our lunch, all three of us went into the Klan store, looked around, and purchased some of the literature that they had in the magazine racks. U

After getting back in the car, [] stated it would be a good idea to check out some gun shops in the area and we checked one out that had a shooting range attached to the store. U

[] stated to this gun dealer that she was interested in purchasing a 9mm semi-automatic. The gun dealer said he did not have any of the ones she described and stated it would take approximately one to one and a half weeks to order one and she stated to the gun dealer that she possibly would be back, but did not wish to place the order for the weapon right then. U

After driving around Pasadena, and not having any success in locating a 9mm weapon, we drove back into Houston where we checked a few more gun shops for this type of weapon without any success. U

At approximately 4:50 p.m., November 18, 1977, [] and I walked into the Sporting Goods Store, Inc., which is located at the corner of Mc Kinney and York, Houston, Texas. This store did have a 9mm semi-automatic Colt that [] was very much interested in. [] gave the gun dealer the same story about being a very inexperienced person with guns, and that she wanted one for her self protection. She further stated that her father had requested she purchase a 9mm semi-automatic and that was the gun that she wanted and the gun dealer did sell her a Colt 9mm semi-automatic pistol. U

After [] purchased this gun, we went back to our motel room where we had dinner and a short discussion. [] stated that based on the meeting she had with HARRY and [] earlier in the day, it was decided that we would pick up [] at 8:30 a.m. on November 19, 1977, and we would have a discussion over breakfast as to the decision on the action against BRIGGS as well as a discussion on the progress of the conference. [] and [] stated that if the action was planned for Saturday, a call would be made at 2:00 p.m. Houston time to Los Angeles to the effect that the action is on. If it was decided that the action would not take place until Sunday the call would still be made at 2:00 p.m. Houston time, to advise the people in Los Angeles and also to tell them that a call would be made Sunday at 2:00 p.m. Houston time to advise them if the action was on. U

[] stated that after picking up HARRY in the morning, we possibly might go to a park as opposed to having breakfast to discuss PFOC's input into the decision concerning the carrying out of the action and she stated just she, HARRY and [] would be in on the decision of whether to go ahead or not with the action, but that I would be in on the discussion concerning the progress at the conference. U

At approximately 8:30 a.m. on November 19, 1977, [] and I drove to a donut shop near a Utotem Market, which is believed to be located on Main Street in Houston. At this point, [] got out of the car and walked up to the Utotem Market where she met HARRY and they both came back to the car. We then drove to Aunt Bea's Restaurant in a shopping area near our motel. HARRY stated that he was very happy with the progress of some of the revolutionary politics that were attempting to be put forward at the conference. He stated that they had already achieved some victories and the conference had only just begun, but he did not elaborate on what type of victories. U

HARRY further stated that there was a housing problem the night before in that some women members from PFOC, who were staying with a women's collective in Houston, had moved in with him the previous night. He stated that one of the women who was staying with PFOC women and who was not a revolutionary and did not know the revolutionary politics of these PFOC women, stated that she worked for the Houston Police Department and was interested in women's rights being put forward at the conference. HARRY stated that when these PFOC women found out who she was, they immediately departed these living quarters and moved in with him for the evening. U

HARRY, [redacted] and [redacted] stated that the action against BRIGGS would happen either Saturday, November 19, 1977, or Sunday, November 20, 1977, but if some unfortunate occurrence took place during the weekend, it would come down within two weeks. U.

HARRY stated that he did not know if there was enough time between breakfast and the 2:00 p.m. call back to Los Angeles to evaluate the progress of the conference with PFOC people, and to subsequently help make the decision concerning the go ahead action against BRIGGS on Saturday, November 19, 1977. U

[redacted] stated that the action against BRIGGS would not necessarily have to be in retaliation for anything that would happen at the conference against progressive people. She said if the progressive and revolutionary people were gaining support, the action could be used to gain further support. At this time, which was approximately 11:00 a.m., we departed the restaurant and drove HARRY back to the Utothem Market. HARRY stated since the three of us would be attending the pro-life rally at the Astro Arena, he would make the 2:00 p.m. call back to Los Angeles and he would meet us in a bowling alley that we all knew the location of at approximately 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. that afternoon. We would then proceed to our motel room and type up the report of what was being said at the pro-life rally and he, in turn, would carry this report to PFOC people. U

At approximately 11:45 a.m., [redacted] and I arrived in the area of the Astro Arena. We drove around this area for about 15 minutes and then went to a coffee shop in the area. At about 12:30 p.m., we entered the Astro Arena to attend the rally. At about 3:15 p.m., we left the rally and after entering our car, which was parked in the lot next to the arena, all three of us were arrested by Agents of the FBI. ✓

During the period that I was in Houston, I was able to make brief telephonic and physical contacts with FBI Agents. ✓

That from on or about May 15, 1977 until the date of execution of this Complaint, at Los Angeles, California, in the Central District of California, JUDITH EMILY BISSELL, aka "Josie," aka Christine N. Daly; GRACE FORTMER, aka "Esther"; PAUL DALY, aka "Vince"; MICHAEL THOMAS JUSTESEN, aka "Rudy", aka Jeffrey Fortmer; and CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF, aka "Harry" did willfully and knowingly agree, confederate and conspire with each other as follows:

1. To teach or demonstrate to others the use, application or making of explosive devices capable of causing injury or death to persons, knowing or intending that said explosive devices would be unlawfully employed for use in a civil disorder, in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. §231(a)(1).
2. To unlawfully receive, conceal, transport or store explosive materials, knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that such explosive materials were stolen in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. §842(h).
3. To unlawfully receive or possess a firearm made in violation of Title 26 U.S.C. §5841, et seq.; to unlawfully receive or possess a firearm which is not registered to one or more of the conspirators in the National Firearms Registration and Transfer Record; and to make a firearm in violation of Title 26 U.S.C. §5841, et seq., all in violation of 26 U.S.C. §5861(c), (d) and (f):

The objects of the conspiracy were to be accomplished as follows:

1. JUDITH EMILY BISSELL, hereinafter referred to as Josie, GRACE FORTMER, hereinafter referred to as Esther, PAUL DALY, hereinafter referred to as Vince, and MICHAEL THOMAS JUSTESEN, hereinafter referred to as Rudy, pursuant to the direction of CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF, would recruit individuals to join an underground political group which had as its primary objective assassinations of public figures and bombings of public buildings in an effort to further their political goal of performing revolutionary acts against governmental organizations.

2. Van Lydegraf, Josie, Esther, Vince, Rudy and others would practice marksmanship with rifles and pistols in isolated locations near Barstow, California, in preparation for the assassination of public officials and for other combat purposes.

3. Van Lydegraf, Josie, Esther, Vince, Rudy and others would possess and store large quantities of dynamite, explosive devices and bomb making paraphernalia in the Los Angeles area in order to prepare bombs for use in destroying public buildings and killing individuals.

4. Josie, Esther, Vince, and Rudy, at the direction of Van Lydegraf, would instruct other individuals as to the proper technique used in manufacturing bombs and destructive devices for purposes of destroying public buildings and killing individuals.

5. Van Lydegraf, Josie, Esther, Vince and Rudy would select targets, including certain public buildings and public officials, which would be destroyed or killed by them by use of rifles, pistols or bombs.

6. Vince and Rudy, at the direction of Josie, Esther and Van Lydegraf, would prepare a bomb or destructive device for purposes of destroying a public building and possibly killing individuals.

To effect the objects of the conspiracy, Van Lydegraf, Josie, Esther, Vince and Rudy committed various overt acts in the Central District of California, and elsewhere, among which are the following:

1. On or about May 15 and May 24, 1977, Josie and Esther met in Los Angeles with Van Lydegraf and a Special Agent of the FBI, acting in an undercover capacity. Van Lydegraf told the Agent that Josie and Esther were leaders in Los Angeles of the Revolutionary Committee of the Weather Underground.

2. Between May 15 and November 10, 1977, Josie, Esther, and the Special Agent made at least six trips to the Barstow, California area where they participated in firing pistols and rifles. Rudy and Vince accompanied Esther and Josie on several of these occasions and Van Lydegraf had accompanied Josie and Esther on at least one of these trips.

3. During the trips to the Barstow, California area which took place between May 15, 1977 and November 10, 1977, Josie, Esther, Vince, Rudy and Van Lydegraf each told the Special Agent that their plan was to kill public officials or destroy public buildings.

4. On July 19, 1977, Josie and Esther instructed the Special Agent, acting in an undercover capacity, in detail as to how to build a time bomb. During this meeting, bomb targets were mentioned by Josie and Esther.

5. On or about July 22, 1977, Josie, Esther, Vince and Rudy met with the Special Agent and discussed the proper methods for preparing bombs and safety precautions which would be used in preparing said bombs. During this meeting, Josie stated that they had dynamite and that it was stolen.

6. On or about October 25, 1977, Van Lydegraf and Josie met with the Special Agent and advised him that State Senator Briggs was their target, and that Vince, Esther and Rudy had approved the choice of target.

7. On or about November 4, 1977, Vince and Esther, wearing wigs, travelled to Brigg's office in Fullerton, California, and took photographs of the Senator's office.

8. On or about November 8, 1977, Josie and Rudy met with the Special Agent, and stated they planned to attack Briggs.

9. On or about November 11, 1977, Vince, Josie and Rudy, wearing disguises, were in the immediate vicinity of Senator Brigg's office in Fullerton for approximately four hours.

10. On or about November 13, 1977, Josie met with the Special Agent and advised him that Brigg's office would be bombed on November 19 or 20, 1977.

11. On or about November 14, 1977, Josie purchased materials to be used in manufacturing a bomb.

12. On or about November 13, 1977, Josie and Rudy gave the Special Agent two handguns, one a .357 magnum, which the Agent was to transport to Houston, Texas.

13. On or about November 14, 1977, a second Special Agent, FBI, acting in an undercover capacity, met with Josie, Esther, Vince and Rudy and was advised that he, the second agent, would move in with Vince on November 16, 1977 and, with Rudy, the second agent would assist in constructing a bomb.

14. On or about November 17, 1977, the second agent, Vince and Rudy were present in a residence containing approximately ten pounds of dynamite, together with other materials used in constructing bombs. Vince and Rudy were observed manufacturing a bomb.

A F F I D A V I T

MICHAEL E. HILLIARD, having been duly sworn, deposes and says that:

1. I am a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and have been so employed for approximately seven years. Since August, 1974 I have investigated bombing and terrorist related matters for the FBI on a full-time basis.

2. Since early May of 1977, I have been informed on practically a daily basis by Special Agents Richard J. Giannotti and William D. Reagan, both acting in an undercover capacity, and other special agents of the FBI of the activities of JUDITH EMILY BISSELL, aka "Josie", aka Christine N. Daly; GRACE FORTMER, aka "Esther"; PAUL DALY, aka "Vince"; MICHAEL THOMAS JUSTESEN, aka "Rudy", aka "Jeffrey Fortmer" and CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF, aka "Harry".

3. Special Agent Giannotti has advised me that he has known Van Lydegraf for some time as the head of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee and the Weather Underground. Giannotti advised me that he was introduced to Bissell, hereinafter referred to as Josie, and Fortmer, hereinafter referred to as Esther, on May 15, 1977 by Van Lydegraf. Agent Giannotti was identified by Van Lydegraf as a sympathizer of the revolutionary cause, and Josie and Esther told him that they, Josie and Esther, and others were members of a combat team which planned on taking military action against the Government and other entities which they believed were opposed to their revolutionary principles.

Van Lydegraf advised Giannotti at this meeting that their goal is armed struggle. Between May 15 and November 15, 1977, Agent Giannotti met with Esther, Josie and Van Lydegraf on several occasions in the Los Angeles area. Included at many of these meetings were Justesen, hereinafter referred to as Rudy, and Paul Daly, also known as Vince.

4. On May 22, 1977, Agent Giannotti advised me that he met with Josie and Esther at Santa Monica. Both women indicated that "Harry" Van Lydegraf was pleased that the three had met and that it was now time to get in shape and learn how to use handguns and rifles so that they could assassinate individuals who were holding up the liberation struggle. Both women admitted having been involved with numerous bombings in the past.

5. Agent Giannotti advised me that on May 28, 1977, Josie and Esther took him to a desert area near Barstow, California, where Josie and Esther selected a training site. They stated they had in their possession large quantities of stolen dynamite, some hand grenades and blasting caps stored in Los Angeles. They stated they knew how to build bombs, but wanted to learn to use other weapons.

6. On June 8, 1977, Agent Giannotti advised me that he and Special Agent William D. Reagan, also acting in an undercover capacity, had met with Rudy, who was identified as a member of the combat team. Rudy indicated an interest in the revolution and in weapons training. Rudy told Agent Giannotti that Josie, Esther and Rudy would meet him, Giannotti, on June 11, 1977 for desert training.

7. Agent Giannotti advised me that on June 11, 1977, he went to the desert training site with Rudy, Josie and Esther where Josie stated they had several weapons, including a .357 magnum pistol. After conducting firing practice, Esther made sketches of how they built bombs in the past and stated that they normally purchase parts for making bombs at various Radio Shack stores. Esther then went into detail as to how to prepare a bomb.

8. On or about June 22, 1977, Agent Giannotti advised me that he and Agent Reagan once again met with Rudy, who told both agents that the combat unit was a guerilla unit which would conduct SLA type actions. Rudy also indicated that he located some ammunition for their guns.

9. Agent Giannotti advised me that on June 25, 1977, he met with Rudy, Esther, Josie and Vince and went to the desert training site. There they fired weapons, and discussed plans to conduct terrorist actions. Agent Giannotti asked Esther and Josie if they could bring dynamite to the desert on the next trip. Esther and Vince responded that they would bring dynamite the next time, with some unconnected circuits.

10. On July 8, 1977, Agent Giannotti advised me that he went to the desert once again with Josie, Esther, Vince and Rudy where they practiced firing guns. Esther and Josie stated they would teach Agent Giannotti how to prepare a bomb on July 19, 1977, and that they would have dynamite present at that time. Josie and Esther stressed the need to be combat ready.

11. On July 12, 1977, Agent Giannotti advised me that he and Agent Reagan met again with Rudy. Rudy stated their enemy was the United States Government. Rudy stated that the combat unit should consider killing policemen to advance their goal.

12. On July 19, 1977, Agent Giannotti advised that he was picked up by Josie and Esther who, after stopping at a Radio Shack for a purchase, drove in a circuitous fashion to a remote area. While en route, Josie stated that she, Esther and Rudy had met with Van Lydegraf. Van Lydegraf stated that he was happy with the progress being made at the desert site, and that he, Van Lydegraf had asked them to try to lease some land where illegal weapons could be stored. Van Lydegraf had stated that "things are ready to pop in many places." Esther and Josie, upon arrival at the site, pitched a tent and then proceeded to explain in great detail to Agent Giannotti how to build a bomb. Josie and Esther had batteries, clips, wires, tweezers, wire cutters, strippers, electrical tape, a Westclox watch, electrical sockets and testing equipment, among other items, which they demonstrated. The lecture took hours. Josie stated that a possible target was Judge Dodson, who was hearing the Skyhorse, Mohawk trial. Esther and Josie stated they could plant a bomb in the judge's car. Another target mentioned was a power station. Esther reiterated that their dynamite was stolen dynamite.

13. On July 22, 1977, Agent Giannotti advised me that he had met with Esther, Josie, Rudy and Vince where all five reviewed techniques to be used in making bombs. Again, a lengthy technical discussion ensued about the proper methods for safely preparing a bomb.

14. I was advised by Special Agent John Kirk, FBI, who has extensive training in bomb making techniques, that he had reviewed with Agent Giannotti the instructions on bomb making provided to him by the members of the combat unit. Agent Kirk advised that the techniques used are complex and accurate; that in fact Josie, Esther, Vince and Rudy are capable of making an effective bomb.

15. On or about July 29, 1977, Agent Giannotti advised me that he met with Esther and Josie. They told him that Agent Reagan would be a part of the combat unit, along with Giannotti, Esther, Josie, Vince and Rudy. They would carry out military actions. Van Lydegraf, according to Josie and Esther, provided the unit with direction and combat training.

16. On August 2, 1977, Agent Reagan advised me that he had met with Josie and Esther, along with Agent Giannotti. A lengthy discussion followed concerning the proper way to obtain false identification. Esther stated the unit would be ready for combat within three weeks to a month.

17. On August 5, 1977, Agent Giannotti advised that he met with Josie, Rudy, Vince and Esther and went to the desert site for training with weapons. Again, Josie stated their first type of action would be taking care of Judge Dodson, or possibly helping create a prison break.

18. On September 8, 1977, Special Agent Ronald Rawalt, FBI, advised me that he had seen Van Lydegraf and Josie meet at the Riviera Motel at McCadden Place and Sunset Boulevard, Los Angeles. Later, on September 9, 1977, Van Lydegraf met with both Josie and Esther.

19. On September 11, 1977, Agent Giannotti advised me that he had met with Van Lydegraf and Josie. Van Lydegraf told Agent Giannotti that he was happy to hear that things were going well. Rudy then appeared. Van Lydegraf stated that the main goal of the collective was to support national liberation through armed struggles. Van Lydegraf then asked Josie to describe their training with weapons, which she did. Van Lydegraf expressed his pleasure and reiterated that they must be ready for armed struggle.

20. On September 18, 1977, Agent Giannotti advised that he met with Agent Reagan, Josie and Esther. Josie stated that there was to be a large conference in Houston soon sponsored by International Women's Year. Josie indicated that Van Lydegraf had changed his strategy and that the combat unit might obtain better support by becoming politically involved with the conference. Josie stated that the group must also be for armed combat. She stated that the group was no longer interested in blowing up men's rooms. Esther stated that she, Josie and Van Lydegraf had gone to the desert site the week before, and he instructed them in the use of a .22 pistol.

21. On October 18, 1977, Agents Giannotti and Reagan advised me that they met with Josie and Rudy. Josie stated that the combat unit had received an assignment from the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee. Josie said there would be a primary and secondary target. The primary target was to send a clandestine armed team composed of Josie, Esther, Van Lydegraf and Agent Giannotti to Houston for defensive purposes during the conference. No offensive actions were to be taken by this group. The defensive group was to lend aid and support to women who may be beaten or harrassed by the KKK or other repressive groups. Josie stated that Van Lydegraf instructed her to not carry weapons to Houston, but rather to purchase them there.

The secondary target, according to Josie, would involve a violent offensive action in the Los Angeles area. Targets for this violent action would be decided upon in the next few weeks. The offensive action was to clearly convey to the public a political message concerning the women's conference.

22. On November 5, 1977, Agent Giannotti advised me that he, Agent Reagan, Josie and Esther went to the desert training site where Josie took a Walther P-38 from her purse. Both Josie and Esther asked about the "kill power" of this weapon, and they practiced firing. Josie reiterated the primary target of going to Houston. Josie stated they were concerned about obtaining weapons in Houston and that it may become necessary for one of the group to transport the weapons to Houston.

23. On November 10, 1977, I was advised by Special Agent John Hoos, FBI, that he had observed Josie enter a drug store and attempt to purchase a Westclox clock identical to the one Agent Giannotti had been shown when he was instructed on bomb manufacturing by Josie and Esther. Josie was apparently unsuccessful, and went to a hardware store and other stores in the area. I was advised by Special Agent Gregory Mercier, FBI, that he observed Josie and Esther on November 10, 1977 enter a Radio Shack store at 754 North Fairfax Avenue and observed them purchase a two pin socket and plug, together with wire and a electronic solder. On November 14, 1977, Josie was observed to purchase a Westclox clock identical to the one Agent Giannotti had seen during his earlier lecture on bomb manufacturing.

24. On October 25, 1977, I was advised by Agent Giannotti that he had met with Van Lydegraf and Josie. They told Agent Giannotti that State Senator Briggs was their target for violent action, that they checked his offices, and that they intended to use a bomb. Josie stated that Vince, Esther and Rudy had approved the plan to bomb Brigg's office in Fullerton. I was told by Special Agent Alfred Waits, FBI, that he was inside Brigg's office on November 4, 1977 and observed Vince and Esther wearing wigs taking photos of Brigg's office. I was further advised by Special Agent Feltus B. Sterling, FBI, that he observed Vince, Josie, and Rudy on November 11, 1977, all wearing disguises, in the area of Brigg's office in Fullerton for four hours.

24. On November 13, 1977, I was told by Agent Giannotti that Josie told him that day that the bombing of Brigg's office would take place on November 19 or 20, 1977.

25. I was advised by Agent Reagan on November 14, 1977 that he met with Josie, Rudy, Esther and Vince that night. Agent Reagan was directed to move in with Vince on November 16, 1977 and to assist Vince on Thursday and Friday, November 18, in building a bomb. They said Vince was experienced in bomb construction. Josie said she would call the group on Saturday, November 19, 1977, from Houston to tell them to plant the bomb. Agent Reagan was told that Rudy, Vince and himself would take the bomb to Fullerton, and Vince would, by bicycle, plant the bomb under the porch of Brigg's office. The bomb will be placed at approximately 5:30 p.m. on Sunday, November 20, 1977 and would detonate at 1:30 a.m. It was to be large enough to demolish the entire building.

26. On November 17, 1977, Agent Reagan told me that he was living in the residence of Vince and Rudy, that he had observed approximately ten pounds of dynamite in the house, that all wires, clocks and other devices necessary to build the bomb were present, and that Vince and Rudy were building the bomb which was to be completed by Friday or Saturday, November 18 or 19, 1977.

Date of transcription November 21, 1977

The following description was provided by Special Agent [redacted] as he reconstructed the bomb piece by piece in order for police photographer to photograph each piece and each step in the procedure. ✓

Item 38A

A plastic 40 ounce refrigerator food container, white in color. The label was peeled off by [redacted]. It is cylindrical in shape. This item was the container for the dynamite, batteries, watch and other components of the explosive device. It is noted that this container was wrapped both inside and outside with black electrical tape. ✓

Item 38B

A packet containing a piece of cardboard cut to fit approximately 1/3 of the floor surface of the container described as 38A. [redacted] taped a small piece of quilt batting onto this piece of cardboard and then he wrapped it almost entirely with black electrical tape. This item was fit onto the floor of the container to be used as padding for the clock and batteries to make the device more shock resistant. ✓

Item 38C

A piece of cardboard cut to provide a divider between compartments, one side of which contained the 9 Volt, gold and black, Duracell batteries, and the other side contained the watch for the explosive device. This piece of cardboard was placed in such a way so that it provided a divider separating the watch from the batteries. The batteries were purchased new, especially for this device, and were epoxied onto the cardboard side by side. This item also contained two black 9 Volt snap on battery caps. Each of these caps had one red and one black wire coming from it. The black wire from one battery cap was cut short as was the red wire from the second battery and these two wires were soldered together and wrapped with black electrical tape. The red wire from one battery cap was soldered to a piece of red 20 gauge stranded wire and this was then wrapped with black electrical tape. The other end of this 20 gauge wire had previously been soldered and taped to the watch fob. The black wire from the second battery cap was connected, soldered and taped to a red wire coming from a taped black two pin socket. The second wire from the black taped two pin socket was connected, soldered and taped to a red 20 gauge stranded piece of wire which previously had been connected by wrapping, soldering and epoxing to the screw on the clock face. This item was placed into the container in such a way that the batteries were on one side and the clock and plug device on the other. U

A triangular piece of cardboard taped together with black electrical tape. The purpose of this piece of taped cardboard was to fit into the device in such a way as to provide a resting place for the socket which was not to be secured to the device, but rather packed in with quilt batting pillows wrapped in black electrical tape. This was to make the device easier to arm. U

Item 38E

A piece of cardboard cut to provide a dividing wall between the clock, batteries and socket mechanisms described in 38C above and the dynamite which was placed in the remainder of the container. Approximately one half of one side of this piece of cardboard had a piece of quilt batting taped onto it with electrical tape in order to provide some padding in the device. U

Item 38F (Also marked with letter A)

A glad bag baggie sandwich bag in which was placed approximately 3/4 cup of dynamite and then rolled in place to fit on the floor portion of the above described device. The dynamite was spooned into the baggie by [redacted] and Special Agent [redacted]. After shaping the baggie, it was then wrapped with electrical tape in such a way so that there were no seams exposed or loose places where dynamite could get out. U

Item 38G (Also marked with letter B)

A glad bag baggie containing approximately 3/4 cup of dynamite and wrapped and tucked in such a fashion as to give one side a rounded effect so that it could fit snugly up against the round container wall. This baggie is also wrapped with electrical tape, again to cover seams and loose places where dynamite could get out. U

Item 38H (Also marked with letter C)

A glad bag baggie containing approximately 3/4 cup of dynamite and wrapped and tucked in such a fashion as to be shaped to fit flatly against the divider panel described in 38E above. This baggie is also wrapped with electrical tape, again to cover seams and loose places where dynamite could get out. U

Item 38I

A glad bag baggie containing approximately 3/4 cup of dynamite and wrapped and tucked in such a fashion as to be shaped to be flat on top and have the back side rounded to fit the configuration of the container. This baggie is wrapped with black electrical tape, again to cover seams and loose places where dynamite could get out. It is noted that space was left between this bag and the retaining wall described in 38E. This space was to be filled with the wires from the blasting cap. U

Item 38J

A two pin plug wrapped in black electrical tape and bearing two red 20 gauge stranded wires which had been connected to this plug, soldered and then wrapped with black electrical tape. This plug was to be connected to the wires from the blasting cap. After the blasting cap was inserted into the dynamite at a later date, this plug was to be plugged into the socket described in 38C above. U

Item 38K

A black two pin socket purchased from Radio Shack from which the metal attachment clips were removed from the rear end of the socket. The plug was then opened and a red 20 gauge stranded wire was attached to one connection and looped around and attached to the second connection in order to make a shunt. These two connections were soldered and wrapped with black electrical tape as was the entire plug wrapped with electrical tape. U

Item 38L

A piece of cardboard box cut in a circular fashion to fit approximately one half of the top part of the device. She rented the garage at [redacted] about April or May of 1977. Her records at home would show exactly when. U

From memory she recalled the following events: U

She ran an ad in the "Santa Monica Evening Outlook" Newspaper for two days, Wednesday and Thursday. This ad contained telephone number 981-2727 and offered a garage available for storage only for three month minimum. U

She received a telephone call after the second day the ad appeared in the newspaper, possibly on Thursday at 9:00 to 10:00 AM. After this initial telephone call she received a second call back from the same individual who stated he had gone to the location, looked at the garage and wanted to rent it. U

Thereafter on a Saturday she went to [redacted] in front of the residence. She was accompanied by [redacted] U

She remembers meeting, at that time, a white male who identified himself as [redacted]. He was shown the garage from the inside and stated he wanted it. He paid $90 for three months rental. [REDACTED] said, in his first telephone call, that he was from the San Francisco area but that his first call was local. [REDACTED] advised that she recalled receiving possibly three checks or money orders from [REDACTED]. She advised that the several contacts in person or by telephone that she had with this person after the first in response to the newspaper ad, were in her mind certainly the same person. She had the belief that he had been in the Los Angeles area for approximately eight months. He sent a note with his second check or money order that he still did not have a permanent address. He called after the third rental period and furnished a mailing address. [REDACTED] sent a receipt to that address, however, it came back "Addressee not known." She still has that in her records. U

[REDACTED] advised that she thought it was strange that the address was in a totally other area of town and removed by some distance from the Venice address of the storage garage. U

[REDACTED] advised that she could recall that [REDACTED] seemed to have no particular accent, but he did seem to be intelligent and she recalled that he may have worn glasses, regular glasses and not sunglasses. U

[REDACTED] advised that she remembered he had stated that definitely that he had brought some stuff down in a U-Haul trailer from San Francisco and needed a secure storage place. In her last telephone contact with him, she asked him about the storage and he said he still needed to have it and that he still had some stuff to leave. U

[REDACTED] advised that around the end of September or early October 1977, she exercised her prerogative and right to enter the garage through the door padlocked and kept locked by her. Upon entering the garage of [REDACTED] she observed normal looking boxes and wood furniture. She thought to herself that she wouldn't pay $35 per month to put that little in a garage. She observed a bicycle, full size, and several things covered under sheets or blankets. Also she observed some sacks like pillow cases or duffle bags. She did not look into anything. She just wanted to know if they were still there. U

[REDACTED] advised that no tenant in [REDACTED] [REDACTED] had access or had any reason to be in either

[redacted] advised that she talked to the previous to either garage. U

[redacted] advised that [redacted] the guy who rented the garage at [redacted] had it longer

[redacted] advised that as the manager of the entire premises at [redacted]

Result of examination:

General Information:

This report lists some of the specimens delivered to the Laboratory on November 30, 1977, by Investigator Richard Kensic of your department.

Some of the above-listed specimens may not be specifically mentioned in the details of this and subsequent reports. For example, if one of the below-mentioned photographs clearly depicts all pertinent information regarding a specimen, there may be no need to mention the specimen further.

Examinations involving the above-listed specimens are continuing and you will be subsequently advised of the results.

Fingerprint:

You will be separately advised concerning the results of latent fingerprint examinations involving some of the above-listed specimens.

Photographs:

Three sets of photographs relating to the above-listed specimens are being forwarded to your department under separate cover by registered mail due to the bulky nature of each set of photographs.

✓ Three sets of photographs are being forwarded to the FBI Office, Los Angeles, under separate cover by registered mail.

One set of photographs is being forwarded to the FBI Office, San Francisco, California, under separate cover by registered mail. J

Tools:

The individual tools present in the above-listed specimens are not being further described as no useful purpose would be served. Any toolmarks examinations subsequently conducted involving these tools will be reported under a heading "Toolmarks."

✓ Film, Slides, Negatives and Photographs:

The film, slides, negatives and photographs present in specimens K220, K226, K232, K243, K244, K254, K288 and K290 were developed and/or reproduced. Photographs relating to these specimens are included in the sets of photographs being furnished.

No film was present in the K301 camera. The K220 rolls of film were unexposed as were two of the four rolls in K226.

Sketches and Diagrams:

Sketches and/or diagrams are present on the pieces of paper in specimens K275, K276, K279, K281, K283 and K284 (see photographs being furnished separately). Some sketches relate to the firing circuit of an improvised explosive device. Other sketches and diagrams are not sufficiently clear to identify the object or objects involved.

✓ One diagram in specimen K281 is a "street layout" and depicts a building identified as a hospital and a street identified as "Harbor."

Maps:

Specimen K255 is a map of Orange County, California.

Specimen K285 is a map of San Francisco, California, and surrounding area.

.. Chemical Analysis:

Specimen K234 consists of two vials each containing tablets.

One vial marked "Penicillin" contains six orange-colored tablets that contain potassium phenoxymethyl penicillin, and antibacterial agent, and correspond in physical properties to "Veetids," a product of E. R. Squibb and Sons. "Veetids" is a prescription only product. The prescribing physician is listed as GGH 05/20/77. U

The other vial marked "Acetaminophen Codeine Tab" contains 17 white tablets that contain acetaminophen and codeine, an analgesic mixture, and correspond in physical properties to "Tylenol," a product of McNeil Laboratories. "Tylenol" with codeine is listed on Schedule III of the Controlled Substances List and is a prescription product containing 300 milligrams of acetaminophen and 30 milligrams of codeine phosphate per tablet.

The K260 bottle is labeled as containing five pounds of "Kodak" sodium sulfite. The bottle was found to contain approximately two pounds of the chemical. This chemical is commonly used in photographic developing.

Explosives:

Specimen K200 is an 80 pound bag of "Ortho" ammonium nitrate fertilizer. The ammonium nitrate is in prill or ball form. A sample removed from the bag was instrumentally identified as ammonium nitrate. Ammonium nitrate can be mixed with other substances to form a high explosive.

Specimens K201 through K205 each consist of unburned safety fuse. These pieces of safety fuse are described as follows:

K201: A length of "Modified Sword - Orange Wax Finish" manufactured by Ensign Bickford, Simsbury, Connecticut, that is about 41'5" long.

K202: A length of "Modified Sword - Orange Wax Finish" which is about 20' long.

K203: A length of "Triple Tape," black in color, manufactured by Coast Manufacturing & Supply Company, Livermore, California, which is about 16'3" long. This manufacturer ceased manufacturing safety fuse in 1968.

K204: A length of "Modified Sword - Orange Wax Finish" which is about 53 1/2" long.

K205: Four pieces of "Modified Sword - Orange Wax Finish" with lengths of about 18", 12", 15" and 7" plus two pieces of "Sword - Orange Wax Finish" manufactured by Ensign Bickford with lengths of about 33" and 17".

"Modified Sword" safety fuse has not been manufactured by Ensign Bickford since 1969 according to information available. "Sword" safety fuse is still manufactured by Ensign Bickford. For information, the types of safety fuse manufactured by Ensign Bickford are sold nationwide.

Some of the above-mentioned pieces of safety fuse were cut in one in connection with examinations.

Specimen K206 is a U.S. Military "M18 Yellow Smoke" hand grenade equipped with a M201A1 fuze. The grenade is housed in a standard grenade container. The body of the grenade bears "TAC-21-19" and the fuze lever bears "FDL-1-28." The "TAC" is the symbol for Talley Industries, Incorporated, Mesa, Arizona, and the "FDL" is the symbol for Federal Laboratories, Saltsburg, Pennsylvania. U

Specimen K207 is an 8 ounce size container for ALCAN "AL-7" smokeless powder made in Sweden for S & W Ammunition Company, Alton, Illinois. The container is about 2/3 full of smokeless powder. A partially illegible number "000" is printed on the bottom of the container. The "dash" in the number represents an illegible digit(s). U

Specimen K208 consists of a 2" pipe size nipple which is 6" long and a pipe cap which is attached to the nipple. The pipe cap bears the raised, molded marking "STOCKHAM." No priming hole is present in the nipple or cap. Therefore, it is not possible to determine whether this specimen was to be used as part of a pipe bomb. U

Specimen K302 is a one pound container of Hercules "Bullseye" smokeless powder. The container is about 3/4 full of smokeless powder. The bottom of the container bears printing consisting of "LOT 72." U

Tape:

Specimen K222 is a partial roll of 3/4"-wide black "friction tape." A sales label affixed to the tape container reveals "Fillmore Glass & Hardware, 1930 Fillmore Street" and a price of $.60. U

Specimen K227 is a partial roll of Johnson & Johnson" 1/2"-wide white adhesive tape. U

Specimen K271 is a partial roll of "Borden" 1 1/2"-wide brown, plastic-coated tape. U Specimen K292 is a partial roll of "Scotch" 3/4"-wide black plastic tape. U Specimen K303 is a partial roll of 3/4"-wide black plastic tape.

Four partial rolls of tape are present in specimen K303. These are described as follows:

1. A sealed roll of "Nashua" 3/4"-wide black plastic tape. A sales label reveals "National Building Ctrs. 70007" and a price of $1.89.
2. A partial roll of 3/4"-wide black plastic tape.
3. A partial roll of "Johnson & Johnson" 1/2"-wide white adhesive tape.
4. A partial roll of "Johnson & Johnson" 1/2"-wide white adhesive tape.

Specimen K312 is a partial roll of "Sekisui" 2"-wide silver-grey plastic tape. This tape was made in Japan.

Ends of the above partial rolls of tape are suitable for comparison purposes.

Miscellaneous:

Specimen K216 is a "Crown" microphone with cord and plug.

Specimen K218 is a grey plastic insulated cord with male plug attached to one end. The conductors are stranded copper wire.

Specimen K219 is an "Allied" VHF Monitor, Model A2587. The attached label indicates a frequency range of 146 MHz to 175 MHz. Two alligator clips are attached to the cord portion of the monitor. The clips are like "Archer" alligator clips available in the Laboratory having Radio Shack catalog number 270-375.

Included in the material comprising specimen K299 is a Los Angeles Police Department Property Receipt, booking number 4603389, relating to an individual identified as "Doe, John #2." Also present is a wallet containing various identification in the name Terrance S. Sullivan with addresses of 34 Center Street, New London, Connecticut, and 136 Meadow Street, Garden City, New York. Some of the photographs being furnished depict the above-mentioned items.

Disposition of Specimens:

The above-listed specimens are being retained in the Laboratory. You will be advised when all examinations have been completed. J

FIVE SUSPECTED TERRORISTS HELD IN BRIGGS PLOT

BY JERRY BELCHER
and DOROTHY TOWNSEND
Times Staff Writers

Five suspected members of the terrorist Weather Underground organization were arrested Saturday in Los Angeles and Houston just hours before they were scheduled to plant a bomb in the Fullerton office of state Sen. John V. Briggs, the FBI announced.

The group planned to open a campaign of assassinations and bombings of public officials with the planting of the explosives in the conservative senator's office, an FBI spokesman said.

Ted Gunderson, special agent in charge of the Los Angeles office of the FBI, said the arrests ended a seven-month investigation during which two FBI agents infiltrated the group and made a number of trips to the desert near Barstow to train with the terrorists.

Gunderson said Thomas M. Justesen, 27, and Paul Daly, about 30, were taken without a fight at about 1:30 p.m. Saturday in a duplex in the Echo Park district of Los Angeles.

Gunderson said Clayton Van Lydergraf, 62, Judith Emily Bissell, 33, and Grace Fortner, about 30, were arrested near the Astroarena in Houston at about the same hour.

According to an affidavit filed by the FBI, the three had gone to Houston as an armed "defense team" to "protect" delegates to the National Women's Conference there.

According to the same affidavit, Daly was to blow up Briggs' office in Fullerton at 5:30 p.m. today and plant a bomb under the porch of the building. The time bomb was set to go off at 1:30 a.m. Monday, the affidavit said.

But a source familiar with the investigation told The Times that the bomb actually was to have been placed in the senator's office at 5:30 p.m. Saturday.

Briggs told The Times that he had been warned by the FBI last month that he had been targeted by terrorists as an assassination victim. He said it apparently was decided later that he would not be killed but that his office would be bombed.

Briggs, who is seeking the Republican gubernatorial nomination, said he was told by the FBI that he had been chosen by the terrorists because of his strong stance in favor of capital punishment and against homosexual teachers in California schools.

"The plot failed because of the skill and courage of these men and women of the FBI," Briggs said Saturday. "The risks they took were tremendous. The FBI has been under attack from all quarters, but this is one man and one family who thank God that they still have the tools to do this kind of job."

One of the undercover agents was told by Ms. Bissell and Van Lydegraf on Oct. 25 that Briggs was their target and that they intended to bomb his Fullerton office, according to the affidavit.

The senator told The Times Saturday that the FBI informed him of the plot the same day, although he was not told the name of the group. He said he had been under constant guard by the state police since that time.

The FBI said that members of the group, disguised in wigs, were observed as they apparently "cased" the Fullerton office on Nov. 4 and Nov. 5, a week later.

Briggs said that on one occasion an FBI agent was inside his office photographing one of the suspects who was outside photographing the building.

Van Lydegraf was identified in the affidavit as the head of the Front Range Operating Committee of the Weather Underground. In 1971, the committee dispatched a lookout to guard the senator's home during a campaign stop.

Briggs said that Mr. Bissell and Grace Fortner,

The two women allegedly told another undercover agent they planned to kill both public officials and private individuals who opposed their revolutionary objectives.

Once, according to the FBI, one of the women mentioned former Santa Barbara Superior Judge Floyd Dodson as another potential target. Dodson is presiding over the Sky-horse-Mohawk murder trial in Los Angeles.

The suspect allegedly told the undercover agent that a bomb could be placed in the judge's car, but apparently nothing further came of the scheme.

All five of the suspects made trips with the undercover agents to the desert near Barstow to train with firearms, according to the affidavit. The two women allegedly gave the agents detailed instructions on how to build bombs.

An FBI spokesman said that between 100 and 150 pounds of explosives and a number of firearms were recovered at five locations in Los Angeles and several handguns were recovered from a Houston apartment that apparently had been rented by Ms. Bissell.

More than 100 FBI agents and Los Angeles Police Department officers took part in the operations here.

The Houston suspects had been in the city at least since the women's conference began Friday. Two were arrested by agents at the Houston Astroarena and the third was picked up "on the freeway," according to the FBI.

Ms. Bissell, a native of New York, has been a fugitive since June, 1970, when a federal warrant was issued for her in Seattle charging her with conspiracy to destroy government property and possession of a destructive device.

She and the other suspects arrested Saturday were charged with conspiracy to violate the Federal Firearms Act and possession of an unregistered explosive device.

Ms. Bissell and Ms. Fortner were being held in the Harris County Jail in Houston. Van Lydegraf was being held at the Harris County Detention Center. Recommended bond for Ms. Bissell is $500,000 and for each of the four other suspects it is $300,000.

Justesen and Daly were being held in Los Angeles Central Jail.

Radical Group Members Held In Planned Bombings Here

By MICHAEL MARTEN
Herald Examiner Staff Writer

Federal agents capped a five-year undercover investigation of the radical Weather Underground with the recovery of high explosives and weapons from a Venice area garage and the arrest of five alleged members who officials charge planned to bomb a judge and politician.

The two men marked were Los Angeles Superior Court Judge Floyd Dodson and state Sen. John Briggs, R-Fullerton, according to a complaint filed in U.S. District Court here.

Los Angeles police ordered the evacuation of 25 homes in the 930 block of Palms Boulevard yesterday afternoon in case the explosives found in a rented garage at 930 Palm Blvd. were booby trapped.

Sgt. Stan Klorman, the officer in charge of the evacuation, said there were enough explosives in the single-car garage to "blow up the entire block."

Special agent John Morrison of the Los Angeles office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation said one-hundred to five hundred pounds of what appears to be explosive material plus numerous weapons had been recovered at 930 Palms Blvd., 1805 1/2 Lucretia Ave., 344 N. Hayworth Ave., 152 N. La Brea and 1932 Preston Ave.

Ted Gunderson, special agent in charge of the local FBI office, said his agents and police officers arrested Thomas Justesen, 27, and Paul Daly, no age given, at the Preston Avenue location yesterday.

He said agents arrested three other alleged members of the left-wing Weather Underground yesterday in Houston. They were identified as Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62; Judith Bissel, 33; and Grace Fortner, no age given.

All five suspects were charged with conspiracy to violate federal firearms laws and with possession of unregistered explosives. They were being held on bail ranging from $300,000 to $500,000 pending arraignment in Houston and Los Angeles Monday.

The complaint filed here alleges that the suspects told two FBI undercover agents that Briggs was their target for violent action, that they checked his (Fullerton) office, and that they intended to use a bomb.

The complaint further alleges that Judge Dodson, who presided over the controversial "Skyhorse, Mohawk" trial of American Indians here recently, was a target of the group and that the suspects planned to "plant a bomb in the judge's car."

5 Arrested In Plot To Bomb Briggs

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Five persons, at least one of them identified as a Weather Underground organizer, were arrested Saturday and charged in connection with an alleged plan to bomb the Fullerton office of state Sen. John Briggs, the FBI reported.

Two persons were arrested here and three others were arrested in Houston, said Ted Gunderson, special agent in charge of the Los Angeles office.

In Los Angeles agents arrested Thomas Michael Justesen, 27, and a man identified only as Vince, also known as Paul Daly, who is between 27 and 32 years old, Gunderson said.

Those arrested in Houston were identified as Clayton van Lydegraf, 62, Judith Emily Bissell, 33, and a woman named Esther, 28 to 32 years old, who used the name Grace Fortner.

All five were charged with conspiracy to violate the federal firearms act and possession of an unregistered explosive device, Gunderson said.

"It was pretty scary," Briggs said in a telephone interview Saturday. "Thank God for the FBI."

Briggs said he met Oct. 27 with FBI agents who told him he had been "targeted by the Marxist Leninist terrorist group."

At that time, Briggs said, the FBI knew only that he was one of three possible targets.

"The most terrifying moment is of all is when the FBI called and said I was no longer 'a' target but 'the' target," Briggs said. That was Nov. 3, after FBI agents had burst into his 1441 N. Harbor Plvd. headquarters and huddled his staff into a back room, telling them "terrorists were walking right past the office," Briggs said. The terrorist group also watched his 111 Pastorebury Road insurance office, he said.

"I was told they (the terrorists) wanted somebody who was very prominent, politically conservative and who was in the news," the candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination said. He said he felt their decision also was influenced by his pro-death penalty position and his initiative drive to take homosexual teachers out of school classrooms.

FBI agents Saturday searched five Los Angeles locations where the suspects had been seen prior to their arrests and turned up 100-120 pounds of "what appears to be explosives" and numerous weapons, a spokesman said.

BRIGGS BOMBING ONLY A STARTTerrorists Plotted Assassination Series

LOS ANGELES (AP) —

Five persons believed to be members of the Weather Underground terrorist group were arrested a day before they allegedly planned to place a bomb in a state senator's office, the FBI said.

Searches following the arrests Saturday turned up more than 100 pounds of explosives in five Los Angeles locations, said Ted Gunderson, special agent in charge of the Los Angeles office. He said numerous weapons also were uncovered.

The five were arrested here and in Houston and accused of planning a series of assassinations and bombings that was to have started with the bombing Sunday of state Sen. John V. Briggs' Fullerton office, agents said.

In Los Angeles, police arrested Thomas Michael Justesen, 27, and Mark Perry, 29, Gunderson said.

Those arrested in Houston were identified as Clayton Van Lydegraf, 52, Judith Emily Bissell, 33, and a woman named Esther, about 30 years old, who used the name Grace Fortner.

All five were charged with conspiracy to violate federal firearms laws and possession of unregistered explosive devices, Gunderson said. They were scheduled to be arraigned today before federal magistrates in Houston and Los Angeles.

According to an FBI affidavit, the three had gone to Houston as an armed "defense team" to "protect" delegates to the National Women's Conference.

The affidavit contends that Daly planned to bicycle to Briggs' office at 5:30 p.m. Sunday to plant the bomb under the front porch. It was scheduled to go off at 1:30 a.m. today, the affidavit said.

Briggs said Saturday that the FBI warned him a month ago that he was an assassination target. But agents told him it was decided later that he would not be killed, but his office would be bombed.

Briggs, who is seeking the Republican nomination for governor, said he was told by the FBI that he had been chosen as a target because of his strong stands supporting capital punishment and opposing homosexual teachers.

Briggs said he has been guarded by police since Oct. 25, when an undercover FBI agent was told that Briggs' office had been "targeted."

LINKED TO WEATHER UNDERGROUNDFive Seized in Briggs Bomb Plot

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An FBI search following the arrest of five persons charged with an alleged bombing plan turned up 100-150 pounds of "what appears to be explosives," an FBI spokesman said Saturday.

FBI agents searched five Los Angeles area locations where they had seen the people prior to their arrest Saturday. The five — at least one of them identified as a Weather Underground organizer — were arrested and charged in connection with an alleged plan to bomb the office of state Sen. John Briggs, the FBI said.

Two persons were arrested here and three others were arrested in Houston, said Ted Gunderson, special agent in charge of the Los Angeles office.

Gunderson said in addition to 100-150 pounds of what were believed to be explosives, agents and Los Angeles police officers uncovered numerous weapons.

In Los Angeles agents arrested Thomas Michael Justesen, 27, and a man identified only as Vince, also known as Paul Daly, who is between 27 and 32 years old, Gunderson said.

Ms. Bissell and Esther were arrested at the AstroArena, a hall adjacent to the Astrodome, where a pro-family, pro-life protest rally was being held in opposition to the International Women's Year Conference.

Agents followed the women to the hall, waited several hours and arrested them as they were getting into a car to leave, said agent Robert Franck.

He said they had been in Houston for several days and were staying at a motel. Lydegraf was staying at another motel.

On Oct. 25, Van Lydegraf and Ms. Bissell told an FBI undercover agent that Briggs' business office in Fullerton had been "targeted for violent action," Gunderson said.

Gunderson said they told the agent that a bomb, constructed at the home of Ms. Bissell on Nov. 17 and 18, would be planted under the porch of the office.

Trio ordered sent to L.A.

By JORJANNA PRICE
Post Reporter

A California woman sought for seven years as an underground radical leader and two of her companions were ordered Monday to be moved to a Los Angeles federal court after their arrests here during the National Women's Conference.

The trio waived removal hearings before U.S. Magistrate Norman Black who refused to lower their bonds, which range from $350,000 to $500,000.

Arrested this weekend by FBI agents were Judith Emily Bissell, 33, of Los Angeles, listed by the FBI as a fugitive and member of the Weather Underground movement; Clayton Van Lydegraft, 62, of San Francisco, head of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee of the Weather Underground, and a woman tentatively identified as Esther Grace Fortner, about 32, also of Los Angeles.

In a complaint filed by federal agents in Los Angeles, the trio and two other persons arrested in Los Angeles are charged with conspiring to teach others the use of explosives, receiving explosive materials and failure to register firearms. About 150 pounds of explosives and assorted weapons were found in California by agents.

Agents here said that five handguns were confiscated from a northside motel where the three were staying after their arrival last week. All the defendants allegedly were planning to guard feminist participants of the women's conference from the Ku Klux Klan and to bomb the office of a California state senator.

Van Lydegraft, called to the witness stand in the hearing, refused respond to government questions about his involvement with the Weather Underground. A refrigeration and appliance mechanic, Van Lydegraft said he was in Houston to visit friends and "to observe the events of the International Women's Year."

The two women did not testify. They were arrested outside a Pro-Life rally at the AstroArena and Van Lydegraft was arrested in his car in north Houston.

A statement by Van Lydegraft which was read, later by fellow members of Prairie Fire said, "Several men of Prairie Fire came to Houston to support Prairie Fire women. We were here to support all women oppressed."

FBI arrests 3 as 'Weather' suspects here

BY PETE BREWTON
Chronicle Staff

Undercover FBI agents arrested two women they say are members of the radical Weather Underground Saturday outside a Pro-Family Coalition rally in the Astroarena.

Agents also arrested another alleged member of the underground in North Houston while the FBI and Los Angeles police arrested two alleged Weathermen in Los Angeles.

FBI officials said the arrests were the result of an investigation of a plot to assassinate public officials and to bomb public and private property.

The FBI did not specify whether the plans involved public figures or property in Houston.

All five arrested are charged with conspiracy to violate the Federal Firearms Act and possession of unregistered explosive devices.

The three arrested here were Judith Emily Bissell, 33, sought since 1970 on charges of conspiracy to destroy government property and possessing a bomb, Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62, and a woman who uses the names Esther Fortner and Grace Fortner.

The two arrested in Los Angeles were Thomas Michael Jutesen, 27 and a man identified only as "Vince."

The two women were arrested at 3:35 p.m. in the Astroarena parking lot and Van Lydegraf was arrested about 2 p.m. in a car in North Houston. Robert R. Franck, FBI special agent in charge here, said.

The three came to Houston because of the National Women's Conference being held this-weekend in the Albert Thomas Convention Center, Franck said.

The Pro-family rally, where the two women were arrested, was billed as a counterconvention sponsored by women who oppose the proposed federal Equal Rights Amendment and abortion on demand.

Franck said there is no evidence that the three arrested here had any contact with delegates at either the Pro-family rally or the women's conference. Agents had been following the three since their arrival in Houston early last week, he said.

The three were not armed when arrested but they had some firearms in Houston which they had not picked up, Franck said.

All three arrested here were held at the Harris County Rehabilitation Center. Bissell was held in lieu of $500,000 bond and the other two in lieu of $300,000 bond each.

The arrests are the culmination of a seven-month undercover FBI investigation into the Weather Underground in Houston and Los Angeles, Franck said.

In a 200-page complaint filed in Los Angeles, Van Lydegraf is named as the California head of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee of the Weather Underground and is charged with directing Bissell, Fortner, Jutesen and another person to recruit members for an underground political group.

That group's objectives included assassinations and bombings to further its political goals of revolutionary acts against the government, the FBI said.

Last May, Van Lydegraf told an FBI undercover agent that Bissell and Fortner were the leaders of the underground's revolutionary committee in Los Angeles, the FBI said.

The two women allegedly told undercover agents that they planned to assassinate public officials and others and destroy private and public property of individuals and groups who oppose their revolutionary goals, the FBI said.

All those arrested Saturday made several trips to the California desert for firearms training and Bissell and Fortner gave undercover agents detailed instructions on bomb making, the complaint says.

Last month, Van Lydegraf told the undercover agents of a plan to bomb the office of California State Sen. John V. Briggs of Fullerton, the FBI said. The bomb was made on Nov. 17 and 18 in Bissell's home, the complaint charges.

Franck said the bomb contained about 10 pounds of explosives.

The Weather Underground was known as the Weatherman when it was formed in 1969 as an extremist offshoot of the Students for a Democratic Society. The group dedicated itself to "the violent overthrow of established power in the United States."

The Weather Underground has 50 to 300 members and has claimed responsibility for at least 20 bombings.

The FBI is looking for about 14 leaders of the group.

3 Weather Underground members held

FBI agents in Houston and Los Angeles arrested members of the radical Weather Underground movement Saturday, saying they foiled plans by the organization to guard feminist participants of the National Women's Conference from the Ku Klux Klan and to bomb the office of a California state senator.

Two women, Judith Emily Bissell, 33, and a woman tentatively identified as Grace Fortner, age 23-32, both of the Los Angeles area, were arrested in the Astrodome parking lot as they left a Pro-Life rally.

The third person, Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62, of the San Francisco Bay area, was arrested as he was driving a car near Fulton and Cavalcade on the near north side of the city.

The FBI said Van Lydegraf was identified in a Los Angeles complaint as the head of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee. And, they said, it charged him with directing three members to recruit individuals to join an underground political group which had as its primary objectives assassinations of public figures and bombings of public buildings.

All the arrests were related to a plan to bomb the office of Fullerton, Calif., State Sen. John V. Briggs, according to Robert Russ Franck, special agent in charge of the Houston division.

California agents said 150 pounds of explosives and an assortment of weapons was seized there in connection with the twin raids.

The three arrested here and the two picked up in Los Angeles, Thomas Michael Justesen, 27, and a man identified as Paul Daly, who agents said goes by the name of "Vince," about 30, have been charged with conspiracy to violate the Federal Firearms Act and possession of unregistered explosive devices, Franck said.

All three had been followed since they arrived in Houston last week from Los Angeles, Franck said. Bissell and Van Lydegraf arrived Tuesday. Fortner arrived Wednesday.

The Pro-Life rally Saturday at the AstroArena, where the women were arrested, was the only conference affair any of the three attended in Houston, and it is not believed they were associated with any delegation registered at the NWC, Franck said.

Arrests here were delayed until Saturday to coincide with developments in the Los Angeles investigation, he said.

None of the three offered resistance when agents arrested them here. They were being held pending arraignment Monday. Bails ranging from $300,000 to $500,000 were set for the three.

Bissell has been sought by the FBI since June 1970 when a federal warrant was issued for her arrest at Seattle in connection with the planting of a bomb at the University of Washington. Eighteen members of the Weather Underground are still being sought by the FBI on a variety of federal and local charges.

Franck said there are not thought to be any other Weather Underground members in the Houston area.

The arrests climaxed a seven-month investigation in Los Angeles and Houston, he said. During May of this year, Van Lydegraf allegedly told an undercover officer that Bissell and Fortner, who used the name Esther, were leaders of the Revolutionary Committee of the Weather Underground in Los Angeles, Franck said.

The FBI arrested five members of the radical Weather Underground Saturday, smashing what it called bomb plots against a judge and a state senator.

The FBI also said it foiled plans by the radical group to defend feminists at the National Women's Conference in Houston against possible attacks by the Ku Klux Klan and anti-feminist forces.

Ted Gunderson, special agent in charge of the Los Angeles FBI office, said the bureau seized 150 pounds of explosives and an assortment of weapons in twin raids against Weather Underground members in Los Angeles and Houston.

Gunderson said three members of the radical group were taken into custody in Houston and two were arrested in Los Angeles.

He said the arrests capped a seven-month investigation in which undercover FBI agents infiltrated the activities of the Weather Underground and were given fire-arms by members of the group, which was formed in 1969.

The Weather Underground, a group that emerged from the breakup of the Students for a Democratic Society, went underground in 1970 with a campaign of "strategic sabotage" against government and private industry.

Arrested in Houston were Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62, a resident of the San Francisco Bay area; Judith Emily Bissell, 33, a fugitive since 1970, and Grace Fortner, about 30, who uses the name Esther.

In Los Angeles, the FBI arrested Thomas Michael Justesen, 27, Sacramento, Calif., and Paul Daly, who goes by the nickname "Vince," agents said.

They were all arrested on charges of conspiracy to violate the federal Firearms Act and possession of an unregistered explosive device.

The FBI identified Van Lydegraf as the head of the Weather Underground's Prairie Fire organizing committee, which allegedly specializes in assassination and sabotage.

The FBI said Van Lydegraf directed Miss Bissell, Miss Fortner, Justesen and Daly in an effort to recruit individuals to join the Prairie Fire group.

A 12-page summary of allegations said the group unwittingly trained two undercover FBI agents, Richard J. Giannotti and William D. Reagan, in connection with their projects.

IN WAKE OF BOMB PLOT

Briggs Given Protection

By DAVE TAYLOR
News Tribune Writer

FULLERTON — State police are guarding Sen. John V. Briggs today in the wake of a bomb plot broken up by the FBI.

Five Weather Underground terrorists were to be arraigned today for a plot to bomb the Fullerton legislator's office at 1400 N. Harbor Blvd. sometime over the weekend.

California schools," Briggs said.

Briggs credited the FBI, who infiltrated what he called a Marxist-Leninist far left group called Prairie Fire, with breaking up the threat on his life.

He also said the Fullerton Police Department and Orange County Sheriff's Office helped in the case.

Briggs said he was told Friday that Saturday his Fullerton office would be bombed by the group, which had been in Fullerton on several occasions "casing" the office.

Five persons were taken into custody Saturday in Los Angeles and Houston before the the bomb was scheduled to go off. Firearms and 150 pounds of explosives were seized ending what the FBI said was a seven-month investigation.

Briggs said he was to be in company with state police when he held a press conference in Los Angeles today with another subject.

5 terrorist suspects arrested in bomb plot

The arrest of five Weather Underground terrorists headed off a plan to bomb the office of a conservative California legislator today and to commit violent acts at the National Women's Conference in Houston, the FBI says. "There is a problem when terrorists take action because people take a strong political view," Briggs said. "When you take a strong view, you risk your life."

Five Weather Underground members were arrested during the weekend, two in Los Angeles and three in Houston, and firearms and 150 pounds of explosives and other bomb-making material were seized, ending what the FBI said was a seven-month investigation. "That should not be," the FBI infiltrators said the Weather Underground was also planning to send what it called "a clandestine armed team" to the National Women's Conference in Houston, in the words of an organizer, "for defensive purposes ... to lend aid or support to women who may be beaten or harassed by the KKK or other repressive groups."

Police said they found 150 pounds of plastic explosives stored in a garage at 932 Palms Blvd. in Venice Saturday, allegedly put there by those arrested. The group also planned to place a bomb in the car of Superior Court Judge Floyd Dodson, who is presiding over the trial of two American Indian Movement leaders charged with murdering a taxi driver, the FBI said.

They said the explosives were removed without incident after they evacuated some 20 homes in the area. Arrested in Los Angeles were Thomas M. Justesen, 27, of Sacramento and Paul Daly, known as "Vince."

Undercover agents who joined the radical leftist group were taken into the desert near Birstow and trained in use of guns and bombs to take part in the actions, the FBI said. Arrested in Houston were Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62, of San Francisco — allegedly head of the group's violence arm, the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee — Grace Fortner, about 30, and Judith Emily Bissell, 33, a fugitive since 1970 from a federal charge in her home town of Seattle of conspiracy to destroy government property.

Briggs has been campaigning for the death penalty and is the chief backer of a drive to put an initiative on the ballot which, if passed by the voters, would allow local school authorities to fire teachers whose homosexuality was publically displayed. Two undercover agents, Richard J. Granotti and William D. Reagan, said disguised members of the group scouted Briggs' office. The agents said they were present as members built a bomb last week "large enough to demolish the entire building."

Briggs said he had known about the plot since last month and had urged under a small umbrella for

Terrorists Handle Own Case

LOS ANGELES (AP) —

Two alleged members of the terrorist Weather Underground were granted the right to act as their own attorneys Monday in federal court and rejected an offer of advisory counsel.

Mark Curtis Perry, 29, and Thomas Michel Justensen, 27, argued at length with U.S. District Court Magistrate Ralph J. Geffen over their right to self-representation. They asked Geffen to order the Sheriff's Department to refrain from exercising disciplinary action against them that would interfere with the preparation of their defense, to permit them use of jail telephones and access to the jail law library.

"You should have the same proper privileges as all other prisoners in proper circumstances," Geffen replied, but he emphasized he could not guarantee how jail officials would treat them.

"I cannot promise you that when you get to the county jail, you can walk in and have access to legal materials," Geffen said.

Geffen scheduled a preliminary hearing for the pair on Dec. 1 and arraignment Dec. 5. They did not enter a plea.

2 Arraigned in Terrorist Bomb Plot Case

Self-Avowed Radicals Say They Plan a 'Political Defense'

BY ROBERT RAWITCH

Times Staff Writer

Two self-avowed radicals were arraigned in Los Angeles Federal Court Monday on charges of possessing illegal explosives two days after they and three associates suspected of belonging to the terrorist Weather Underground allegedly planned to blow up the office of State Sen. John V. Briggs.

In an appearance before U.S. Magistrate Ralph G. Geffen, Thomas M. Justesen, 27, and Marc Curtis Perry, 29, (earlier identified as Paul Daly) made it clear that they viewed the criminal charges as political persecution because of their radical views. They said they planned to prepare a "political defense," without elaborating on exactly what that meant.

During the hour-long hearing, Justesen and Perry, sometimes speaking at barely audible levels, asked and were granted the right to act as their own attorneys for at least the time being.

Both men said they were indigent, but they declined court-appointed attorneys, stating they preferred to represent themselves.

Each also refused to fill out background forms to aid in the setting of bail, and Geffen ultimately accepted the government's recommendation of $300,000 bail on each man.

In the colloquy that ensued relating to bail, however, some additional information about the two men emerged.

Justesen said he was unmarried, unemployed, owned no property and had not seen his mother in 10 years. He declined to say how long he had been living in the Los Angeles area.

It was also learned that Justesen was indicted in 1970 for an alleged Selective Service violation and had been a fugitive until the charges against him were dropped in January under President Carter's amnesty program.

Perry, who also has been known to use the name William Warren Hart, said he had once been married and had two children. He also said he was unemployed and declined to say how long he has been in the Los Angeles area.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Paul Flynn said he was not aware of any other criminal charges pending against Perry except those stemming from the cache of explosives that the five defendants were said to have possessed.

Throughout the hearing, Geffen listened to the pair's protestations of innocence and their commitment to "the national liberation struggle, women's liberation and the rights of oppressed people throughout the world."

Earlier in the day, Municipal Judge Michael L. Burke was less tolerant of their desire to make political statements, but nonetheless allowed the pair to act as their own attorneys on related state charges filed against them.

Burke, however, granted the request of Don. Dist. Atty. Robert Jorgensen that both men be held in lieu of $300,000 bail.

Meanwhile, in Houston, three codefendants in the alleged plot to bomb the offices of the Republican state senator and others were held on $300,000 bail and said they would not object to being transferred to Los Angeles to face the state and federal charges as soon as possible.

Expected to arrive in Los Angeles late this week or sometime next week are Clayton Van Lydergraf, 62; with Emily Bissell, 33, and a woman identified as Grace Fortmer, 30. FBI officials said they are sure Fortmer is not the woman's true name but have yet to establish her actual identity.

2 Arraigned On Bomb Charges

By AL ALBERGATE

Herald Examiner Staff Writer

Two suspected members of the terrorist Weather Underground organization have been arraigned in federal district court here on charges related to alleged plans for a bombing campaign. Three other suspected members of the organization were arrested Saturday in Houston and are expected to be returned to Los Angeles after Thanksgiving. They were identified as Clayton Van Lydergraf, 62; Judith Bissell, 33; and Catherine Gillespie.

Magistrate Ralph Geffen yesterday set bail at $500,000 each for Mark Perry and Thomas Justesen, 27, who were arrested last Saturday just hours before a bomb allegedly was to have been planted in the campaign office of conservative State Sen. John Briggs. Dep. Dist. Atty. Robert Jorgensen said FBI agents infiltrated the group one or two years ago.

The Weather Underground has taken credit for numerous bombings around the country in recent years.

In court, Perry read a statement proclaiming, "We are committed to the struggle for women's liberation and oppressed people, and against white male supremacy."

Justesen called the charges "political." But Geffen disagreed, saying the government is charging them with violent acts.

Each defendant faces one count of violating the Federal Firearms Act and one count of possessing a bomb.

Geffen scheduled the pair to return Dec. 1 for a preliminary hearing, but observers predicted that a federal grand jury would indict them before then, thus eliminating the hearing.

Their federal court appearance followed by a few hours similar appearance in Los Angeles Municipal Court where they face five felony charges for the same allegations.

Judge Michael Burke, at their request, postponed arraignment until next Monday. He set bail at $500,000 each.

Officials said it was likely that the two will be tried on state charges prior to the federal case.

2 suspected radicals face arms charges

United Press International

Two alleged members of the radical Weather Underground, suspected of plotting three political bombings, were arraigned Monday in Los Angeles on federal explosives and firearms charges.

The group also allegedly planned violence at the International Women's Year Conference in Houston and had discussed planting a bomb under the car of former Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau. Three other alleged members in custody in Houston were expected to be sent to Los Angeles within 10 days.

Thomas Michael Justesen, 27, Sacramento, and Marc Curtis Perry, 29, also known as Paul Daly, were arraigned before U.S. Magistrate Ralph G. Gaifen on federal charges of conspiracy to violate federal firearms and explosives laws and hold on $500,000 bond each.

Earlier in the day, they appeared before Municipal Judge Michael J. Burke on charges of conspiracy and possession of an explosive device. Bail was set at $500,000 each.

Their request for a two-week delay in their municipal court arraignment was denied and Burke set a Nov. 28 arraignment date on the local charges.

Both men, suspected of a plot to detonate a bomb at the office of state Sen. John Briggs, asked to act as their own attorneys.

In Houston, Judith Emily Bissell, 33, was held on $500,000 bail pending extradition to Los Angeles. Grace Fortner and Clayton Van Lyden, 62, both of San Francisco, were being held on $500,000 bond and waived their rights to an extradition hearing.

All five were arrested Saturday, a day before they were allegedly taken to place a bomb at the office of Briggs, a conservative Republican who is running for governor.

Magistrate orders 3 returned to California

BY JOHN KLING
Chronicle Staff

A federal magistrate refused to lower bond for three alleged members of the radical Weather Underground arrested here and ordered that they be returned to California on pending charges in that state.

The three were arrested here Saturday on California charges of possessing firearms and explosive devices.

Attorneys for the three suspects Monday waived their rights for a hearing on their transfer to Los Angeles after U.S. Magistrate Norman W. Black refused to lower bond. Black said the three would be transferred to California within 10 days.

Black heard brief testimony from one of the defendants, Clayton Van Lydegraf, 32, of San Francisco and then ruled that he could not recommend that a U.S. district judge in Los Angeles lower Lydegraf's $300,000 bond.

Nancy Hormachea, a Houston attorney representing Judith Emily Bissell 33, and Grace Fortner, chose not to place the women on the stand.

She said a request for bond reduction here would be a "waste of time," adding that a reduction would be sought in Los Angeles.

Bissell, sought since 1970 on charges of conspiracy to destroy government property and possessing a bomb, is held in lieu of $500,000 bond. Fortner's bond is $300,000.

The women were arrested Saturday by the Federal Bureau of Investigation outside a Pro-Family Rally at the Astroarena.

Lydegraf was arrested a short time earlier in a car in north Houston.

FBI officials said the three arrests here and the arrest of two others in Los Angeles were the result of seven-month investigation of an alleged plot to assassinate public officials and to bomb public and private property.

The FBI said it did not know whether the plans involved public figures or property in Houston.

All five arrested are charged with conspiracy to violate the Federal Firearms Act and possession of unregistered explosive devices.

In a 263-page complaint filed in Los Angeles, Lydegraf is named as the California head of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee of the Weather Underground and is charged with directing Bissell, Fortner and two others to recruit members for an underground political group.

In response to questions from his attorney Larry Sauer, Lydegraf said Monday that he is a self-employed refrigerator and appliance mechanic and a veteran of World War II and that he has never been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor resulting in more than a fine.

He said he was here solely to visit friends and to observe the National Women's Conference.

Under questioning by U.S. Attorney James Powers, Lydegraf declined to answer whether he was familiar with the Weather Underground.

He said that since he had not been allowed to read the complaint against him, he wouldn't answer questions that could prejudice his defense.

The Weather Underground was known as the Weatherman when it was formed in 1969 as an extremist offshoot of the Students for a Democratic Society.

The Weather Underground dedicated itself to "the violent overthrow of established power in the United States." The group has claimed responsibility for at least 26 bombings. Following the hearing, members of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee explained that the group is dedicated to "women's liberation and national liberation."

Karen Shain and Diana Block, both of San Francisco, said Lydegraf, a member of the committee, came to Houston to support the group's leaflet distribution activities at the women's conference.

They declined to comment on whether Lydegraf is a member of the Weather Underground but said the two women are not members of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee.

They said the group is national but declined to say how many members it has. They said the group is prepared for a "long, violent fight" to achieve its goals.

The FBI claims Lydegraf told undercover agents of a plan to bomb the office of a California state senator. The complaint charges that the bomb containing 10 pounds of explosives was made on Nov. 17 and 18 in Bissell's home.

As Perry tried to read the statement, Judge Burke, Perry, a tall, slim man with a beard and braided ponytail falling to the middle of his back — attempted to read a statement beginning, "as a result of the victories and leadership of the self-determination movement . . . we hereby demand our constitutional right to self-representation."

The judge cut in, saying, "I'm not here to listen to a statement, sir."

"We have a right to be heard," Justesen answered. "We're here as defendants to make motions. As the Judge, you should listen to our statements."

As Perry tried to read the statement, the Judge angrily said, "this is a court of law," warning the defendant to abide by rules of the court.

"We have a motion . . . (and) we would like to have it entered in the record of the court," Justesen said.

Perry finally read the statement, telling the Judge they wanted to be housed in such a manner they could work on their defense, they intended to hire attorneys to aid them and they were without funds.

"We're requesting at this point a continuance of two weeks . . . it's a serious case and we want to prepare," Perry said.

Judge Burke said he couldn't under law delay their arraignment two weeks. He scheduled it for Nov. 28 and both defendants agreed. At the hearing, charges will be read to the defendants and they can ask to have bail lowered.

At one point in the proceeding, when the Judge referred to Jorgensen as the representative of the people, Perry called out:

"We represent the people. He represents the state."

Prosecution documents say Ms. Gillespie, Ms. Pissell and Van Lydegraf told an undercover F-B-I agent they are leaders of the "revolutionary committee of the weather underground." Van Lydegraf was identified as head of the Prairie Fire organizing committee.

The documents further identified the two women, Justesen and Perry (also known as Vince) as a "scout team which will take military action." The women reportedly told an undercover agent they planned to act "in concert" with other groups.

Ms. Pissell and Ms. Gillespie were identified as being involved in the "weather underground" and the "revolutionary committee of the weather underground."

State Sen. John Briggs, R-Fullerton, says he is terrorized, but vows he will not be intimidated by alleged attempts of members of the radical Weather Underground to assassinate him by bombing his Orange County office.

Briggs, who has announced his candidacy for the GOP gubernatorial nomination, was reached by The Herald Examiner at his Northern California ranch, where he told how it feels to be a target of revolutionaries.

"This has sort of terrorized me and my family for about a month," he said. "Even when I speak before a friendly group I leave early and move around very carefully. This group is not your average little group that just gets mad and threatens your life one time. It could be a continuing thing."

Briggs, who is sponsoring an initiative campaign to outlaw the hiring of homosexual teachers and also favors introduction of a stronger death penalty bill into the legislature, has been under protection of state police since the bombing plot was uncovered one month ago.

FBI agents have been investigating the organization for several months.

Following the FBI's arrest last week of five alleged members of the Weather Underground in connection with the plot, a Briggs aide said state police had advised him to cut down public appearances.

Briggs says that will not happen.

An FBI complaint filed here against the five suspects states that they told two undercover agents that Briggs was their target for violent action and that they had checked his Fullerton office and intended to use a bomb.

Another target was purported to be Santa Barbara Superior Court Judge Floyd Dodson, who has been presiding here over the controversial trial of Richard Mohawk and Paul Skyhorse, two members of the American Indian Movement who had been in contact with him.

During the last month, Briggs' frequent contact with FBI agents who told him they had infiltrated the Weather Underground kept Briggs one step ahead of the plot, he told The Herald Examiner. (ow)

FBI agents here confirmed Briggs' story.

"The agents made it clear to me that as long as we were in contact, I would not be liquidated," Briggs said.

He said he first learned of the plot on Thursday, Oct. 27, when an interview he was giving at the Los Angeles Athletic Club was interrupted by Ted Gunderson, special agent in charge of the FBI office here, and another agent.

"They told me I had been targeted for assassination by bombing and that another victim, whose name wasn't disclosed, was to get a bullet in the chest," he said.

"The following day, when I was across the street from my office, the FBI burst into the place, flashed their cards, and ordered my staff to move." The incident was confirmed by the FBI.

Briggs said he got a phone call from the FBI the following Monday, warning him that "things are moving to a climax. You have been moved from 'a target' to 'the target,' and there was no way to get more definitive information."

He said that on Friday, Nov. 18, he received another phone call from the FBI, warning him, "Tomorrow's the day. Stay away from your office."

Briggs said he couldn't assess the result of the death threats on his campaign. He said that if the radicals wanted to draw attention to their political theories, in actuality they had shown the need for tougher death-penalty legislation.

"The death penalty we have right now makes it impossible to apply the death penalty to those who plot murders," he said. "With our present bill, Charles Manson couldn't get the death penalty. If these people had been successful in killing me, only the people who planted the bomb would have been subject to a death penalty."

And, he continued, the group had not been successful in getting him to tone down his criticism of the gay community.

"They can't eliminate me and I'm not going to be coerced into not making political appearances," he said. "I'll go out there and we'll be careful. This Marxist organization will not be successful in disrupting the American way of life."

Briggs, who flew to Florida to be with orange juice promoter Anita Bryant when she launched her crusade against homosexuality, said he had recently stepped up his campaign to overturn Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr.'s bill prohibiting discrimination on the basis of sexual preference.

"If anything, I've stepped up my disapproval of the homosexuals," Briggs declared. He said he thinks the Gay Media Task Force is one of the most powerful groups in gaining access to television air time.

"Just because they dress nice, look nice and talk nice doesn't make them any better," he said. "Evil dressed up as acceptable doesn't change its character. Rampant immorality is being fostered in this country. And this violent plot has focused interest in the two major problems of our time — permissiveness and crime."

While the two suspects of masterminding the plot have been taken into custody on federal and state charges, Briggs said he still feels in danger.

He would not disclose whether his round-the-clock, state police protection will continue.

But, he added, he doesn't feel particularly vulnerable at the moment.

"I've been a campaigner for the better part of my family — here, chopping a little wood and taking it easy," he said. — 685 —

Terrorist Suspects Cheered in Court

By AL ALBERGATE
Herald Examiner Staff Writer

Five suspected members of the terrorist Weather Underground organization have appeared in Los Angeles Municipal Court and were applauded by almost a dozen members of an "above ground" support group.

Authorities said the three men and two women were part of a conspiracy to blow up the Fullerton office of California state Sen. John Briggs.

The defendants' appearance yesterday before Judge Michael Burke was the first time the five were in court together since their arrests in Los Angeles and Houston on Nov. 19.

They have been charged with five felonies, including conspiracy, possession of destructive devices and explosives and possession of bomb making ingredients.

Appearing in court yesterday were

Thomas Justesen, 27; Mark Perry, 29; Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62; Judith Bissell, 33; and Leslie Mullin, 30 (formerly identified as Catherine Gillespie).

At their request, Judge Burke postponed the arraignment until Dec. 14. They also face federal charges of possessing illegal explosives.

Burke granted Van Lydegraf, Bissell and Mullin tentative rights to act as their own attorneys, as he had done for the other two last week.

Justesen claimed sheriff's deputies in the county jail had not allowed him the privileges concurrent with defending himself legally, so Judge Burke issued an order to the jail to correct the situation.

Earlier in the day, about 12 members of a group, calling themselves the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee, held a news conference inside the Criminal Courts building.

The said they were not part of the Weather Underground, but were expressing their support for the five defendants. "because we feel they are committed to anti-imperialist policies."

FBI arrests five in plot to kill public figures

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The FBI arrested five members of the radical Weather Underground Saturday, smashing what it called bomb plots against a judge and a state senator.

The FBI also said it foiled plans by the radical group to defend feminists at the National Women's Conference in Houston against possible attacks by the Ku Klux Klan and anti-feminist forces.

Ted Gunderson, special agent in charge of the Los Angeles FBI office, said the bureau seized 150 pounds of explosives and an assortment of weapons in twin raids against Weather Underground members in Los Angeles and Houston.

Gunderson said three members of the radical group were taken into custody in Houston and two were arrested in Los Angeles.

He said the arrests capped a seven-month investigation in which undercover FBI agents infiltrated the activities of the Weather Underground and were given firearms by members of the group, which was formed in 1969.

The Weather Underground, a group that emerged from the breakup of the Students for a Democratic Society, went underground in 1970 with a campaign of "strategic sabotage" against government and private industry.

Arrested in Houston were Clarence Van Lydegraf, 31, a resident of the San Francisco Bay area; Judith Emily Bissell, 33, a fugitive since 1970, and Grace Fortner, about 30, who uses the name Esther.

In Los Angeles, the FBI arrested Thomas Michael Justesen, 27, Sacramento, and Paul Daly, who goes by the nickname "Vince," agents said.

They were all arrested on charges of conspiracy to violate the federal Firearms Act and possession of an unregistered explosive device.

The FBI identified Van Lydegraf as the head of the Weather Underground's Prairie Fire organizing committee, which allegedly specializes in assassination and sabotage.

The FBI said Van Lydegraf directed Miss Bissell, Miss Fortner, Justesen and Daly in an effort to recruit individuals to join the Prairie Fire group.

A 12-page summary of allegations said the group unwittingly trained two undercover FBI agents, Richard J. Glannotti and William D. Reagan, in connection with their projects.

It said the group took the agents on several trips to the Southern California desert near Barstow, where the FBI men were given firearms training and shown how to build bombs.

The FBI quoted one of the suspects as saying the group should consider killing police and another as giving instructions on how to build a bomb.

It said the suspects used batteries, clips, wires, tweezers; cutters, strippers, electrical tape, a watch and sockets in the bomb-making class.

The summary said the group told the undercover agents of three potential attacks:

- The bombing of a car belonging to California Superior Court Judge Floyd Dodson, currently presiding over the murder trial of two American Indian Movement members.

- The defense of feminists at the National Women's conference against a demand by the KKK and anti-feminists.

- The bombing of the office of state Sen. ... a ... GOP candidate for governor of California.

Explosives seized in Venice

5 terror suspects seized

Evening Outlook News Services

The arrest of five Weather Underground terrorists headed off a plan to bomb the office of a conservative California legislator today and to commit violent acts at the National Women's Conference in Houston, the FBI says.

Five Weather Underground members were arrested during the weekend, two in Los Angeles and three in Houston, and firearms and 150 pounds of explosives and other bomb-making material were seized, ending what the FBI said was a seven-month investigation.

Police said they found 150 pounds of plastic explosives stored in a garage at 927 Palms Blvd. in Venice Saturday, allegedly put there by those arrested.

They said the explosives were removed without incident after the evacuated some 20 homes in the area.

Undercover agents who joined the radical leftist group were taken into the desert near Barstow and trained in use of guns and bombs to take part in the actions, the FBI said.

One of the plans called for a bomb to be planted Sunday night under the porch at a building containing an office of state Sen. John Briggs, a conservative Republican who is running for governor. The bomb was to be set to explode this morning, the FBI said.

Briggs has been campaigning for the death penalty and is the chief backer of a drive to put an initiative on the ballot which, if passed by the voters, would allow local school authorities to fire teachers whose homosexuality was publically displayed.

Two undercover agents, Richard J. Gianotti and William D. Reagan, said disguised members of the group scouted Briggs' office. The agents said they were present as members built a bomb last week "large enough to demolish the entire building."

Briggs said he had known about the plot since last month and had lived under "a small reign of terror."

Terrorist Suspects Cheered in Court

By AL ALBERGATE

Herald Examiner Staff Writer

Five suspected members of the terrorist Weather Underground organization have appeared in Los Angeles Municipal Court and were applauded by almost a dozen members of an "above ground" support group.

Authorities said the three men and two women were part of a conspiracy to blow up the Fullerton office of California state Sen. John Briggs.

The defendants' appearance yesterday before Judge Michael Burke was the first time the five were in court together since their arrests in Los Angeles and Houston on Nov. 19.

They have been charged with five felonies, including conspiracy, possession of destructive devices and explosives and possession of bomb making ingredients.

Appearing in court yesterday were Thomas Justesen, 27; Mark Perry, 29; Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62; Judith Bissell, 33, and Leslie Mullin, 30 (formerly identified as Catherine Gillespie).

At their request, Judge Burke postponed the arraignment until Dec. 14. They also face federal charges of possessing illegal explosives.

Burke granted Van Lydegraf, Bissell and Mullin tentative rights to act as their own attorneys, as he had done for the other two last week.

Justesen claimed sheriff's deputies in the county jail had not allowed him the privileges concurrent with defending himself legally, so Judge Burke issued an order to the jail to correct the situation.

Earlier in the day, about 12 members of a group, calling themselves the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee, held a news conference inside the Criminal Courts building.

They said they were not part of the Weather Underground, but were expressing their support for the five defendants "because we feel they are committed to anti-imperialist policies."

Charges Against Terrorist Group Members Dismissed

Federal authorities here have temporarily dismissed a complaint against five suspected members of the terrorist Weather Underground organization until after their prosecution in Los Angeles Superior Court is completed.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Paul G. Flynn said yesterday that a pending indictment against the members will not be sought at the present time.

The case remains under investigation, he emphasized.

The five suspects have been accused by the state of conspiring to blow up the Fullerton office of State Sen. John Briggs.

Thomas Justesen, 27; Mark Perry, 29; Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62; Judith Bissell, 33; and Leshe Mullin, 30, were arrested last month here and in Texas by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents.

Following their arraignment, they were turned over to local authorities.

The FBI also is reluctant at this point to talk about the episode for fear of tipping off radicals to the ties of other possible undercover agents. Details of the agents' personal lives or law enforcement careers before going underground are not available.

But from a variety of sources, this much is known.

Giannotti's and Reagan's assignment was a tightly guarded secret, made known to only a handful of the highest officials in the FBI. Local police did not learn of the undercover operation until early November.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Paul Flynn, who associates recalled would mysteriously disappear at times, saying he could not state where he was going, was assigned to advise the agents on just what activities they could and could not engage in with the suspects.

The concern was to avoid any action that later could be construed as illegal entrapment of the defendants.

To fit into the radical milieu, Giannotti and Reagan, both unmarried, lived in virtual poverty conditions. The agents had no regular employment in their undercover lives, but survived on income from odd jobs and the assistance of friends. One agent lived for a time in a dwelling described as "rat infested."

Concerned that the security-conscious radicals they were watching might follow them, the two agents never set foot in an FBI office during their years underground.

Instead, clandestine meetings were set up in public places to pass along their written reports and meet with their superiors.

To carry off their undercover roles, the two bearded agents immersed themselves in the literature of communism, revolution and terrorism, not to mention feminism, homosexuality and the problems of so-called third world and black cultures, which also were central to the radical cause.

In their reports, the agents described the four Los Angeles-based suspects as dedicated students of revolution who held study sessions for as long as four hours straight, analyzing the writings of Communist theorists Mao Tse-tung, Karl Marx and Nikolai Lenin line by line.

The lives and travels of the five defendants resemble a jigsaw puzzle of which numerous key pieces remain missing. Like many radicals of the 1960s, Judith Bissell had come from an upper-income East Coast family whose life-style she rejected, at least in part because of disenchantment over United States conduct in Vietnam.

She obtained a degree in fine arts from the University of Pennsylvania in 1967 and studied art for a year in Paris.

In 1968, Mrs. Bissell and her husband, Silas, an award-winning poet and university professor, moved to Seattle.

In November, 1969, she was arrested and later convicted of hindering a police officer in a confrontation between police and the students for a Democratic Society (SDS) at a picketed plant in Seattle.

On Jan. 18, 1970, she was arrested along with her husband for allegedly placing a gasoline bomb under the steps of the Air Force ROTC building at the University of Washington. But the couple failed to appear for trial and disappeared.

Silas Bissell, who is a descendant of the family which founded a carpet-cleaning company of the same name, is still a fugitive.

It is not known when, but the Bissells broke up and Mrs. Bissell, along with Perry, 29, moved into a $180-a-month, two-bedroom apartment in Echo Park in early May.

They used an assumed name and the manager of the 14-unit apartment complex recalls that Mrs. Bissell said she did domestic work and her husband was a professor.

In fact, Mrs. Bissell, under yet another assumed name, is known to have worked part-time for Quality Care Nursing Service in Los Angeles and before that in San Francisco as a nurse's aide. Perry is believed to have worked part-time for a Hollywood photo developing firm.

Unknown to the pair, they were were told the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee had given the group an assignment.

The primary undertaking, the agents reportedly were informed, was to send a clandestine team to Houston's National Women's Conference to aid and support women who might be beaten or harassed by the "repressive forces of the state, the Ku Klux Klan or other reactionaries."

The secondary action allegedly was to be offensive and violent, intended to convey an unspecified political message concerning the conference. One of the radicals reportedly jokingly suggested kidnaping singer Anita Bryant and holding her for the duration of the conference.

On Nov. 8, however, Mrs. Bissell and Justesen reportedly decided that Briggs would be the target because of his outspoken support of Miss Bryant's antihomosexual campaign in Florida.

Only days before the group's Nov. 19 arrest, Perry is said to have made a bomb in the presence of one of the agents and the bomb was set to go off two days later in Briggs' office. However, Perry and Justesen were arrested before placement of the device.

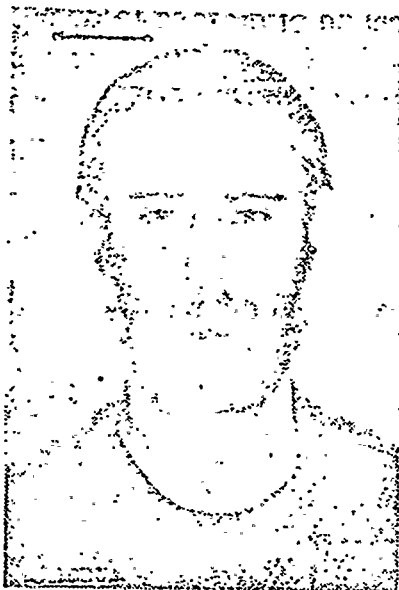

Mrs. Bissell, Van Lydegraf and Esther were all arrested Nov. 19 near the Houston area where the conference took place. Another member of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee, Diana Block, was arrested by Houston police on a charge of purchasing a weapon under a false name.

Throughout their six months in the Los Angeles area, the four suspects allegedly used a myriad of techniques to avoid detection. Scores of false identifications were found in their dwellings, along with wigs. They reportedly monitored police radios before meeting together and drove circuitous routes to assure themselves they were not being followed.

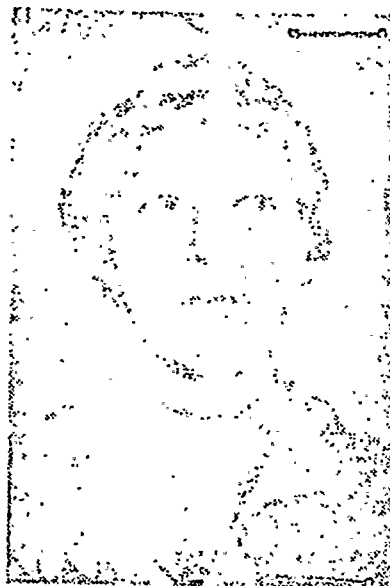

They were said to be particularly suspicious of anyone who asked them too many questions and in their day-to-day routines never did anything to draw the attention of law enforcement.

The Weather Underground in nearly eight years had been virtually impenetrable to infiltration by law enforcement.

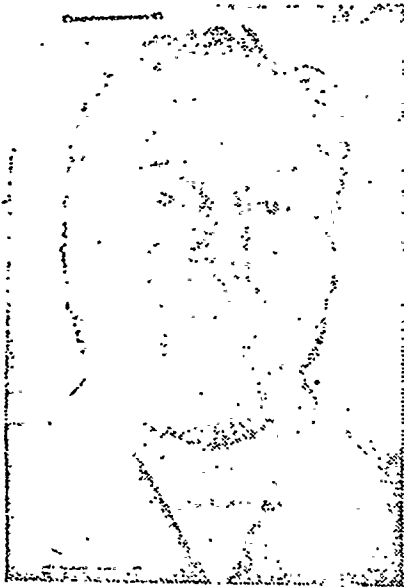

But when Perry and Justesen were confronted at the tiny Echo Park home, it was a clean-shaven William D. Reagan—undercover agent for seven long years—who put them under arrest.

For the Record

In Dec. 8 editions, The Times incorrectly reported that Diana Block, a member of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee, had been arrested by Houston police Nov. 19 on suspicion of purchasing a weapon under a false name. Actually, Houston police arrested Leslie Ann Mullin, 33, of Antioch, Calif., originally known as Esther, on a warrant charging her with two counts of purchasing a weapon under a false name. Miss Mullin was one of five persons arrested on warrants charging them in connection with an alleged attempt to set off a bomb at the Fullerton office of Republican state Sen. John Briggs. Ms. Block never was arrested on any criminal charges.

Innocent Pleas Ordered For 5 In Bomb Plot

LOS ANGELES — A federal judge ordered innocent pleas entered Wednesday for five persons charged with plotting to bomb the office of State Sen. John Briggs, R-Fullerton.

The plot was allegedly foiled by FBI agents who lived with the radical underground, according to reports.

The suspects are a "combat team" of the revolutionary Prairie Fire Organizing Committee, according to FBI reports. They declined to enter pleas on their own behalf because of problems in preparing their defense, and charged their arrest Nov. 19 was politically motivated.

"This is an attack on revolutionary principles," said one defendant, Judith Siff Bissell.

The group which the FBI says is allied with the Revolutionary Committee that split from the leaders of the Weather Underground, is accused in an alleged plot to bomb the Fullerton office of Briggs, an outspoken opponent of homosexual rights.

Bond for Mrs. Bissell was set by Superior Court Judge Michael Blake at $750,000 bail, with a preliminary hearing set for Jan. 9.

DARWIN L. C. PADDOCK

The Times Staff Writer

Five suspects, members of an underground revolutionary organization, were arraigned Wednesday in Los Angeles Municipal Court on felony charges of conspiracy and possessing explosives.

Judge Nicholas Burke entered a writ of habeas corpus for the five defendants and denied their request for a writ of independence of the arraignment.

Burke also denied a request from the five, who were acting as their own attorneys, for release on their own recognizance or a reduction of bail. Bail is currently set at $750,000 for each of the five and at $500,000 for the group.

The five are Thomas Michael (37), L. A. resident, 33, Mary (37), L. A. resident, 33, Clayton (37), L. A. resident, 33, and two others. They have been charged with the possession of explosives, conspiracy to make explosives and one count of conspiracy to commit murder.

The five were arrested Nov. 19 just before they were going to the home of the office of John J. Edgar, Explosives Division director, in the Los Angeles County Jail. They were found in the home of the group, Turner.

Four of the five members of the group were charged with a conspiracy to commit murder. The fifth was charged with conspiracy to commit murder and possession of explosives.

5 Terrorist Group Suspects Face Arraignment

Five alleged members of a terrorist underground group, accused of plotting political assassinations, bombings and sniper attacks, are scheduled for arraignment today in Los Angeles Municipal Court.

The five, arrested by agents of the FBI last month following a lengthy probe, will face charges in connection with an alleged plot to bomb the offices of Orange County Rep. John Briggs, an outspoken opponent of homosexual rights.

Taken into custody were Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62, the alleged "patriarch" of the Weather Underground splinter group; Judith Bisell, Leslie Mullin, Michael Justesen and Marc Curtis Perry.

The arrests came after two FBI agents, Richard Giannotti and William Reagan, had infiltrated the ultrasecret leftist group.

According to the agents' reports, the tiny band of revolutionaries had trained in the Mojave Desert with firearms and explosives for a campaign of violence.

Although the agents claimed to be trusted members of the group, they never learned anything more about their fellow members than their first names — and then only code names.

The group was run by women and was believed to have been formed after a split from the Weather Underground over a disagreement regarding the male domination of the larger organization.

FBI sources said the group was planning attacks of various forms on the Ku Klux Klan, the John Birch Society, the anti-busing organization called Bus Stop and Judge Floyd Dodson, who is currently presiding over the trial of American Indian activists.

FBI Infiltration Throws New Light On Leftist Tactics

The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES — Two FBI agents who infiltrated the ultra-secret political underground say they trained in the desert with a tiny band of revolutionaries who were preparing a new campaign of violence.

The group "was talking about assassinations, about sniping, about blowing up buildings, about putting a bomb under the seat of some judge's car," said Elmer F. Lindberg, special agent in charge of criminal operations for the FBI in Los Angeles.

Five persons, including the 62-year-old "patriarch" of the leftist underground movement, are now in custody, facing arraignment Wednesday in Superior Court on charges stemming from an alleged plot to bomb the office of California state Sen. John Briggs, an outspoken opponent of homosexual rights.

THOUGH THE FBI was able to engineer the arrest of five persons allied with the radical Weather Underground, leaders of the revolutionary group — such as the best known, Bernardine Dohrn — remain fugitives.

"If we knew where they were, we'd pick them up to night," says one FBI official.

Leftist sources surmise the FBI may have decided to finally "surface" its undercover agents out of frustration for the failure to locate better known radical leaders.

On Nov. 19, Richard Giannotti and William Reagan ended their long undercover work with the five activists, exposing a rare view of the leftwing activists' secret, and sometimes violent, life underground.

THE UNDERCOVER AGENTS say they began working with five revolutionaries last May, directing firearms training in a secluded Mojave desert area, and receiving instructions on explosives from two women who led a small "combat team." One agent said misinformation on firearms was purposefully supplied.

The FBI claims the group was about to embark on a violent campaign of "assassinations and ambushes" against right-wing enemies.

ground's leadership in a feud that involved male sexism in the Weather Underground command and its decision to downplay violent tactics.

Among those arrested was Clayton Van Lydegraf, the 62-year-old San Francisco leader of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee.

Also arrested were Judith Bisell, Leslie Mullin, Michael Justesen and Marc Curtis Perry, veteran antiwar activists who were active in the Seattle area during the 1960s.

THE AGENTS WERE TRUSTED members of the group, but even so they never knew anything more than the first name of the others — and then only "code names:" Esther for Ms. Mullin, Josie for Mrs. Bisell, Vince for Perry, Rudy for Justesen and Harry for Van Lydegraf.

The committee, whose name is drawn from Mao's belief that a single spark can ignite a prairie fire, is led mostly by women, according to the FBI report, along with Van Lydegraf. An above-ground "support group" of the Weather Underground, it has become more independent in the past year due to the split in the Weather Underground.

The small group was led by the women who, in turn, took orders from Van Lydegraf, who on behalf of the Prairie Fire organization was "directing the operation as to targets and methods to be used," according to the FBI.

In a series of simultaneous raids, the FBI found guns and explosives which the bureau says were stockpiled by the group. Though their rhetoric was harsh and the plans for violence were ambitious, the group had taken no action with either the guns or the explosives prior to last month's arrests, the FBI reports show.

REAGAN AND GIANNOTTI were undercover for a remarkable four and seven years respectively, amassing "a wealth of knowledge about how the underground operates," according to Lindberg.

A hefty 200 pages of FBI documents, mostly reports by the agents — some still stamped "SECRET" — were filed in Los Angeles Municipal Court to support a request for search warrants.

The agents painted a picture of committed revolutionaries who favored direct actions against the government and right-wing groups such as the Ku Klux Klan and organizations that engaged in violent opposition to court-ordered school busing.

Concerning life underground of Mrs. Bisell and Ms. Mullin, Giannotti said, "Both women stated they have been underground for a long time and, although life is continuing and certain measures have to be taken to insure security, they have adjusted well."

A third FBI agent rented the apartment next door to Perry and Mrs. Bisell, and in rummaging through the Bisell trash can, a torn sheet of paper was found which the FBI claims to be a list of potential targets.

The list included Briggs, as well as offices of the KKK, the John Birch Society, an anti-busing group called Bus Stop and Judge Floyd Dodson, who is presiding over a trial of Indian activists.

Reagan and Giannotti are not available to discuss their long lives in the political underground.

Also arrested were Judith Bissell, Leslie Mullin, Michael Justesen and Marc Curtis Perry, veteran antiwar activists who were active in the Seattle area during the 1960s.

The agents were trusted members of the group, but even so they never knew anything more than the first name of the others — and then only "code names:" Esther for Ms. Mullin, Josie for Mrs. Bissell, Vince for Perry, Rudy for Justesen and Harry for Van Lydegraf.

The committee, whose name is drawn from Mao's belief that a single spark can ignite a prairie fire, is led mostly by women, according to the FBI report, along with Van Lydegraf.

Suspected terrorists charged in bomb plot

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Five suspected members of an underground terrorist group who reportedly planned to blow up the offices of state Sen. John V. Briggs have been charged with possession of explosives and conspiracy.

Arraigned on four felony counts of possession of explosives and one felony count of conspiracy were Thomas Michael Justensen, 27, Marie Curtis Perry, 30, Judith Emily Bissell, 33, Leslie Mullin, 31, and Clayton Van Lydefraf, 62.

Municipal Court Judge Michael L. Burke entered innocent pleas for the five defendants and set bail at $500,000 for each, with the exception of Miss Bissell, who was held on $750,000 bail.

The five were arrested Nov. 19 just before they were allegedly going to carry out the bombing of Briggs' offices. Explosives and a timing device were found at the home of one of the defendants.

PRAIRIE FIRE ORGANIZING COMMITTEE (PFOC)

In the preface to the book "Prairie Fire" (PF) dated May 9, 1974, Weather Underground members Bernardine Dohrn, "Billy" Ayers and Jeff Jones described PF as "our (Weather Underground) political ideology - a strategy for anti-imperialism and revolution inside the imperial US....PF is based on a belief that the duty of a revolutionary is to make the revolution....the only possibilities are victory or death....Our final goal is the destruction of imperialism, the seizure of power, and the creation of socialism." The Weatherman group, now commonly referred to as the Weather Underground, was formed in June, 1969.

PF encourages the formation of study groups to discuss the book. After the publication of PF, groups calling themselves Prairie Fire Distribution Committees (PFDCs) were established in several cities including Boston, New York, and San Francisco. Thereafter, a group of PFDC members traveled through the U. S. to spread the ideology of PF and assist in forming other PFDCs. In February, 1975, PFDC published its first issue of newspaper "Groundswell."

In the Spring of 1975, "'Osawatomie,' the revolutionary voice of the WUO" (Weather Underground Organization) was published as a 36-page magazine. In it, the WUO describes itself as "...a revolutionary organization of communist women and men...responsible for over 26 armed actions against the enemy....In a single sentence, the (WUO) program means this: Mobilize the exploited and oppressed people to wage the class struggle against US imperialism, the common enemy."

In the Spring of 1975, the PFDC changed its name to PFOC. From July 11-14, 1975, the PFOC held a National Convention in Boston, establishing a national organization, with chapters in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, the State of Vermont, and the San Francisco Bay area, with additional chapters being planned in other cities.

APPENDIX

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

The Progressive Labor Party (PLP), which was founded in 1965, adopted a constitution which "resolved to build a revolutionary movement" and "build a socialist USA with all power in the hands of the working people." PLP followed the Chinese communist line for several years but became critical of Chinese leaders for establishing a dialogue with the U.S. following President Nixon's visit to China in 1972. Thereafter, PLP declared itself to be an independent Marxist-Leninist organization aimed at setting up a dictatorship of the working class. According to Milton Rosen, National Chairman, the PLP advocates violent overthrow of the Government, but has set no timetable for its overthrow. The PLP, which is headquartered in New York City, has chapters in more than 15 cities in the U.S., and has initiated efforts to make PLP "an international party with the aim of rebuilding a new revolutionary communist movement."

The PLP concentrates its efforts in the trade unions to attract workers in attempts to establish the PLP as the vanguard of the working class.

APPENDIX

APPENDIXREVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

A source advised that the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYM II) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia, from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), characterized as a mass anti-imperialist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. The "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; fights against imperialism, anti-Communism, Fascism, and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations", also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" peoples "to armed self-defense". It was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary National Steering Committee (NSC) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office (NO) at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012 C, both Atlanta, Georgia, and a second source has advised that the NO has no office space and is nearly defunct.

Second source advised that women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate the NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue - also that RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the potential for social revolution lies in workers.

A third source has stated that it was decided at the March 1970 MSC meeting that RYM women had decided the organization will be molded into a "working class, Marxist-Leninist, revolutionary, anti-imperialist, pro-black nationalist, people's women's liberation organization".

APPENDIX CONTINUEDREVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

A fourth source has advised that by the end of 1970 RYM ceased to exist. J

APPENDIX

APPENDIXSTUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY/WORKER
STUDENT ALLIANCE, FORMERLY KNOWN AS STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) came into existence in June 1962, and for the remainder of that decade functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the U. S. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved toward Marxist-Leninist ideological predomination with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. During 1968-1969, internal factionalism developed within SDS resulting in a split in June, 1969, into three organizations: Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS, however, WSA continues to use the name SDS.

At the 1970 SDS/WSA National Convention, a confrontation occurred between Progressive Labor Party (PLP) (a Marxist-Leninist organization advocating violent overthrow of the Government) oriented leadership and various caucuses opposed to PLP domination. The resulting struggle left the PLP-oriented leadership in complete control of SDS/WSA, which was headquartered in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

PLP control of SDS/WSA continued until February, 1974, when the Boston chapter of PLP split from PLP National Headquarters and formed Party for Workers Power (PWP) (a "revolutionary communist" organization advocating the violent overthrow of the government by the workers). SDS/WSA is now fragmented into two groups, one which supports PLP policy headquartered in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and the much larger group which supports PLP policy headquartered in New York City.

APPENDIX

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

The Socialist Workers Party (SWP) is a revolutionary, Trotskyist-communist organization, which is headquartered in New York City. Its purpose, as stated in its Declaration of Principles, is the overthrow of the U.S. Government and the institution of a dictatorship of the working class and the eventual achievement of a communist society. It was founded in 1938 and maintains close association with international Trotskyist organizations as a "sympathizing" group, but it denies formal membership in any foreign group to escape application of the Voorhis Act, which regulates certain types of organizations subject to foreign control. While the SWP does not openly advocate the use of violence at the present time to overthrow the U.S. Government, it believes that eventual violent revolution in the U.S. is inevitable. Its objection to the current use of violence is based on the ground that it believes violence is premature at this time. The SWP seeks to precipitate a revolution when conditions are ripe and to seize control of the revolution and to direct it when it occurs.

WEATHERMAN
INTERNAL SECURITY

The Weatherman group, now commonly referred to as the Weather Underground, was formed in June, 1969, as a faction of the Students for a Democratic Society. A Weatherman ideological paper entitled "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way the Wind Blows," prepared in June, 1969, stated the basic philosophy of this group is Marxist-Leninist in content but with strong advocacy that action, not theory, would bring about revolution in the United States. In mid-February, 1970, members of the Weatherman entered an underground status with an intended program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

Current Federal warrants are outstanding for a number of Weatherman wanted for violations of Federal statutes and local criminal violations. Since 1970, the Weather Underground has claimed responsibility for a number of bombings, including the U. S. Capitol Building in March, 1971; the Pentagon Building in May, 1972; and the Anaconda-American Brass Company Building in Oakland in September, 1974. In October, 1973, a Weatherman fugitive, in a letter to the press, encouraged other revolutionaries to assume an underground status, noting that the underground provides a revolutionary haven for operations looking toward the violent overthrow of this Government.

In the late Summer, 1974, Weather Underground issued a 185-page booklet entitled "Prairie Fire." The introduction is dated May 9, 1974, and the book is broken down into various chapters including one identifying specific locations where 19 bombing incidents occurred wherein the Weather Underground is taking credit. This book calls for "the violent overthrow of the bourgeoisie, the establishment of the dictatorship of the proletariat, and the eradication of the social system based on profit."

APPENDIXWORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE/PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

A source advised during August 1969, that at the National Convention (NC) of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held in Chicago, Illinois, during June 1969, a split arose between the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and the National Office (NO), the NO becoming known as the Weatherman faction. The PLP faction drew the largest support among those in attendance at the NC.

Source further advised that during late Summer, 1969, the PLP faction of SDS established its National Headquarters (NH) on the second floor of a loft-type building at 173A Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. The campaign on which the PLP faction centered was to build a worker student alliance or a campus worker student alliance. Thus, they adopted the names of Worker Student Alliance (WSA) or Campus Worker Student Alliance.

A second source advised during January 1970, that within the SDS, the WSA is a caucus of which the PLP constitutes the leadership.

A third source advised during July 1970, that during demonstrations staged in the Boston area during the Spring and Summer of 1970 by the NH, the main theme of previous demonstrations staged by the NH shifted from protestations of the Vietnam War and other United States foreign policy matters to attacking domestic issues such as racism and unemployment and demonstrating support of the "workers' struggle".

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) is the youth group of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). It was formed in October, 1957, and is currently headquartered in New York City. It propagandizes the beliefs of the SWP among the youth and is the main source of recruitment into the SWP. The SWP is a revolutionary, Trotskyist-communist organization which has as its purpose the overthrow of the U.S. Government and the institution of a dictatorship of the working class and the eventual achievement of a communist society.

Los Angeles believes that the enclosed information represents the telephone encryption system used by the incarcerated members of the Revolutionary Committee and other members of the W.U.O.

Los Angeles notes the following concerning the encryption system:

1. Addition or subtraction is done from left to right with no carrying or borrowing.
2. The 517 number appears to be repeated. This number may be a constant, or it may represent the area code location of the unencrypted telephone number. (Detroit's response, should clarify this assumption.)
3. The last four numbers from piece of paper Number 1, Notation Number 3, on the enclosure, should be 8420 (subtraction).

REQUEST OF THE CRYPTANALYST SECTION

If Detroit determines that the telephone exchanges (170 and 216) do not exist in the 517 area code, the Cryptanalyst Section is requested to determine the area code for these telephone exchanges.

The remaining latent fingerprints, latent palm prints and impressions are not identical with the fingerprints and palm prints of [redacted] and VanLydegraf, as well as Special Agents [redacted]. Thirteen latent fingerprints and three latent impressions were compared, insofar as possible, with the fingerprints of the individuals whose names appear on the aforementioned list and whose names are not preceded by an asterisk, without effecting an identification. The remaining latent fingerprints are not identical with the fingerprints of these individuals. A copy of referenced Los Angeles airtel is attached for New York.

Information available to the Laboratory, provided by the Smith-Corona-Marchant Corporation (SCH), Groton, New York, Confidential Report dated 1/30/67, reflects that Smith-Corona typewriters bearing serial numbers from 100001 through 101001 were manufactured in 1966. As you have been previously advised. Clayton Van Lydegraf, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were arrested on 11/19/77, without incident and charged with violation of U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 371, 231(a)(1) and Section 842; U.S. Code, Title 26, Sections 861(c), (d), and (f), in connection with their plan to bomb California State Senator John V. Briggs' office in Fullerton, California. Federal prosecution of the subjects by the U.S. Attorney's Office, Los Angeles, was subsequently dismissed subject to being reopened after the State prosecutions have been completed. Of the five defendants, two have requested private counsel and one has been appointed counsel from the Public Defender's Office, Los Angeles, California. Clayton Van Lydegraf and [REDACTED] were in a pro per status (representing themselves) until 4/10/78. On that date, Lydegraf and [REDACTED] appeared in Los Angeles

By memorandum dated 7/15/77, the Attorney General (AG) authorized the FBI to conduct a Full Domestic Security investigation on the Weather Underground Organization (WUO) and its members for one year. The AG also authorized the FBI to conduct a Full Domestic Security investigation on the PFOC, and certain of its members, which is the above ground support group for the WUO. []

[] Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office, objected, stating that since a jury has already been selected a question of jeopardy and possible acquittal might exist.

[] also indicated this was another delay tactic by the defendants. Judge Julius Leetham had a closed meeting with [] and [] to determine their qualifications and intentions. Judge Leetham indicated [] would be allowed to be the attorney of record in the proceedings against Lydegraf and []. [] indicated he needed additional time to prepare for the defense and moved for a mistrial. The defendants and their attorneys all agreed that no jeopardy was attached to captioned matter. Judge Leetham declared a mistrial, dismissed the jury, and set a new trial date for 6/26/78.

District Attorney [] made a motion to consolidate all five defendants and this was agreed to by the court. Los Angeles Office anticipates that there will be a number of motions made prior to the 6/26/78, trial date and will closely follow same.

PURPOSE:

To advise of the results of Laboratory examinations conducted thus far of documentary evidence seized at five locations in the Los Angeles area on 11/19/77, and subsequently submitted by the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD). Also to report the evidence's relation to three unsolved Bureau bombing matters.

REC-56

SYNOPSIS:

In May, 1977, Clayton Van Lydegraf introduced two Undercover Special Agents (UCSAS) to two females, later identified as and UCSAS subsequently were introduced to other members of the Weather Underground Organization (WUO) and participated in planning the bombing of California State Senator John V. Briggs' office. Local and Federal arrest warrants were obtained for the arrests of five WUO members. On 11/19/77, warrants were executed in Los Angeles, California, and Houston, Texas. All subjects arrested without incident. Subsequent searches by LAPD based on local search warrants resulted in obtaining a volume of evidence. LAPD submitted evidence to FBI Laboratory for examination. Results indicate possible link between WUO and three unsolved Bureau bombing matters. Examinations continuing. Trial date set for 6/26/78, in Los Angeles Superior Court.

Memorandum [redacted] to
Mr. D.W. Moore, Jr., 4/26/78
Re: [redacted]

DETAILS:

By way of background, on 5/15/77, Clayton Van Lydegraf introduced two Undercover Special Agents to two females who indicated they were members of the Revolutionary Committee of the Weather Underground Organization (WUO). The two females were later identified as being [redacted] [redacted] FBI Number [redacted] and [redacted] FBI Number [redacted] and [redacted] told Undercover Agents that they had been involved in bombings in the past and that they desired training in the use of firearms.

The Undercover Agents subsequently were introduced to other members of the Revolutionary Committee who were later identified as [redacted] FBI Number [redacted] and [redacted] FBI Number [redacted]

During the period of 5/15/77, through November, 1977, these individuals discussed various targets. California State Senator John V. Briggs was chosen as a target by the subjects and it was determined that sometime during the period 11/19-22/77, Senator Briggs' office in Fullerton, California, would be bombed. An Undercover Special Agent went to Houston, Texas, with subjects [redacted] and Van Lydegraf to attend the Women's Conference taking place during the time the bomb was to be placed at Senator Briggs' office. Another Undercover Special Agent, along with [redacted] and [redacted] was to aid in the construction of the explosive device. Both local and Federal arrest warrants were obtained for the arrests of the five subjects involved as well as local search warrants for five locations utilized by the subjects. On 11/19/77, these warrants were executed in Los Angeles, California, and in Houston, Texas, and all five subjects were arrested without incident. Subsequent searches by the Los Angeles Police Department resulted in a great volume of evidence including weapons, approximately 100 pounds of explosives, various bomb-making components, packets of false identities, a Smith-Corona "Chancellor" Electric Typewriter, and numerous other items. This evidence was forwarded to the FBI Laboratory for examination.

Mr. D.W. Moore, Jr., 4/26/78
Re: [redacted]

Examination of this evidence continues and latent fingerprint examination has thus far resulted in identifying the following as having handled instant evidence:

- (1) [redacted]
FBI [redacted] (I.O. 4363)
- (2) [redacted]
FBI [redacted] (I.O. 4367)
- (3) [redacted]
FBI [redacted] (I.O. 4364)
- (4) [redacted]
FBI [redacted] (I.O. 4371)

The FBI Laboratory has advised that comparisons indicate that the above-described typewriter was used to prepare Weather Underground Organization (WUO) communiques and letters submitted as evidence in the following cases:

- (1) [redacted] - The unsolved 3/1/71, bombing of the U.S. Capitol (USC) Building which resulted in substantial damage to the USC. No personal injuries or deaths resulted, but initially, damage was estimated at over $300,000. Responsibility was claimed by the WUO via telephone calls and communiques sent to the news media.
- (2) [redacted] - The unsolved 1/28/75, attempted bombing of the Federal Building at 1515 Clay Street, Oakland, California. The explosive device was discovered and removed to the street where it was detonated by Explosive Ordnance Personnel. The blast resulted in no injuries or deaths and only minimal damage. Responsibility was claimed by the WUO via telephone calls and communiques delivered to the news media.
- (3) The unsolved 9/10/74, bombing of Anaconda American Brass Company, 328 Pendleton Way, Oakland, California. Approximately $20,800 damage resulted from the blast for which the Weather Underground Organization claimed credit via telephone calls and communiques recovered from nearby public telephone booths. No deaths or injuries resulted from the bombing.

Memorandum [redacted] to
Mr. D.W. Moore, Jr., 4/26/78
Re: [redacted]

Based upon these findings, it appears that the [redacted] subjects are connected with the leadership of the Weather Underground and that, at the time of arrest of [redacted] subjects, they had in their possession what might be considered the Weatherman library and complete packages for Weatherman identities used in the past and identities which are being used at the present time.

It is noted that although fugitives' fingerprints have been identified on numerous items of evidence submitted to the Identification Division, no determination can be made as to exactly when those items were handled by them.

Federal prosecution of the [redacted] subjects by the U.S. Attorney's Office, Los Angeles, has been dismissed subject to be reopened after the State prosecutions have been completed.

U.S. Attorney's Office, Houston, Texas, plans to prosecute [redacted] subjects for purchasing firearms utilizing false identification.

Presently, four of the subjects have retained private counsel while one has been appointed an attorney from the Public Defender's Office, Los Angeles, California.

A trial date has been set for 6/26/78, in Los Angeles County Superior Court.

Result of examination:

Notation #2

COMMENTS

Since Telephone numbers cannot begin with a zero or one, the number from notation number one and the number from notation number two are the decoded telephone numbers. These numbers were obtained by adding the key . The method of obtaining the key for encoding and decoding telephone numbers was set forth in Chicago airtel to Bureau (copy to Los Angeles) dated 3/22/78. This method is obviously still being used as noted on piece of paper number one wherein the word "Peaches" was used to decode the last four digits of a telephone number.

COMMENTS

The number [redacted] also appears on piece of paper number two, notation number one. The complete encoded number is [redacted]. If [redacted] was supposed to have been decoded, the number would be [redacted].

The letters "CHES", when converted to their equivalents from the telephone dial, produces the key "2437." After application of this key the decoded digits become 9414.

This number appears on another piece of paper (see comments concerning piece of paper number one, notation number three).

This number probably has not been encoded. Using the key [redacted], which was used on the number [redacted] (piece of paper number one, notation number three), the encoded number would be [redacted].

It is not known whether notation numbers three and four are encoded numbers or actual numbers. If they are encoded, the key [redacted] could not have been used to obtain the number [redacted] since the decoded number would begin with a zero which would produce an invalid telephone number. As noted in comments concerning piece of paper number one, notation numbers one and two, the word "Peaches" was used as a key. Therefore, it is possible that another key could have been used to encode notations three and four.

COMMENTS

This number appears on piece of paper number one, notation number two, and is an encoded number. After the key is applied, the decoded number is

Since there are no names, addressess, etc. associated with these telephone numbers, and due to the fact that the same telephone exchange numbers are used in many different parts of the country, the location(s) of these particular numbers could not be determined.

MOTION WAS BASED ON THE FACT THAT [REDACTED] DID NOT HAVE A LICENSE TO PRACTICE LAW IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA. JUDGE LEETHAM ADVISED THAT HE BELIEVED [REDACTED] WAS QUALIFIED TO HANDLE THIS MATTER BASED ON HIS PRIOR LEGAL EXPERIENCE IN ILLINOIS AND NEW YORK. [REDACTED] WAS NOT PRESENT IN COURT, REPORTEDLY IN CHICAGO ON ANOTHER MATTER, BUT [REDACTED] WAS PRESENT AND WAS TOLD BY JUDGE LEETHAM TO ADVISE [REDACTED] TO FILE THE APPROPRIATE PAPERS BEFORE THE CALIFORNIA BAR, ACCORDING TO CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT, COUNSEL PRO HAC VICE (RULE 983). [REDACTED] ASSURED THE COURT THAT THIS WOULD BE COMPLIED WITH WITHIN A 30 DAY TIME LIMIT SET BY LEETHAM.

LEETHAM:

1. BOTH FEMALE DEFENDANTS IN THIS MATTER SHOULD BE ABLE TO RECEIVE CONFIDENTIAL LEGAL MATERIALS WHICH WILL BE MAINTAINED IN THEIR CELLS.

2. THE TWO FEMALE DEFENDANTS SHOULD BE PERMITTED TO HAVE NO LESS THAN THREE TELEPHONE CALLS PER WEEK, PAID BY THE COUNTY, AND ANY FURTHER TELEPHONE CALLS TO BE PAID FOR BY THE DEFENDANTS.

JUDGE LEETHAM AGREED TO BOTH POINTS OF THESE MOTIONS.

[REDACTED] ALSO COMPLAINED THAT THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE
AT SYBIL BRAND INSTITUTE WAS VIOLATING THE RIGHTS OF [REDACTED]
AND [REDACTED] SHE STATED THAT LAST WEEK, THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE
CONDUCTED A SEARCH OF THE CELLS IN WHICH [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] ARE INCARCERATED AND HAD CONFISCATED WHAT THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE TERMED AS SUBVERSIVE MATERIALS. [REDACTED] SAID THAT THESE MATERIALS WERE NOT SUBVERSIVE MATERIALS BUT WERE BOOKS WRITTEN ABOUT THE FBI BY WELL KNOWN AUTHORS AND THAT THESE MATERIALS SHOULD BE RETURNED TO THE DEFENDANTS.

SHE FURTHER STATED THAT WHEN THE FEMALE DEFENDANTS ARGUED WITH THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE CONCERNING THIS SEARCH, THEY WERE PUNISHED BY BEING PLACED IN THE "HOLE" FOR FOUR DAYS.

JUDGE LEETHAM SAID THAT HE WOULD LOOK INTO THIS MATTER AND IF IT WAS DETERMINED THAT THE DEFENDANTS' RIGHTS WERE BEING VIOLATED, APPROPRIATE CHANGES WOULD BE MADE SO THIS WOULD NOT OCCUR AGAIN.

Referenced airtel requested background information regarding the Smith-Corona electric typewriter located during searches conducted on 11/19/77 in [redacted] matter. Request was also made to interview [redacted] regarding his possible involvement in [redacted]

For information of Washington Field, the above listed five individuals were arrested on 11/19/77 and charged with a variety of charges stemming from a planned bombing of the office of California State Senator JOHN V. BRIGGS.

[redacted] and [redacted] admitted to undercover agents that they were members of the Revolutionary Committee (RC) of the Weather Underground Organization (WUO). They said they had been involved in previous bombings but were not specific as to which ones. [redacted] [redacted] and [redacted] are all very knowledgeable in making bombs, and CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF, head of the West Coast faction of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC), introduced the undercover agents to [redacted] and [redacted] and apparently was directing the groups' operation.

Subsequent to the arrests on 11/19/77, searches were made in Los Angeles and Houston, Texas. One of the locations searched was 1895 3/4 Lucretia Avenue, Los Angeles (residence of [redacted] and [redacted]). One of the many items located during the search at this location was a Smith-Corona "Chancellor" electric typewriter, Serial Number 6SEC-100924. Laboratory examination of this typewriter showed that it was used to prepare items in the following cases:

Information provided by the Smith-Corona Marchant Corporation (SCM), Groton, New York, reflects that this typewriter was manufactured in 1966. New York is presently attempting to trace the sales and ownership history of this typewriter.

Los Angeles will conduct interviews of [redacted] and other pertinent persons after receipt of information from New York. Until such is received, it would be premature to interview any of the five persons arrested.

before the California Bar. [] Attorney for [] was dismissed upon request of [] and [] was appointed as new counsel. Public Defender Rosen remains as counsel for [] and [] continues to represent []. [] made several motions which were agreed to by the court. [] also complained that the Sheriff's Office was violating the rights of [] and [] by confiscating certain written material from their cells and punishing them by placing them in the "hole". Los Angeles County Superior Judge indicated he would look into the matter.

DETAILS:

As you have been previously advised. Clayton Van Lydegraf, [] and [] were arrested on 11/19/77, without incident and charged with violation of U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 371, 231(a)(1) and Section 842; U.S. Code, Title 26, Sections 861(c), (d), and (f), in connection with their plan to bomb California State Senator John V. Briggs' office in Fullerton, California. Federal prosecution of the subjects by the U.S. Attorney's Office, Los Angeles, was subsequently dismissed subject to being reopened after the State prosecutions have been completed.

By [] to Mr. D.W. Moore, Jr. memorandum dated 4/14/78. you were advised that District Attorney [] Los Angeles County, had made a motion to consolidate all five defendants and this was agreed to by the court. In subsequent [] to Mr. D.W. Moore, Jr. memoranda of 4/26/78 and 4/28/78, you were advised of the results of examinations conducted thus far of documentary evidence seized at five locations in the Los Angeles area on 11/19/77, and submitted to the FBI Laboratory by the Los Angeles Police Department.

By communication dated 4/28/78, Los Angeles Office advised as follows:

Memorandum [redacted] to
Mr. D.W. Moore, Jr.
5/4/78

On 4/27/78, the five defendants in captioned matter appeared before Superior Court Judge Julius Leetham, Department 120, Los Angeles County Superior Court. [redacted] District Attorney's Office, Los Angeles, entered a motion to disqualify [redacted] as the attorney of record representing Clayton Van Lydegraf and [redacted]. This motion was based on the fact that [redacted] did not have a license to practice law in the State of California. Judge Leetham advised that he believed [redacted] was qualified to handle this matter based on his prior legal experience in Illinois and New York. [redacted] was not present in court, reportedly in Chicago on another matter, but [redacted] was present and was told by Judge Leetham to advise [redacted] to file the appropriate papers before the California bar, according to California Rules of Court, Counsel Pro Hac Vice (Rule 983). [redacted] assured the Court that this would be complied with within a thirty day time limit set by Leetham.

[redacted], attorney who was representing [redacted] in captioned matter, was dismissed from the case, and upon request from [redacted] [redacted] was appointed as her counsel. Public Defender [redacted] remains as the counsel representing [redacted] and [redacted] continues to represent [redacted].

[redacted] made the following motions before Judge Leetham:

(1) Both female defendants in this matter should be able to receive confidential legal materials which will be maintained in their cells.

(2) The two female defendants should be permitted to have no less than three telephone calls per week, paid by the county, and any further telephone calls to be paid for by the defendants.

Memorandum [redacted] to
Mr. D.W. Moore, Jr.
Re: [redacted]
5/4/78

Judge Leetham agreed to both points of these motions.

[redacted] also complained that the Sheriff's Office at Sybil Brand Institute was violating the rights of [redacted] and [redacted]. She stated that last week, the Sheriff's Office conducted a search of the cells in which [redacted] and [redacted] are incarcerated and had confiscated what the Sheriff's Office termed as subversive materials. [redacted] said that these materials were not subversive materials but were books written about the FBI by well known authors and that these materials should be returned to the defendants.

She further stated that when the female defendants argued with the Sheriff's Office concerning this search, they were punished by being placed in the "hole" for four days.

Judge Leetham said that he would look into this matter and if it was determined that the defendants' rights were being violated, appropriate changes would be made so this would not occur again.

WEATHERMAN

The Weatherman Group now commonly referred to as the Weather Underground was formed in June, 1969, as a faction of the Students for a Democratic Society, a revolutionary activist campus organization which was formed in 1962. A weatherman ideological paper entitled "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way The Wind Blows", prepared in June, 1969, stated the basic philosophy of this group is Marxist-Leninist. In content but with strong advocacy that action, not theory, would bring about revolution in the United States. In mid February, 1970, members of the Weatherman Group entered an underground status with an intended program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

For the information of the Bureau, the above two containers of explosives were purchased by the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) to be detonated under a similar situation as to the explosives that were stored at 930 East Palms Boulevard, Los Angeles, California. 90 pounds of this gray-silver powder was placed in a green plastic trash barrel which was then placed in a wooden building to simulate a garage. A video tape was made of the detonation for possible use in the [] trial scheduled for 6/26/78.

REQUEST OF THE BUREAU

The Laboratory is requested to examine the enclosed samples:

1. To verify explosive composition
2. Compare with explosives samples submitted in referenced communication
3. Ascertain whether enclosed samples would have same explosive force and react the same to a blasting cap as previously submitted samples in referenced communication
4. Conduct any other tests deemed pertinent

The Laboratory is requested, if possible, to have the results back to Los Angeles by 6/15/78, [redacted] and Clayton Van Lydegraf. Defendants were indicted on 2/2/78 in California Superior Court on various State of California charges. These subjects were previously arrested by Bureau Agents in Houston and Los Angeles on 11/19/77 on State of California and Federal charges. Federal charges subsequently dismissed in favor of local charges.

Attached teletype discloses on 5/24/78, defendants and defense attorneys appeared in Los Angeles County Superior Court where defense attorneys requested a continuance of trial date. Trial had been previously set for 6/26/78. Defense attorneys requested continuance based on their contention that they needed additional time to prepare proper defense. No objection was made by the prosecution and Los Angeles County Superior Court Judge advised the prosecution and the defense to appear back Re Los Angeles letter to the Bureau dated 4/13/78, Bureau airtel to New York dated 4/20/78, and New York airtel to Albany dated 4/27/78.

On 5/22/78, [REDACTED] Northeast Regional Warehouse, Smith Corona Marchant Corporation (SCM), South Cortland, New York, advised records of SCM "Chancellor" electric portable typewriter bearing serial number 6 SEC-100924, have not been maintained by the SCM Corporation. He stated the "Chancellor" was a custom-line portable and that 6-SEC is its model number. He stated the only reason SCM places serial numbers on the machines is for production control purposes as well as warranty identification for the customer. He pointed out that over 3,000 typewriters a day are manufactured and shipped. Therefore, bookkeeping problems for maintaining serial numbers would be prohibitive. He added that this machine could have been sent to virtually any distributor in the nation, but that it was normally sold through various catalog and national chain-stores.

For your possible investigative assistance, due to the significant handwriting similarities which were noted from comparisons with the fingerprint card signature of [redacted] it would appear that the [redacted] identification document which were submitted in the [redacted] matter by the Los Angeles Police Department, specimen Q449 in that matter, are stolen genuine identification documents of [redacted] and that Q554 through Q556, described in the attached Laboratory report, concern a legitimate request to replace the genuine identification documents by the true name person involved.

[redacted] (unin)?

Yeah

(Unin). Well, to return to the times. It concerns (unin) so it seems like (unin) Carter administration (unin) Try to draw the line (unin) the Carter article (unin) indicates the (unin). You may notice that with one hand, the article from Carter doesn't mention anything with ERA (unin). Whereas the article that puts out (unin) does not deal with (unin) or the klan, doesn't deal with blacks, doesn't deal with the border, the aliens (unin).

So that there are things like the political (unin) Carter, the right wing is concerned, terms of, to form a political line (unin) laid out. Carter (unin) ERA, in order to find (unin) which is the women (unin) remain in the organizational alliance with man. (Unin) abortions, they will not fight stop their sterilization (unin) Carter will continue to (unin) border policy and even step it up to maybe collaborate behind the scenes with the klan's attempted border patrol. But they shouldn't embarrass the Carter administration (unin) Of course, various right wing groups (unin) mention to you that they thought they would get away with it (unin). And the man who's head of it is a guy by the name of (unin)

[redacted]
Harry

[redacted]
Harry

[redacted]

[redacted]
And he has a gun store downtown. (unin).

[redacted]
(unin)

Split the women's group. (unin) What the right is up to. And [redacted] would be just as happy with (unin) fake liberal movement and it be controlled (unin). The administration is not a liberal administration. Males born in the country actually (unin) For instance, [redacted] (unin) I would also like to (unin) images at stake.

We get to blow [] away. If it turns into a racist (unin). And the middle movement around their program which does include support the ERA. It also includes (unin) in support of lesbian and gay rights. (unin) Then, so far as we know now, we don't know of any system (unin) organized attempts. Bureaucrats, the middle class women, white women and the North American women down here trying to tell us what our problems are. And they don't know nothing about it. (Unin) but the Native American Movement may be there. It's not clear yet. We are having (unin) never believe the cracks the women up there that presents their issue, especially on sterilization. The Native American Movement is gonna give them one (unin) the sterilization program. If they do, they will probably also send some lawyers to look after the situation. They are somewhat in (unin) the border security now. I'm checking that. (Unin) KKK (unin). That's a situation that could get (unin). Nevertheless, there are the coalitions

There are a few names of people that we can check out and get information from in Houston but you'll probably go to Austin.

[redacted]
Austin being the state capital it's got more liberal (unin) meaning the movement people are subject to live there. (Unin) It's not quite like Sacramento and Toronto and Quebec (unin). Sacramento is actually the best (unin) place in San Francisco, it's the other way around in Austin (unin) Probably drive up, maybe Thursday, spend Thursday and driving back on Saturday (unin) I might come back anywhere around Sunday to be here Wednesday (unin) basically (unin) done Thursday, Friday or Saturday and maybe some Sunday (unin) Well, I suppose we can do it with a bunch of (unin).

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]
Well (unin) do them all in tabloid form (unin) same size papers as "Breakthrough". I don't know what we have time to spade with (unin). We may reprint that in actual form later.

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]
No, here, that's us and then we're gonna do a mass (unin) thing, maybe be as big as the (unin) It'll be four, one, two, three, four, four times as big as the (unin) First one will be designed (unin) We're gonna put full fledged (unin)

[redacted]

[redacted]

Harry

Well, that is what we're planning today, I mean now, if we're down there, we won't have to haul it across the continent. We can't do it safely down there or we can't get firm commitments (unin) the conference was held here, so we were able to get in early cause most of the women were going there (unin) organization minded and you do them a good thing (unin) objections to working with us. But in addition, being sincere (unin) What do they take away there? Why do they make it known in advance (unin) They underestimate the security problems (unin) A couple of weeks ago, but it takes a while (unin) get it taken seriously. There's not much we can do about it. We're not (unin) We don't control what they're gonna do. So I presume they're gonna (unin) my house but they shouldn't be scared stiff. (unin) would be a mistake (unin) It'll change their mind, unite people, (unin) cause I'm sure that (unin) not really into supporting taxes (unin) at least that didn't prove to be the case after the Florida thing. Plus, San Francisco, you can't judge the whole thing (unin) We would have lost between two hundred thousand and (unin) for the protest (unin) This is the biggest thing that's happened yet. They say, they have tended to take still pretty separate dispositions. They have tended to take the position the dummy jobs can go there and get (unin) But they have not, they have said that there's even more support than they expected with great pains to get it. And some was more from gay men. But they didn't lay out what they were gonna do if (unin) why concern themselves with an (unin) defending themselves in (unin) there's a sign that some people think well (unin) enough for us to do. (unin) this is the excuse the old facist (unin) arms theory against the public would be (unin) We've been struggling that and I think we can get straightened out. (Unin) we have to be (unin) We have to be (unin) by the tenth of November (unin) So we have been trying to read, just sort through the place where we could say why we should be learning.

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

(unin)

94 dollars?

(unin) you can just say I've got a reservation for a car but my husband doesn't drive, my brother in law does, so he'll sign for it. We're still gonna have to have a driver's license to rent a car.

you got the reservation (unin)
sign up for it.

[redacted]

[redacted] (unin)

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted] (unin)

And maybe we'll get a place (unin) security.

[redacted]

[redacted]

Then tomorrow we'll probably go to Austin (unin) people, if possible, attending trips and things to check out (unin) hesitate to do these things in Houston cause there's such a concentration. Believe me, there'll be plenty of advanced parties besides the (unin) forces will be there coniving and figuring out what they're gonna do so that we think they could (unin) very well write big promises. We can get better advices. So we thought we'd be (unin) Thursday instead.

Why don't you find out whatever (unin) If this is gonna be a big rental (unin) someone go over in the morning and check it out (unin) and where the river ports enters Galveston Bay and then there's (unin) reported to me that this is a kind of a (unin) transient area, with transients and bars and rooming houses, probably a lot of prostitution (unin) seaport (unin) And it's called the soup channel and (unin) by you and it winds actually through a corner of (unin) That's what the group reports (unin) Then there's a kind of a west (unin) which is that of a white, could be mixed area and then there's borderlining (unin) then there's like a red neck build up working class area, it's been built up around, like an oil industry (unin) If you go north and west, and even east towards Louisiana, there's a (unin) business area. It's not cowboy country particularly. There's some down towards San Antonio (unin) some cattle raising (unin) like corn I suppose, say beans maybe. I guess other kinds of (unin) crops beet sugar (unin) peas, I guess there's alot of peas and beans. That'll be a thing and then another thing is, if you like, to find out what actually (unin) the coliseum where the conference is gonna be (unin) More than ten, eleven thousand people. There 17 hundred delegates and they've only let in five thousand observers. That's uh, seven thousand people, but there's gonna be 20 thousand (unin) right, middle and left. That's what they figure, who knows (unin) 40 thousand, there could be 20 thousand (unin) So they're gonna do a bunch of forums (unin) so we have to get some kind of an idea what the access what kind of vehicle (unin) and also (unin)

(Unin)

(unin)

(unin)

(unin)

(unin)

Harry

Well, we'll come back on (unin) Saturday morning and check with you (unin) all this would be back Friday (unin) business. Well, anyhow, I didn't...Well, what's the other thing. I mean, the main thing (unin) have to learn as much (unin) learn about (unin) both for yourselves and for our use and housing and looks like it's real scarce and you run into something suitable which you'd like, put a deposit down (unin)

[redacted]
Harry

[redacted]
Well, at first concern, it's alot for two or three people the second concern is there's some meeting space. And those things may not be quite the same thing. The meeting space would mean getting an angle on in Austin, see, cause
I may know people in Houston (unin) and so forth. And we have some relatives and stuff like that but we can check (unin)

[redacted]
Harry

[redacted] (unin)
[redacted] (unin)
[redacted] (unin)
[redacted] (unin)
[redacted] (unin)
I don't believe it makes a hell of a lot of difference as long as we don't (unin) we said directly to ourselves.

[redacted]
Harry

[redacted] (unin)
[redacted] (unin)
Well, with any condition there'll be some people coming in and out okay, so it'd be partly a touristy thing, roughly a visiting relative thing, (unin) like a basis for (unin) also people will know when (unin) right or left or the difference (unin) If it's a transient area, you don't have to make a bunch of explanations but if it's a more, like, you know, if it's like where there (unin) like apartment for adults and you might get into a situation where explanations are in order legitimately, might (unin) transient situation you don't make an explanation when they don't ask you and if you want to lay a (unin) for something, then you do it, otherwise you don't. Just rent it as a transient, and you rent the place and you're free to have people come (unin) that's the nature of being (unin)

(unin)

(unin)

(unin)

(unin)

Harry

Well, either you, you are visiting relatives or you're expecting to visit relatives, but if your expectations (unin) visiting relatives, then you'll need to know about the town, which you don't (unin) Safer to say (unin)

[redacted]

One more chance. Find out what the Texas gun laws are.

[redacted]

Texas gun laws are. You only have to find out the gun (unin)

[redacted]

(unin) [redacted] (unin)

Pick up some information. information tabs on what the right wing is gonna do (unin) We want to get some concrete (unin) We let them start anything, it gets heavy (unin) their own (unin) in other words, they may need a hospital or something (unin)

[redacted]

Between now and then.

[redacted]

16th or something like that.

Yeah. [redacted]

[redacted]

(unin) if not we have to stash it behind

[redacted]

So that way (unin)

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Later on, so would I, in other words. I mean

[redacted]

[redacted] (unin)

We can't be (unin) coming back to that, but you might have to escort somebody (unin)

[redacted]

In case of emergency, I mean that's okay to set it up that way

[redacted]

[redacted] (unin)

You alternate it, you just shift it and pick it up when you get back.

[redacted]

[redacted] (unin)

(Unin)

(Unin)

You may be working together with a (unin)

[redacted] (unin)

(Unin) people we might want to get a man who (unin) We will not have them all over (unin) not have them all (unin) Then we'd have a little time to settle with the others, separate people will give (unin) separate people. Women elements (unin) that way. You don't know (unin) We need to check it out a little more (unin)

(Unin) [redacted] (unin)

[redacted]

No, we're not gonna take anything.

[redacted]
(Unin) the border checks (unin) they might possibly, I don't know how close they might check the bus (unin)

[redacted]

[redacted] (unin) [redacted]

[redacted] (unin)

(Unin) We don't know if we're gonna get these things in or not.
It's possible, so I'd rather not (unin) and also, they have (unin)
I really don't know the exact
(unin)

[redacted] (unin)

(Unin) So from one standstill you connect up, and of course from most of the (unin) I don't give a damn. (unin) So it's a (unin)

[redacted]

(Unin) Texas laws are so (unin) there's a priority thing (unin) happens to be the priority
(unin) so if you keep in mind
(unin)
(Unin)

Well, we don't give telephone,

There's certain kinds of things they're not gonna (unin)

[redacted] (unin) [redacted]

We'll work it out when we find our particular things around in which case (unin) but the other thing is that (unin) actions, we want to have the options of discarding. Discarding (unin) after the action.

[REDACTED]
Harry

[REDACTED]
Yeah, to use in the actions and not having (unin) If Texas is a place we can do the action we'll do it. (Unin) arraignment. Our main concern is (unin) doesn't get back to us if it's moved. (Unin) When we get the (unin) in the garbage can, we can't walk down (unin) something happens (unin) take care of the (unin) so as not to (unin) So that's what (unin)

Well, we got relatives and stuff (unin) If we find somebody that's close enough to us, sufficient time (unin) you can take after (unin)

[redacted]
[redacted] (Unin)

What am I thinking of? Like (unin) says that he's got the timing and he's footloose. And he's feasible (unin) only with him it can't be done in any way to risk what you're doing (unin) priority thing. In other words, it's like laundering stuff, the stuff we do, if we have to come in again isn't going to get us all mixed up. It's also like the thing where (unin)

[redacted]
Possible (unin) same thing, same (unin) There has to be (unin) whether it (unin) we need to carry out our task. And again, it will be like where he was only it has nothing to do with (unin) that action will be but who would be responsible for it. Can you talk somebody?

It seems I've heard once before in certain things (unin) heard about it (unin) moving in in a

(Unin) mostly just driving, I

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

I think maybe if you got two basic things you can purchase

[redacted]

Once you've looked at them to see what they look like, where you want (unin) thing and then you can buy a few pieces in second hand clothing stores and stuff and it won't cost you a fortune

[redacted]

[redacted]

(Unin) for us, once we get there (unin) ride to the airport together, but once we get there, then we must stop (unin) together (unin)

[redacted]

(Unin) of not hanging out together at the airport (unin)

[redacted]

(unin) [redacted]

Well

[redacted] (unin)

We'll get together on the other end and (unin) and that we also have to remain (unin) together later in the day, inside the town, sometime in the afternoon and well, we'll have to make a couple of times I think in different places different nights

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

[redacted]

You can get by with (unin) if you got a rug and a sleeping bag or even a mattress. What's a little inconvenience (unin) bus gonna take us to Houston (unin) you getting the tickets together or behind me?

[redacted]

(unin) have to wait for you outside the baggage claim (unin) I'm gonna claim my bags on (unin) and then pick it up at the baggage claim (unin) look like you're talking (unin) baggage claim and I'll wait for you in that area

[redacted]

(Unin)

[redacted]

(Unin)

(Unin) [redacted] (unin) [redacted]

[redacted] (unin)

(Unin) on the airplane (unin) okay

[redacted]

What do you got?

[redacted]

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

Harry

[redacted]

[redacted]

Then maybe you want to bring (unin) gonna get rid of that
(unin)

Here, give you change

(unin)

I want to do that too (unin)

Results of Examinations:

General Information:

You should refer to the previous Laboratory report dated December 12, 1977, for a description of specimens K200 through K316 and for the results of prior examinations relating to some of these specimens. U

As you were previously advised, some of the K200 through K316 specimens have not been specifically mentioned in the details of Laboratory reports because the previously furnished photographs depict pertinent descriptive data. U

This report sets forth the results of remaining examinations involving specimens K200 through K316. These specimens are being retained for appropriate comparisons with specimens in certain FBI cases. U

The four partial rolls of tape mentioned on page 11 of the previous report are present in specimen K305 rather than specimen K303. U

Explosives:

Specimen K264 is an altered Westclox "Scotty" No. 40006, pocket watch. Only the hour hand remains and a hole has been produced in the crystal at the 2 o'clock position. Scratch marks are present in the inner back plate at a point near the "fast-slow" regulator scale. U

Specimen K272 consists of an altered pocket watch and attached wires. The watch is a Westclox "Scotty" No. 40006. The minute and second hands have been removed. A piece of white tape is affixed to the face as an insulator and a "screw contact" has been mounted on the crystal at about the 3 o'clock position. A hard epoxylike material encases the "screw contact." A similar appearing epoxylike material secures the crystal to the case at four locations. U

A stranded copper wire with red insulation is soldered to the watch fob and a similar wire is affixed to the "screw contact." A scratch mark is present in the inner back plate at a point near the "fast-slow" regulator scale. U

Specimen K280 consists of an altered pocket watch, wires, two battery snap connectors and two test lights. U

The watch is a Westclox "Scotty" No. 40005. The minute and second hands have been removed. A piece of white tape adheres to the face as an insulator and a "screw contact" is mounted on the crystal at about 3 o'clock. A hard epoxylike material encases the "screw contact" and a similar appearing material secures the crystal and case at five locations. A stranded copper wire with red insulation is soldered to the watch fob. Another similar wire is affixed to the "screw contact." Scratch marks are in the inner back plate near the "fast-slow" regulator scale. U

The two battery snap connectors are alike. Each has a black plastic cover and the leads have black or red insulation. U

The test light with a blue dome bears "MP-005" and "JAPAN." U

The test light with a green dome bears "JAPAN." This light is attached to one of the snap connectors. These two items are not attached to the other described items. U

Specimen K298 (see photographs previously furnished) is a partially assembled improvised explosive device (IED). The main charge and initiator portions of the device are not present. If an electric blasting cap was appropriately attached to the free ends of the red insulated wires, a complete time delay electrical firing circuit would be present. The partially assembled firing circuit is functional and the batteries produce sufficient current to initiate an electric blasting cap. U

The pocket watch is a Westclox "Scotty" No. 40005. The minute and second hands have been removed. A piece of white tape is affixed to the face of the watch as an insulator and a "screw contact" has been mounted through a hole in the crystal between the 2 o'clock and 3 o'clock positions. The screw has been glued to the crystal with a hard epoxylike material. A similar appearing epoxylike material secures the crystal to the case on five locations. Scratch marks are present on the inner back plate at a location near the "fast-slow" regulator scale. A wire has been soldered to the watch fob and another wire is affixed to the "screw contact."

The two batteries are alike. Each is a Mallory, MN 1604, 9-volts, Alkaline Duracell.

The two battery snap connectors are alike. Each has a black plastic cover and the leads have black or red plastic insulation.

The test light has a red dome and bears "MP-005" plus the word "JAPAN."

Two sockets and two plugs are also present. The sockets are each a portion of an Archer "2 Pin Socket with Cable Clamp" having Radio Shack catalog number 274-202. The plugs are each a portion of an Archer "2 Pin Plug With Cable Clamp" having Radio Shack catalog number 274-201.

The wire used in the firing circuit is standard copper with red plastic insulation.

The tape used is 3/4"-wide black plastic electrical tape.

Miscellaneous:

Specimen K258 contains an empty box for a pocket watch and a cash register receipt. The box is for a Westclox "Scotty" No. 40006, and bears a sales label which reveals "Thrifty" and a price of $7.99. The receipt is dated November 12, 1977, and reveals "Thrifty" plus a total charge of $8.47.

Specimen K261 contains an empty box for a pocket watch and a cash register receipt. The box is for a Westclox "Bulls Eye" No. 40009, and bears a sales label which reveals "LONGS" and a price of $5.99. The receipt is dated November 11, 1977, and reveals "LONGS DRUGS" plus a total charge of $6.35. U

Specimen K221 is the empty box for a Westclox "Scotty" No. 40006, pocket watch. U

Specimen K233 consists of two battery holders each containing two batteries. The white plastic holders bear "1.5V UM-2 "C" SIZE KOREA" or "1.5V UM-2 "C" SIZE JAPAN." U

Two batteries are Mallory, MN 1400, 1.5-volts, size C, Alkaline Duracell. The other two batteries are Radio Shack, 1.5-volts, size C, Alkaline Enercell. U

The battery holders have been connected via one lead from each holder. U

Disposition of Specimens:

Specimens K200 through K316 are being retained in the Laboratory. You will be contacted when these specimens are available for return to your department. U

On February 3, 1978, Special Agent [redacted]
[redacted] was present during the court proceedings against [redacted] CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF, [redacted]
[redacted] and [redacted]

The purpose of this court appearance was for a bail reduction hearing, but since Grand Jury indictments were issued against these individuals, they now came under the Superior Court's jurisdiction. Therefore, no hearing could be afforded at the Municipal Court level. U

The defendants appeared before Judge BRIAN CRAHAN, Municipal Court, Division 25. CRAHAN advised the defendants of the Grand Jury indictment, the complaint was dismissed, and the defendants were remanded to the custody of the Los Angeles Superior Court and were told to appear on February 6, 1978 before Department 100 for purpose of arraignment and to set a trial date. U

An attorney by the name of [redacted] of the law firm of "Justesia" spoke for the defendants. The defendants' argument centered around their belief that the Grand Jury system was unlawful since they were not permitted to cross examine witnesses. U

The defendants requested that a new judge be assigned this case due to prejudice. Judge MARTIN complied with this request and the matter was referred to Judge PAUL G. BRECKENRIDGE. BRECKENRIDGE assigned Judge JULIUS LEEATHEM to this matter and set March 15, 1978 as the next court date. U

1 For the reasons set forth herein, the People refuse to
2 comply with the following numbered discovery requests as set forth
3 in defendants' "Request for informal pre-trial discovery"
4 (Attachment B) dated February 14, 1978.

5 Modified as indicated, defendants' request is unobjection-
6 able, and the People will voluntarily comply therewith.

7 The People do not agree to provide copies of documents or 8 photographs of evidence to defendants. Discovery is traditionally 9 limited to making materials available for examination and copying
10 by a defendant's attorney. Defendants have chosen to represent 11 themselves, even though they are incarcerated. A defendant who 12 waives his right to representation by counsel may not demand legal 13 assistance and is not entitled to any special privileges or advan-
14 tages. (People v. Elliott (1977) 70 Cal.App.3d 984.) Defendants
15 were so warned by the arrainging court at the time of their waiver 16 of their right to counsel, February 15, 1978.

17 The People have already voluntarily provided each defen-18 dant with approximately 1,000 pages of documents related to this 19 case. The law does not require, and the District Attorney's 20 budget does not permit, further gratuitous aid to the defendants.
21 The People will nonetheless provide one copy of each future report
22 to the defendants collectively. Defendants must make appropriate 23 arrangements to view other evidence.

24 The People agree to make discovery on a continual basis
25 until the end of the trial of this matter.

Defendants' Request No.	Reason for Non-Compliance (See Att. "A")	Comments

Items not known to the District Attorney's Office cannot be ordered disclosed by that Office; nor can that office be required to acquire knowledge for defendants' purposes.

Without the showing required under reason 9, any information regarding an informant's activities would be highly sensitive and its disclosure (assuming such information existed) presumptively against the public interest.

4

To the extent defendants seek information in possession of "the State" they address their request to the wrong party. Their demand as to what the state "contains" is incomprehensible.

Reports in existence will be provided. The People cannot be required to investigate further for the defendants.

Given the background of these defendants, large numbers of whose presumably violence-prone supporters appear regularly in court, disclosure of witnesses' addresses and phone numbers would constitute a serious danger to those witnesses. If defendants will notify the People of witnesses they wish to interview, the People will make such witnesses as are willing to be interviewed available to defendants.

1, 2, 3

Defendants fail to make the necessary showing of good cause why the identity of all interviewees should be disclosed. There may well be persons who were interviewed who know nothing of the matters at issue here and whose identity the public interest requires be kept confidential. All statements of witnesses regarding the events at issue will be disclosed.

5			closed. The contentions of "the State"

7			To meet defendants' demands here, the
8			People would be required to undertake
9			investigations for them. The People's
10			obligations to provide discovery are
11			not that extensive.
12	6c	4	It is unclear whether by "state"

15			People" (Cal. Const. Art. 6 Sec. 20;

	9	4, 5	The search warrants were served on the defendants through the Superior Court.

3 10 4, 5
4 As in request 9, defendants seek to 5 make the People (assuming that is the 6 intended meaning of "State") their 7 errand boys. Physical evidence will 8 be made available for inspection.
9 Defendants cannot require the People
10 to prepare lists expressly for them,
11 or to provide such lists to them if 12 they do exist, for they would consti-13 tute the People's work product. (The 14 defendants, however, do have access 15 to the search warrant returns, which 16 are public records on file with the 17 Superior Court.)

18 11 6
19 Disclosure of these materials without 20 a court order is a misdemeanor. A

23 dants make no such showing.

24 12 4
25 "Certified docket sheets" require

REASONS FOR DENIAL

1. The request is overbroad and unjustified. "There must be at least a reasonable specificity as to what is required and a plausible justification for [its] production. . . ." People v. Dickerson (1969) 270 C.A.2d 352. The court has discretion to deny discovery in the absence of a showing which specifies the material sought and furnishes a "plausible justification" for inspection. [citations omitted] Hill v. Superior Court (1974) 10 C.3d 812, 817. Such justification requires a showing that the information sought "will facilitate the ascertainment of the facts and a fair trial." Without it defendant's motion should be denied -- especially when the discovery sought would be unduly burdensome to the People. Bortin v. Superior Court (1976) 64 C.A.3d 873.

2. Without reasons to justify such demand, defendant seeks all fruits of the People's investigation. A defendant must "establish some cause for discovery other than a mere desire for the benefit of all information which has been obtained by the People in their investigation of the crime." Pitchess v. Superior Court (1974) 11 Cal.3d 531, 537. A general discovery motion for everything bearing on the case need not be granted. People v. Dickerson, supra, 270 C.A.2d 352.

3. Even could defendant derive some conceivable benefit from the requested disclosure, it would constitute a serious breach of prosecutorial security, tending to make public the investigative process which depends upon secrecy for its effectiveness in safeguarding society's interests. "An accused. . . is not entitled to inspect material as a matter of right without regard to the adverse effects of disclosure and without a prior showing of good cause. 'In criminal cases the trial court retains wide discretion to protect against the disclosure of information which might unduly hamper the prosecution or violate some other legitimate governmental interest.'" Hill v. Superior Court, supra, 10 C.3d 812, 817.

4. Defendant seeks materials that are not in control of the People, or that are available to defendant through his own efforts. Items in the possession of other persons which are sought by the defendant should be obtained by the defendant either by issuance of subpoenas duces tecum or by motions properly made while such persons are subject to the jurisdiction of this court. Defendant has no right to discovery of material which he is able to obtain through his own efforts. See Hill v. Superior Court, supra, 10 Cal.3d 817, 818; Joe Z. v. Superior Court (1970) 3 C.3d 797, 806. "The process by which attendance of a witness. . . is required is a subpoena. It may be signed and issued by . . . the attorney of record for the

1 defendant." Section 1326, California Penal Code. "If books, papers, 2 or documents are required, a direction to [that] effect must be contained in the subpoena. . . ." Section 1327, California Penal Code.
3 A subpoena "may also require [a witness] to bring with him. . .
other things under his control. . . ." Section 1985, Code of Civil 4 Procedure. A court has no jurisdiction of persons not represented.
In re Barry, 68 C.2d 137, 156, fn. 14.

5 5. Defendant seeks to require the prosecution to serve as investigator for the defense. Defendant seeks intangible matters, 6 which he would render tangible by having the People accumulate information and report it to him. The courts have not (yet, at least) 7 imposed upon the prosecutor the duty to serve as an investigator for the defense. (See People v. Beagle (1972) 6 Cal.3d 441, 450-451) 8 "[P]rosecution attorneys are not private investigators on call at the whim and caprice of defense counsel. To conclude otherwise 9 would do violence to our adversary system of justice and result in defense counsel's shirking their responsibility of using due dili-10 gence in trial preparation by obtaining information on their own efforts." People v. Moore (1975) 50 C.A.3d 989 (Harmon, J., dis-11 senting from the court's ruling that defense counsel was excused from the obligation to obtain information through his own efforts 12 because the prosecutor in that case had in fact interviewed witnesses for defense counsel pursuant to an "agreement to comply 13 with defense counsel's request" that the prosecutor undertake such questioning [at page 993].) To avoid such pitfalls, the People 14 hereby expressly refuse to undertake the investigation requested by defendant.

15 6. Defendant fails to make the compelling showing necessary 16 to justify issuance of this requested discovery order. Upon a showing that a particular witness' credibility may be critical to the 17 outcome of the trial, the court may order disclosure of his felony conviction record, the defense lacking the ability to procure such 18 information through its own efforts. But the court properly denies a request for discovery of a witness' arrest record without a show-19 ing of a compelling need (such as the likelihood it will disclose evidence of specific acts of aggression by the witness which may be 20 used to sustain defendant's claim of self-defense) sufficient to offset the great burden disclosure of such information imposes upon 21 the prosecution and the "awesome effect" such disclosure would have "on people reporting crime." Hill v. Superior Court (1974) 10 Cal.
22 3d 812.

23 7. To the extent the People possess substantial material evidence favorable to defendant, they have a duty to disclose it 24 without request. (People v. Ruthford, [1975] 14 C.3d 399.) An order to make such disclosure is unobjectionable but unnecessary.
25 Further, a general discovery motion for everything bearing on the case need not be granted. (People v. Dickerson, supra, 270 C.A.2d 26 352.)

1 8. Defendant seeks the People's work product. Source
2 material will be made available to defendant. If defendant desires
3 to put it into another form, defendant may do so. A defendant has 4 no right to discovery of material which he is able to obtain through 5 his own efforts. See Hill v. Superior Court, supra, 10 C.3d 817, 6 818; Joe Z. v. Superior Court, supra, 3 C.3d 797, 806.

7 9. Defendant makes no offer of proof that the alleged 8 informants exist or that they have knowledge of material matters
9 bearing upon defendant's guilt or innocence. The record must show
10 the informant has such knowledge; mere speculation is insufficient 11 (People v. Murphy, 42 C.A.3d 81). Defendant must show there exists
12 a reasonable possibility the informant will provide exonerating 13 evidence. (People v. Borunda, 11 C.3d 523.) (The People, of 14 course, do not rely upon information from any informant to establish 15 probable cause for defendant's arrest; thus, there is no issue as to 16 his identity for that purpose and no need to establish his relia-17 bility. See Section 1042[c] Evidence Code.)

18 10. A defendant has no right to inquire into a witness'
19 address. It is sufficient if, at trial, the witness is placed in 20 his proper setting. People v. Mardian (1975) 47 C.A.3d 16.

21 11. Prerequisite to disclosure of identity of complainants 22 charging use of excessive force by an officer-victim of battery is 23 a showing that the movant will assert a defense of self-defense.
24 Melvin L. v. Superior Court (1976) 62 C.A.3d 825. Pursuant to such 25 showing the court must examine the relevant records ex parte to 26 determine whether relevant information exists and should be disclosed. Hinojosa v. Superior Court (1976) 55 C.A.3d 692. The character of officers not directly involved as victims is not sufficiently relevant to warrant intrusion into the officers' personnel records. Ibid. Only unprivileged and relevant information not available to defendant through his own efforts, or information that will lead to such information, may in any event be ordered disclosed. Ibid.

12. There is no authority, and indeed no justification, for an order for production of duplicates of any discovery material.
Such production would require the expenditure of public funds and would thus arbitrarily impose upon the District Attorney's Office and associated public agencies a requirement that they expend public funds on behalf of the defendants. Such requirement would constitute a taking of property without due process of law in violation of the 5th and 14th Amendments to the Constitution of the United States. All that is ever traditionally required under a discovery order is the production of material for inspection and copying by the movant.

5 SUSPECTS IN BOMB PLOT INDICTED

BY BILL FARR
Times Staff Writer

Five suspected revolutionaries accused of planning terrorist activities that included a plot to bomb the Fullerton office of state Sen. John V. Briggs (R-Fullerton) were indicted Thursday by the Los Angeles County Grand Jury.

The indictment came after the grand jury heard the testimony of 28 witnesses during a two-day hearing.

Named as defendants in the five-count indictment were Judith Emily Bissell, 33; Leslie Ann Mullin also, 33; Marc Curtis Perry, 29; Thomas Michael Justesen, 27, and Clayton Van Lydegraff, 62.

All five were charged with two counts of possessing a destructive device in a public place and one count each of conspiracy, possession of bomb components, and possession of a destructive device with intent to injure, intimidate, and cause damage.

They are being held in lieu of bail in amounts varying from $50,000 to $750,000 each.

The five reportedly are members of a splinter faction of the radical Weather Underground called the Prairie Fire Organization Committee.

During a seven-month investigation by the FBI, two undercover agents reportedly infiltrated the alleged terrorists group.

The plot to bomb Briggs' office was foiled when members of the group were arrested in Los Angeles and Houston the day before the explosion was to take place.

Briggs apparently was targeted because of his support for a statewide ballot initiative to ban homosexuals from teaching in California public schools.

Authorities said the group also was planning an act of terrorism against Superior Court Judge Floyd Dodson, who is presiding over the Los Angeles murder trial of American Indians Paul Skyhorse and Richard Mohawk. Another target allegedly was the National Women's Conference in Houston last November.

Dep. Dist. Atty. Robert Jorgensen, who presented the case to the grand jury, said the grand jury indictment was sought to cut short pretrial delays in the case.

In California, the grand jury indictment puts the case immediately in the Superior Court for trial without the necessity of a preliminary hearing on the Municipal Court level.

Five indicted in bombing conspiracy

Five suspected revolutionaries were indicted by the county grand jury Thursday on charges they planned to begin a terrorist bombing campaign which included "trashing" the Fullerton office of state Sen. John Briggs, R-Fullerton.

The five-count indictment, returned Thursday morning after two days of closed-door hearings, supercedes a five-count complaint issued against the same defendants last Nov. 21. The indictment does charge that one of the defendants, Marc Curtis Perry, constructed a bomb on Nov. 17.

Named in the indictment along with the 29-year-old Perry were Judith Emily Bissell, 33; Thomas Mich'el Justesen, 17; Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62, and Leslie Ann Mullin, 33.

Court documents identify the two women as former members of the ultra-leftist Weather Underground group.

No Dismissal In Bombing Case

A judge here refused yesterday to dismiss charges against five persons linked by authorities to the revolutionary Weather Underground who said prosecutors violated a stay in proceedings.

Judith Emily Bissell, 33; Thomas Michael Justesen 27; Leslie Ann Mullin, 33; Marc Curtis Perry, 29; and Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62, have been charged in connection with a purported terrorist plot which was to have begun with a bombing Nov. 19 at the Fullerton office of Republican state Sen. John Briggs, a conservative who recently backed a move to eliminate homosexual teachers from public schools.

The five defendants, acting as their own attorneys, contended their due process had been violated when the district attorney sought — and subsequently obtained last Thursday — a Los Angeles County Grand Jury indictment naming the defendants in the alleged bomb plot.

The defendants previously had been charged by the prosecutors. Court documents said that the two women defendants are former members of the Weather Underground and that the men were members of the Prairie Fire group which allegedly supplies above-ground support to the Weather Underground.

Five Bomb Plot Suspects Assail Handling of Case

BY BILL FARR
Times Staff Writer

Five persons charged with plotting to bomb the Fullerton office of state Sen. John V. Briggs claim their case was taken to secret grand jury proceedings "to deprive them of their right to expose the government's case in an open hearing."

Dep. Dist. Atty. Robert Jorgensen, who is prosecuting the case, termed the accusation "sheer nonsense."

Jorgensen had said last week after the grand jury indicted the five defendants that the step was taken to curtail delays in the case.

The grand jury indictment put the case directly into Superior Court and thus canceled all proceedings that would have been held in Municipal Court, including a preliminary hearing in open court at which the defendants would have been able to cross-examine witnesses.

The five defendants, all acting as their own attorneys at this point, asked Superior Court Judge Paul G. Breckenridge for a one-week delay in entering pleas to the charges in the five-count indictment.

Breckenridge granted the request and then set Feb. 15 as the date for taking the pleas from Judith Emily Bissell, 33, Leslie Ann Mullin, also 33; Clayton Van Ludegraf, 62; Curtis Perry, 29, and Thomas Michael Justesen, 27.

They are being held in county jail in lieu of bail ranging from $500,000 to $750,000 each.

In a statement distributed by sympathizers outside Breckenridge's court room at the downtown Criminal Courts Building, the defendants, all reportedly affiliated with a splinter group of the Weather Underground, stated:

"Jorgensen's move to the grand jury wiped out the first hearing on the defendants' bail, which was to have been held last Friday in Municipal Court. The five have been jailed two and a half months on bail of half to three quarters of a million each, even though standard bail for their charges is only $5,000.

"They view the additional bail as based only on their politics and solidarity with national and women's liberation. None of the five have been charged with doing or attempting any violent acts."

The indictment charges all five with two counts of possessing a destructive device in a public place. They are further charged with one count each of possession of bomb components, possession of a destructive device with intent to injure, intimidate and cause damage; and conspiracy.

Judge refuses to drop bomb plot charges

A Los Angeles Superior Court Judge Monday refused to dismiss charges against five suspected revolutionaries accused of plotting to "trash" the Fullerton offices of conservative State Sen. John Briggs.

The five said their right to due process had been violated when prosecutors went to the county grand jury last week while the case was supposed to be in abeyance.

But Paul G. Breckenridge Jr., the presiding criminal courts judge, dismissed the motion, saying he didn't feel the stay had been violated.

The five defendants—Judith Emily Bissell, 33; Thomas Michael Justesen, 27; Leslie Ann Mullin, 33; Marc Curtis Perry, 29; and Clayton Van Ludegraf, 62—all were due back in court Feb. 15 for arraignment and for arguments on whether they should be allowed to serve as their own attorneys.

They remained in custody on bail ranging from $500,000 to $750,000 each.

Ms. Bissell, a fugitive from a 1970 Seattle bomb charge, asked Judge Breckenridge to dismiss the five-count indictment Monday morning, noting proceedings had been stayed since Jan. 5 so an adequate law library could be compiled at Sybil Brand Institute for Women, where she and Ms. Mullin are being held.

"The D.A., Mr. (Robert) Jorgensen, has transformed this court from a protection of those (due process) rights to an advantage for the prosecution," the short, red-haired defendant said. "It's (the stay) a one-way street for the defendants, but not for the prosecution."

She asked the judge to "throw out" the five-count indictment and delay further proceedings one week.

Judge Breckenridge, without hearing argument from Jorgensen, said:

"The court doesn't interpret going to the grand jury as a violation of the stay...the district attorney has a right to take a case to the grand jury if the grand jury will hear it.

"I don't feel there's been any violation of the stay order."

County grand jurors returned the indictment last Thursday after hearing 28 witnesses. Jorgensen explained he took the case to the grand jury to expedite the prosecution.

The two women are identified in court documents as former members of the ultra-leftist Weather Underground. The men are identified as members of an above-ground support group.

The indictment alleged they planned to set off a bomb at Briggs' office last Nov. 19 because of his proposal to ban homosexual teachers from California schools.

Other targets of the alleged plot included the judge presiding over the trial of two American Indians accused of murder, the anti-school busing group called Busstop and the Ku Klux Klan.

Group Pleads Innocent in Bombing Plot

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Five persons with links to the revolutionary Weather Underground pleaded innocent Wednesday to charges of plotting to bomb the office of Republican state Sen. John Briggs.

Judith Emily Bissell, 33; Tomas Michael Justesen, 27; Leslie Ann Mullin, 33; Marc Curtis Perry, 29, and Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62, entered the plea after Superior Court Judge Paul G. Breckenridge Jr. reluctantly granted them permission to act as their own attorneys.

"I think it's not in your best interest to represent yourselves in this very serious case," said Breckenridge, presiding judge of the Superior Court's Criminal Division. "Generally, defendants are too personally involved in the facts of the case to make determinations and tactical decisions."

Breckenridge assigned the case to Judge Bonnie Lee Martin and set a Feb. 24 date for pretrial motions.

Five persons accused of plotting to bomb the Fullerton offices of Republican State Sen. John Briggs pleaded innocent Wednesday after being granted permission to represent themselves in court.

The five defendants in the case were warned by presiding Superior Court Judge Paul G. Breckenridge Jr. they would receive no special considerations for representing themselves.

The five defendants — Judith Emily Bissell, 33; Michael Thomas Justesen, 27; Leslie Ann Mullin, 33; Mark Curtis Perry, 29; and Clayton Van Lydegraf, 62; were indicted last Feb. 2 by county grand jurors.

Breckenridge Wednesday assigned the case to the court of Superior Court Judge Bonnie Lee Martin. He set Feb. 24 as a date for pretrial motions.

Ms. Bissel told the judge the defendants planned to challenge their five-count indictment.

Deputy District Attorney Robert Jorgensen said grand jury transcripts should be delivered to the defendants in a few days.

The records of the Mountain View Police Department were reviewed on December 28, 1977, and it was determined that on March 12, 1969, [REDACTED] was arrested in connection with a liquor law violation and on May 25, 1970, he was arrested on charges of Assault. [redacted] was contacted at the Benewah County Sheriff's Office, St. Maries, Idaho, and interviewed in reference to a .44 magnum Ruger Super Blackhawk revolver which was found in the possession of Bureau fugitives on November 19, 1977. [redacted] provided the following information pertaining to that revolver. U

[redacted] admitted purchasing a Ruger Super Blackhawk .44 magnum revolver, bearing serial #8020224, in November, 1970. He indicated that the gun was purchased from the P. D. SALES, Mountain View, California. He indicated that approximately one year after he purchased the gun, he and [redacted] who was at that time residing on Grant Road in Los Altos, California, went to the Stanisla National Forest which is southwest of Yosemite National Park in Northern California. While in the park, they were shooting the revolver, and he inadvertently left the gun laying on a tree stump when he left the campgrounds. He was in the Middle Fork Campgrounds, and when he returned to search for the gun, he found that it was missing.

[redacted] who at that time was residing on Berry Avenue in Los Altos, California, accompanied him back to the middle fork campgrounds to search for the gun. Upon not being able to locate the gun, he returned to Mountain View, California, where he attempted to report the gun as lost. The Mountain View Police Department refused to accept his lost report indicating that the Stanisla National Forest was not within their jurisdiction. [redacted] indicated that he then reported the loss to the Sonora County Sheriff's Office which is the county that the Stanisla National Forest is in. He does not recall exactly how he reported this loss, either in person or by mail, but is fairly sure that he did report the loss to them. U

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

Two of our Special Agents operating in an undercover capacity (UCSA's) penetrated the Weather Underground Organization (WUO) on 5/15/77. As a result of this penetration, four WUO members and a Prairie Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC) leader were arrested on 11/19/77.

[redacted] and Clayton Van Lydegraf (PFOC leader) were arrested by Bureau Agents in Houston, Texas, and presently incarcerated in Houston on Federal charges.

[redacted] subsequently identified as [redacted] were arrested by Bureau Agents and Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) police officers in Los Angeles on 11/19/77. Five separate premises searched by LAPD, with Bureau Agents as observers, resulted in the seizure of numerous items of an evidentiary nature, which included high-powered rifles, handguns, ammunition, materials to construct a bomb (caps, dynamite), an explosive device, notebooks and WUO literature. Local and Federal charges outstanding on [redacted] in Los Angeles and all evidence maintained in custody of LAPD.

LAPD has tentatively advised that evidence in this case will probably be ready for transmittal to the FBI Laboratory on 11/29/77.

Los Angeles Office (LAO) feels that to maintain the strongest chain of evidence, LAPD should relinquish evidence in a sealed condition directly to the FBI Laboratory. If evidence is turned over to LAO by LAPD, preparation of an inventory and accounting of the evidence would take a minimum of two additional days.

LAO requested FBIHQ to authorize travel of SA [redacted], and a LAPD officer from Los Angeles to Washington, D. C., with evidence in a sealed container. Travel of LAPD officer is requested so as to maintain chain of evidence, and travel of SA [redacted] is necessary since he has debriefed both UCSA's involved in the making of a destructive device, which information he can relay most efficiently in person to FBI Laboratory personnel.

LAO also requests FBIHQ to authorize payment of LAPD officer's air fare and air fare of SA [redacted] by GTR.

CID concurs with LAO requests, and they will be telephonically advised.

November 29, 1977

DETAILS: This matter was previously carried under the caption. [redacted] (EXTREMIST), Bufile [redacted] SF File [redacted] [redacted] (EXTREMIST), Bufile [redacted] SF File [redacted]

As you are aware, [redacted] [redacted] Federal process dismissed May, 1974,) together with [redacted] were arrested by Bureau Agents and members of the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) at [redacted] on 11/19/77 in the apartment of [redacted] [redacted] was also arrested by Bureau Agents in Houston, Texas on 11/19/77 with Clayton Van Lydegraf and [redacted]. Through fingerprint comparison conducted by our Identification Division, Vince (LNU) is identical to [redacted] a Selective Service Act - Fugitive from 1972 until January, 1977, when the indictment against him was dismissed at Seattle, Washington, based upon Presidential pardon for Selective Service violators of the Vietnam era. He was previously arrested by the Chicago Police Department in October, 1969 during the violent demonstrations sponsored by the Students For A Democratic Society (SDS) members, commonly referred to as "Days of Rage." [redacted] was identified through fingerprints as [redacted] who had been previously arrested in May, 1976 by the U.S. Postal Inspectors in San Francisco on a charge of Perjury and Conspiracy. These charges were subsequently dropped. Intensive investigation by Bureau offices being conducted to determine true identity of [redacted]

On 11/21/77, [redacted] Departmental Attorney, initiated a telephone call to Bureau Supervisor [redacted] regarding the aforementioned arrests.

[redacted] advised that he was reading an article in one of the newspapers concerning the arrest of WUO members and when he came across the name Clayton Van Lydegraf, he recalled that in September, 1972 Lydegraf was subpoenaed as a witness before the Federal Grand Jury (FGJ), Northern District of California, regarding the Weatherman apartment at [redacted] However, the subpoena was dismissed in view of five overhears on both microphone and telephone electronic surveillances of the FBI involving Lydegraf.

[redacted] further advised that in view of these past overhears pertaining to Lydegraf, he was exhibiting a little concern whether these overhears would affect prosecution of Lydegraf because of the sensitive nature of these sources. He related that he was entertaining a few thoughts that if Lydegraf were prosecuted and the sources were revealed it could pave the way for potential civil suits. [redacted] further related that in regard to this particular point he may have to consult with the Attorney General and the Assistant Attorney General of the Criminal Division.

[redacted] requested verbally that this Bureau conduct an "elsur" check on Lydegraf subsequent to 1972. He also requested whether this Bureau could provide him with some documents pertaining to the background of this case.

On 11/22/77, Supervisor Shea provided [redacted] with a Xerox copy of the State and Federal complaints obtained from the Los Angeles Office by facsimile. [redacted] stated that he would imagine the FBI would rather see this case be prosecuted in the Federal court in view of the length of time of this investigation and the length of time that the Bureau's Special Agents were working in an undercover capacity against the WUO.

[redacted] related that Assistant U.S. Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] Middle District of California, contacted him on 11/21/77 and "floated a few balloons" regarding this case being prosecuted by local authorities in California. He said that he asked AUSA [redacted] to give him a few facts as to why he, [redacted] thinks the local authorities have a stronger case than the Government. [] said that AUSA [] could not articulate on this point. [] recounted that if this case were prosecuted locally he did not know at this point whether the local authorities had the relative capabilities to protect our Agents on the stand as well as the Federal Government could if this case were prosecuted in Federal court.

[] was telephonically advised on 11/23/77 by Supervisor Shea that an "el^{eg}sur" check on Clayton Van Lydegraf and his known aliases disclosed no additional overhears subsequent to 1972.

During May and June, 1977, investigation reflected that a person, identifying himself through a Wisconsin Driver's License as [redacted] obtained several birth certificates of deceased infants from the Bureau of Vital Statistics (BVS), Milwaukee, explaining that he was obtaining them for "passport purposes."

One of these birth certificates was for KENNETH ROBERT ROHAN, DOB 12/27/47 at Milwaukee, who died 5/2/49 at Milwaukee.

FBI/DOJ

December 2, 1977

DETAILS: As you will recall, [redacted]
[redacted] and Clayton Van Lydegraf were arrested by Bureau Agents on 11/19/77 in Houston, Texas charged with violation of U.S. Code Title 18, Section 371, 231 (a)(1), 842; U.S. Code Title 26, Section 5841 (c), (d) and (f).

On 11/19/77, [redacted] and [redacted] Last Name Unknown (LNU) were arrested by members of the Los Angeles Police Department and Bureau Agents charged with the above violations. In addition, all above-mentioned subjects were charged with violation of Section 182 (Conspiracy) of the Penal Code of the State of California. When [redacted] was arrested he gave his true name as [redacted]. However, his true identity was established through fingerprints. He is [redacted] a long-standing Students For A Democratic Society (SDS) member, who was a Selective Service Act Fugitive of our Seattle Office from 1972 until 1977 when process was dismissed based upon W.A. Presidential pardon for Vietnam era Selective Service Act violators.

On 11/29/77, Investigator [redacted] Intelligence Division, Chicago Police Department, reported that a review of court records had disclosed that [redacted] remains a fugitive in Cook County, Illinois. He is sought on an Aggravated Battery Warrant and a Bond Jumping Warrant. The former charge was returned by the Cook County Grand Jury following [redacted] arrest on 10/11/69 during the Weathermen's "Days of Rage" riots, and the latter warrant was issued by the Grand Jury during 1970 because of [redacted] failure to appear in court in connection with the former warrant. [redacted] stated that in July, 1970 the States Attorney's Office placed the matter in a "stricken off the ledger with leave to reinstate status," however, this did not mean that they desired to "drop" the charges. Instead, they were placing the matter in an "inactive" file until such time as [redacted] either surrendered or was arrested.

December 2, 1977

Presently [] is attempting to locate the warrants and to determine whether the Cook County States Attorney's Office still wishes to prosecute this matter and to ascertain whether they will extradite Perry.

Our Los Angeles Office will advise Chicago regarding the location of Perry and the size of the bond presently against him so that Chicago can advise Cook County officials of same.

On 11/28/77, captioned subjects appeared before Judge Michael Burke, Division 30 of the Los Angeles County Municipal Court. All subjects requested a continuance of their arraignment and Judge Burke set a new date for the arraignment as 12/14/77.

You will be kept advised of these proceedings.

December 5, 1977

DETAILS: As you are well aware, above-captioned individuals were arrested on 11/19/77 on various local and Federal charges.

On 11/22/77, Assistant U.S. Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] Central District of California, advised Agents of our Los Angeles Office that he has spoken with District Attorney of Los Angeles County [redacted] who feels that the FBI has provided evidence for very successful prosecution. AUSA [redacted] advised he will be consulting with Deputy District Attorney [redacted] on 11/23/77 regarding prosecution of this matter. AUSA [redacted] added that if the trial is in State court he will be present to protect FBI and Government interest.

On 11/28/77, captioned subjects appeared before Judge Michael Burke, Division 30 of the Los Angeles Municipal Court. All of these subjects requested a continuation of their arraignment and Judge Burke set a new date for the arraignment as 12/14/77.

On 11/28/77, AUSA [redacted] advised that there is no definite date made for any Federal Grand Jury in this matter and that, at this time, Federal prosecution may be dismissed in favor of the stronger State violations. [redacted] stated that he is conferring with local prosecutor [redacted] and the Department of Justice and will advise the FBI on whatever decisions are made.

When [redacted] appeared before Judge Burke of the Los Angeles County Municipal Court on 11/28/77 she requested that she be known by her true name of Leslie Mullens. Los Angeles is not aware if this is her true identity.

FBIHQ general indices do not contain any information identifiable with [redacted] or [redacted]

You will be kept advised of future developments.

Captioned investigation concerned itself with two Undercover Special Agents having penetrated the Revolutionary Committee of the Weather Underground in Los Angeles. A lengthy investigation resulted in the arrests of the following individuals on 11/19/77:

CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF

These individuals have been charged with both state and federal violations centering around possession of explosives and conspiracy to bomb California State Senator JOHN V. BRIGGS' office in Fullerton, California. Subsequent to the arrests, a search of five locations in the Los Angeles area resulted in a tremendous quantity of evidence which may lead to the location of other Weather Fugitives and could possibly solve previous bombings claimed by the Weatherman.

Enclosed for each receiving office is a 50 page Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) Property Report indicating the items located during the 11/19 - 20/77 search of locations in captioned matter. Also enclosed for each receiving office is one photograph of the above five listed individuals.

For information of recipients, FBIHQ has approved the declassification of communications in instant matter and respective divisions should declassify their files, noting they were initially classified for the sole purpose of protecting the Undercover Special Agents.

All of the evidence, as shown on the enclosed police report, was forwarded to the FBI Laboratory for examination. Due to the bulk of the evidence and the urgency of examinations, xerox copies were not made prior to submitting the evidence to the Laboratory. The Laboratory is presently xeroxing and photographing pertinent documents which will assist in covering any leads which may be sent out in the future. Contained in the inventory are 147 names. Los Angeles is in the process of opening a false identity case (191 matter) on each of these 147 names. All leads will be sent out under [redacted] title and will be submitted to the individual 191 case when received.

Los Angeles indices checks are still being conducted on all of the enclosed 147 names, and thus far, the following three names have shown importance:

THIS IS TO ADVISE THAT THE DIRECTOR WILL BE ON ANNUAL LEAVE FROM DECEMBER 30, 1977, UNTIL JANUARY 9, 1978, AND CONSEQUENTLY WILL BE UNABLE TO MEET WITH THE SAS AT THAT TIME. HOWEVER, FROM JANUARY 24, 1978, THROUGH JANUARY 26, 1978, AN UNDERCOVER SEMINAR COORDINATED BY THE SELECTIVE OPERATION UNIT OF THE CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION (CID) WILL BE HELD AT THE FBI ACADEMY IN QUANTICO, VIRGINIA, AND SAS [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] ARE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS SEMINAR.

LOS ANGELES AND SAN FRANCISCO OFFICES SHOULD ADVISE FBIHQ WHETHER AFOREMENTIONED SAS WILL BE ABLE TO ATTEND THIS SEMINAR.

IF THE SAS ARE AVAILABLE DURING THE ABOVE PERIOD AND CAN ATTEND THE SEMINAR, THE DIRECTOR'S OFFICE WILL BE CONSULTED TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE DIRECTOR'S SCHEDULE DURING ABOVE IS SUCH THAT ARRANGEMENTS CAN BE MADE FOR THE AGENTS AND THEIR FAMILIES TO MEET WITH HIM PERSONALLY.

NOTE:

On 11/19/77, four Weather Underground Organization (WUO) members and Prairie Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC) leader Clayton Van Lydegraf were arrested on various local and Federal charges in Houston, Texas, and Los Angeles, California. The latter was a direct result of the Bureau's penetration of the WUO by SAS [redacted] and [redacted] SA [redacted] has been operating in an undercover capacity since 1973 and SA [redacted] since 1970. Both were targeted against the WUO during 1974. During 1974, SA [redacted] gained the complete confidence of Lydegraf, who is the above-ground contact with the WUO. In May, 1977, a major breakthrough occurred in this operation when SA [redacted] was introduced by Lydegraf to WUO members [redacted] an I.O. Weatherfug, and [redacted] (not true name). Subsequently, SA [redacted] was introduced to these WUO members as well as other WUO members [redacted] and [redacted]. Los Angeles airtel and FD-255 dated 11/28/77 recommended that SAS [redacted] and [redacted], who are assigned to the San Francisco Office, be called to Washington, D. C., and be given a quality salary increases (QSIs) recognition personally by the Director. Los Angeles also recommended that SAS appear at FBIHQ to brief appropriate interested personnel regarding their undercover activities. If these QSIs are approved and the SAS's & Director's schedules coincide, Los Angeles and San Francisco Offices will be advised.

PRAIRIE FIRE ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

P.O.B. 4614 STATION C S.F., CALIF 94100

Prairie Fire Organizing Committee called this press conference to make a statement concerning the November 19 FBI arrests of five "alleged" Weather Underground Organization members in both Houston and Los Angeles.

Of the five arrested, two are women, and one of the men includes Clayton Van Lydegraf, a leader of Prairie Fire Organizing Committee. The Houston arrests were made during the International Women's Year Conference that took place over the week-end.

PFOC went to Houston to show and give our support to the militant struggles of women in this country. This past weekend thousands of women approved planks supporting gay rights, abortion, and the Equal Rights Amendment. These were victories for women. At the same time however, the right wing is being organized to combat these gains in any way it can. The Klan, Anita Bryant and Phyllis Schlafly are all banding together as part of an overall offensive against the rising time of women for liberation.

At the same time that the Klan organized against the right to abortion, it sent thousands of its members to patrol the border against so-called illegal aliens. The Klan has been known as terrorist throughout the world for the past 100 years. PFOC went to Houston to help protect and defend women against this form of terrorism.

The last ten years has seen the US empire defeated all over the world. From Southeast Asia to Africa, the U.S. and its allies are being challenged as the rulers of the world. In Vietnam, people who defended their homelands were called terrorists. In Southern Africa, Steven Biko is murdered in his cell under the guise that he is conspiring and is a terrorist. In Germany, members of the Red Army Faction are murdered in their cells-- so called suicides justified by the government because they were terrorists. Thousands of Africans in Southern Africa are demanding their independence and freedom. Carter and Vnrster, the true terrorist conspirators, defend white supremacy against the so called terrorism of the African people. Here at home too, actions of Black, Puerto Rican, Native American and Latino peoples against the US state are denounced as "terrorist." The massacres at Attica Wounded Knee, the murder of Fred Hampton are stood on their head. In Chicago and New York 9 Puerto Rican and Mexicano/Chicano people are locked up without trial in witch-hunting grand juries because they might have some knowledge about the FAIRN.

And now PFOC is being charged with "terrorism". The timing of these Federal and California state-coordinated arrests come at a very serious time, and PFOC wants to state clearly that we see this series of arrests as one part of the government's growing attempts to smash rising political dissent and movement. The use of conspiracy charges have always been a state tool to smash and contain revolutionary anti-imperialist politics. This is not a criminal case or primarily a legal matter, or an isolated event. It is a calculated political attack and conspiracy by the US state against a leading member of our organization and other forces fighting for revolutionary change.

It is clear that our beginning efforts pose a threat to the US government: The US rulers who commit genocide against Third World people, who are responsible for forced sterilization of Native, Black, Latina, and Puerto Rican women have gone too far to try and cop a plea of innocence and non-violence. The US state and Carter's Human Rights stand exposed in the eyes of the majority of the people of the world; and revolutionary mass struggle and revolutionary violence have shown themselves to be the only way to win liberation and justice. ENCLOSURE

These wars which to the media remain hidden until the peoples forces grow in size and strength to the point where the struggles cannot be denied, are wars for survival and national liberation. What you the media rarely do, what the rulers will not allow is that the truths be told about the way things are in the world. That the US state maintains its power and wealth through force, violence and terror from Soweto to Harlem, from Chile and Puerto Rico to Attica and Wounded Knee. Add that people of oppressed nation are rising up for independence and fighting for freedom. Freedom fighters are not the so-called "terrorist" monsters and demons you try to frighten people with. The warriors of Wounded Knee, of Black liberation, fighters for Puerto Rican independence do not fall from the sky but emerge through struggle from the real life conditions of oppression that they and their people face every day.

Revolutionary and freedom minded peoples do not recognize the legitimacy or the right of the US and its fascist puppets like the KKK and FBI to rule and lord it over them. Women do not and will not stand for the state's sterilization of Third World women, denial of rights to abortion, sanction of rape, and attacks on lesbians and gays.

PFOC affirms and stands in solidarity with the struggles for national and women's liberation. The old Weather Underground Organization (WUO) never took on these issues in a consistent way. Instead they hid behind their reputation. In our history of struggles with the WUO, we have united with those who want to make revolution and want to change from the wrong ways. We have continued to expose the wrongness of the WUO strategy and politics. Our support and solidarity definitely falls on the side of the women and men who are "alleged" members of the Revolutionary Committee--not Mark Rudd, who after surfacing from the underground turned himself into the police and was released with no bail.

We are in firm solidarity with the people arrested and framed up in Texas for allegedly doing armed defense of IWY women struggling against right-wing fascist mobilization there. We are in solidarity with the people arrested in Los Angeles. We express our unshakeable commitment to free our comrade Clayton Van Lydegraf and all political prisoners and prisoners of war of the US government; and we are confident that the struggle of progressive and revolutionary people will break all the oppressors chains, and tear his prisons down.

M: We cannot and will not stand for the State sterilization of 3rd world women, denials of rights to abortion, sanction of rape, and attacks on lesbianism. PFOC affirms its stance and solidarity with --- National Women's liberation. The old Weather Underground Organization, known as the WUO, never took on this issue in an consistent way. Instead they hid behind their reputation.

In our history of struggles with the WUO we have united with those who want to make resolution and want to change from the wrong ways. We have continued to expose the wrongness of the WUO strategy and politics. Our support and solidarity definitely falls on the side of the women and men who are alleged members of the Revolutionary Committee and we do not side with people like Mark Rudd, who after surfacing from the Underground, turned himself into the police and was released with a slap on the wrist.

We are in firm solidarity with people arrested and framed up in Texas, for allegedly doing armed defense ~ struggling against right wing mobilization there. We are in solidarity with people arrested in IA, also. We express our unshakeable commitment to free our comrade, CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF, all political prisoners and prisoners of war with the U.S. government. We are confident that the struggles of progressive and revolutionary people will break all the oppressor's chains and will break down its prisons.

Q: You said that---your statement that revolutionary violence is one of the ways that--one of the only ways to win liberation and justice. If indeed Mr. Van Lydegraf is involved in some type of a conspiracy to bomb Senator Brigg's office, would you consider him a terrorist?

M: I don't consider that terrorism. We, and I think we state clearly, feel the real terrorists in this world in this case are the U.S. Government, the KKK, and other right wing and fascist groups that are fighting at this time.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED

Q: In other words, if they oppose you, they're terrorists but if they support you they're not?

M: No, I think that all people have to take "what is terror?" Terror is a situation in which people can control by incredible force the aspiration and wants of many people. This government has always ruled by terror; it has murdered literally millions of people to get what it wants - that's terrorism.

Q: What the government alleges these people were doing --- some kind of harm to Senator Briggs, right? Now by doing that does that justify any bombs? Is that not terrorism?

M: It's not a question of justification nor is it a question of terrorism, it's a question of what's real and what isn't real. The question is that at the same time what's happening in Houston is that the right wingers were liberalizing, the right wingers stated that it wants to smash in any way it can the aspirations of women. The Klan which we know has been terrorists for at least a hundred years in this country is organized and the State then targets people who are defending women, who are dedicated to defending the rights of third world people, and calls them conspirators and terrorists. It's a cover.

Q: Just what role does Mr. Van Lydegraf take in the organization?

SHORES: He's a leading member of the organization.

Q: From what you say, I get the impression that you're defending him not against the charges that he might have conspired to plant a bomb in Senator Brigg's office, but because that act you do not consider to be terrorism? I'm saying from your statements a few moments ago, I got the impression you weren't defending him on not being involved, you're defending him on saying that act was not terrorism, that terrorism is what Briggs and others are involved in, is that correct?

M: We're not saying that he was involved in that at all. We're saying that it has been a tradition in this country to plant and frame up and manufacture conspiracies, that we can look at the past 10 years of conspiracy trials, of the 1968 Democratic Convention, to the Panther 21 trial, etc., etc., Those were all situations of conspiracy and terror. And at the same time, what was really happening was the government was going out and murdering people. And people are scared of terrorism. It's like a loaded word. And it's a way to get people to focus on issues that aren't really going on. It's a way for the government to get over, to rip off.

Q: Do you think then, that if Mr. Van Lydegraf is convicted on these charges it will destroy the credibility of Prairie Fire, making it into, quote "a terrorist organization?"

M: We don't (interrupted by next question)

Q: ~~~~~

M: We don't think that there are any illegal aliens; we don't think that the border which stretches over the southern part of this country is a legitimate border and therefore people crossing over from one part of Mexico to land that rightfully belongs to the Mexican people is an illegal act.

Q: What was in today's press reports where they searching in Los Angeles it turns out ~~~~~ your organization has its offices in San Francisco ~~~~~

M: We don't know they're being searched as of now, but of course you know peoples houses are searched all the time and materials are planted all the time and just the way that we consider this arrest and conspiracy of frame ups, so if something came down here it would be ~~~~~.

Q: Do you have any idea who this undercover Agent for the FBI that Van Lydegraf talked to was?

M: No.

Q: You spoke in terms of the old Weather Underground, how is it that you, that the PFOC, ~~~~~ old Weather Underground, what's the connection, some of the same people involved in it?

M: The Weather Underground no longer exists. I would like to make another paint ~~~~~.

Q: I thought some people from the Weather Underground had written letters as recently as last February -

M: The old Weather Underground organization no longer exists.

Q: I mean, unless you were a member of the organization how can you speak for it?

M: It no longer exists. That's all I have to say.

Q: So you are totally - you are not associated at all with the Weather Underground.

M: No, we are not associated at all with the Weather Underground and the Weather Underground Organization no longer exists and people can read about that in many documents that have been published and we have documents ourselves that ~.

I would like to say something about what is going on with the women who were arrested in Houston, if that's all right ~. When the women were brought to their cells the other inmates told them that prison officials had stated that the women were going to be suicidal. We all know what that history is in the past couple of weeks that prisoners were said to be suicidal mysteriously ended up dead. This is the farthest thing from the truth. Given the way suicide has recently been used as a method of eliminating political prisoners, we think it is very important that we make it clear that none of ~ women who have been arrested are suicidal, we don't consider these charges to be legitimate, we consider them a frame up and there is no reason for anybody to have any suicidal thoughts at all.

SHAFER: And if any of the prisoners die mysteriously in their cells the responsibility for those deaths rests squarely on the U.S. State, the FBI, and the Houston police authorities in Texas.

Q: Do you think there would be any retaliation should that occur? A suicide?

M: ~

Q: Could you explain Prairie Fire Organization stands for, what is the goal.

M: Prairie Fire Organizing Committee is an anti-revolutionary, anti-imperialist organization that is dedicated to solidarity with National womens liberation and dedicated to a revolutionary change in this country and support the revolution ~. We stand in solidarity with oppressed nations of black, Chicanos, Mexicano, Native Americans.

Q: What about your means of reaching this goal, does it include bombings?

M: We believe that the only way that government can be changed in this world is through revolution.

Q: Meaning bombings?

M: Revolutionary change is necessary for governments like the United States to change. And as we see in the history of China, in the history of Vietnam, in the situation that now exists in Southern Africa, governments do not give way by just having a round table discussion.

Q: So how, through bombings?

M: Revolutionary war is the ultimate expression of revolutionary change. Now obviously that is not happening exactly at the moment, but aspects of that revolutionary war are going on all the time and have been going on since the US has been established.

Q: Don't you feel that the skirmishes of bombing and other kinds of terrorism are ~~~~~.

M: I think that, I wouldn't call them skirmishes. I think that they're reactions to oppression that occurs in this country and that they're legitimate and need to be supported and that we support them.

Q: Could you say more about, like the significance of this happening this weekend where like there was an oppression conference in Chicago and a womens conference in Houston and like there's alot coming down ~~~~~ Puerto Rican ~~~~~.

M: Well we think that this weekend in particular and also in this last month around the world that the United States is in a particular crises. That people from Southern Africa, South California, that Native American people on Indian reservations ~~~~~ Black people, Mexicans, Chicano people are organizing and the U.S. Government knows they're organizing. Just the same way that the government needs to contain the peoples of Southern Africa they need to contain the peoples of the United States, and the way to do that is in the same manner, it is by terrorism by the U.S. Government, by manufacturing conspiracy trials, by delivering phony grand juries, by arresting people, by calling people suicidal and so on and so forth. I mean that's the only way the U.S. can get over its end by its own terror and violence.

Q: Now you state unequivocally that none of the five that were arrested were ever connected with the old or extinct Weather Underground?

M: I can't state anything unequivocally. I can state that Clayton Van Lydegraf is and was a member of Prairie Fire Organizing Committee.

Q: Would you say in effect that your organization is declaring war on the U.S.?

M: I think that there is a state of war with the U.S. Government and that we're not the only ones that are part of it.

Q: Then you are a part?

M: Yes, we are.

Q: Is your organization

M: Yes.

Q: That is a question I had; it seems every time we come to listen to what you're interested in doing, the only agreed that womens rights and there are women well represented here, but the other people you represent are not represented in your organization. Why is that so? Why do you think that's so?

M: Because we think that the history of the U.S. there's been a history of white people taking over and running the affairs of the black, Puerto Rican, Native American and Chicano people ---

Q: Isn't that what you're doing now?

M: No. What we're -- our responsibility is to fight against white and male supremacy. Is to fight in the oppressor nation. With the white people, to convince the white people that they must also stand up against the U.S. Government which has always from the time they ripped off Native American land and resources and ripped off black people from Africa, has always given certain privileges to white people and denied those things to black people -- and we think at this time it is the responsibility of white people to turn against that. It is not our responsibility to organize other people. That might come about but it will only come about under a situation of absolute solidarity and equality.

Q: With your organization all white how do you know that black, Chicanos and Asian people want you to do what you're doing? How do you know they particularly care about it?

M: Well, it's not exactly a question of exactly a question, whether they care about us or not, it's a question that we can look around the United States and around the world and see that all these different peoples and nations are in fact rising up against the U.S. Government. We didn't need to ask the Vietnamese people whether they needed or wanted our support. We knew that they were fighting against a government that we were also fighting against, and therefore we were in direct solidarity. And this is what we think our responsibilities are.

M: It's not a question of asking. People shouldn't have to ask us for our support. It's our responsibility to give that support.

Q: ~~~~~

M: Of course we are. But we don't think that white people can be free unless they stand up against the very same government that oppresses non-white people.

Q: ~~~~~ It reminds me of the story of the boy scout taking the old lady across the street. She was going to go whether she wanted to or not. Isn't that what you're saying basically?

M: I think that the history of that boy scout is the history of white male supremacy. That boy scout had in fact, maybe that boy scout was one of the soldiers who sided with the Vietnamese in the war in Indo-China and was one of the reasons that the U.S. Government was defeated, and maybe that boy scout was one of the soldiers who in fact sided with the U.S. Government in Vietnam. If he did side with the U.S. Government, then he sided against the very same government that was oppressing him. So we think that that boy scout or girl scout has in fact supported third world people and has struggled against U.S. imperialism and will and should continue to do so.

Q: Could I go back over a couple of things -- essentially are you saying the five people arrested in Houston and Los Angeles are not members of your organization or are members? How are you handling that situation?

M: One of the people arrested, Clayton Van Lydegraf, is a member of our organization. The four other people are not members.

Q: Are you saying that the charges brought against them are false?

M: We say that these charges are conspiracy charges, they are completely in line with former and consistent conspiracy charges that have gone on for the last hundred years as a way of denying political rights.

Q: You're not saying they're false, though?

M: We're saying they're a frameup. I don't know to me frameup and false, there not that different.

Q: But if these people are not in your organization how can you say that the charges are false if you don't know them?

M: From the information that we've seen and from the history of the U.S. we would have to assume, we assume the charges are false unless they are absolutely proven that they're true. Just the way we assume that people are innocent until they're proven guilty.

Q: If they're convicted would you agree that they're guilty?

M: If they're convicted?

Q: Yes.

M: Well, I think first we'd have to see what the charges are, then we have to see what the condition of the trials are about, all those considerations. Just because people are convicted does not necessarily imply they are guilty, as we know. There is a very good example. If you look at the history of the Rosenberg trial those people were convicted and killed. Now, twenty five years later people are saying why did we do that, they were obviously not guilty. So conviction in this country is, does not necessarily imply or confirm guilt. Of course the question of conviction doesn't even come up at this point, because we haven't even established what the charges are.

Q: Essentially you say that there's alot of harrassment, is that the idea?

M: Yes. That would be putting it mildly.

Q: Are you being harrassed? Is your organization in San Francisco being harrassed?

M: We're being harassed because a member of our organization is under arrest with $300,000 bail, that is harassment. That in itself is a harassment. So far we are harassed just like many other people in this country are harassed and as leftists in this country are harassed with the standard phone taps, mail, you know, rip ins, we're under surveillance, you know, but that's normal stuff. We don't know right now what level of surveillance we're under but we assume we are under a high level of surveillance.

Q: What form of action will you take to express your unshakeable committment to ---

M: Well we can't lay out you know a blue print of what we're going to do, but I think that from the beginning why we called this conference is to state what we think of these charges, who we think the real ~~~~~ are and that we begin to organize people to support these comrades who are in prison. After that I can't say.

Number of questions all at once.

M: Can you go one at a time?

Q: Weatherman --struggle ~~~~~

M: Now, I think that you all have been around in the past year and in fact an article was printed in the "San Francisco Examiner" and "Chronicle," articles in ~~~~~ magazine, so people know what the struggles of the WUO are about. Basically the struggles of the WUO were political struggles in which we felt that in fact the WUO which said it was committed to a revolution (end of tape).

Re Los Angeles airtel to Bureau dated December 6, 1977; and Chicago teletypes to Bureau dated December 16, 1977.

The following reflects information contained in Chicago indices concerning individuals whose identities were discovered in connection with the arrest of five members of the WUO - Revolutionary Committee Faction by Agents of the Los Angeles and Houston Divisions on November 19, 1977. These names were contained in the enclosure to referenced Los Angeles airtel:

Regarding DAVID W. CARLSON, see Chicago teletype to the Bureau dated December 16, 1977, which reflects that CARLSON is probably identical to a deceased Chicago infant.

Regarding [REDACTED] WALTER BROWN and [REDACTED] on whom specific leads were set for Chicago insofar as information relating them to the Chicago area was found in connection with the arrests, the Chicago PD advised SC [REDACTED] on 12/19/77 that there is no record on the latter name and that the former names are so common that no record check was possible. Efforts were also made to determine if any could have been "victims" of crimes such as thefts of identification; however, again the Chicago PD records were negative. The Chicago PD advised that either a Chicago arrest number or a date of birth is necessary to conduct a meaningful search of records.

Regarding WALTER BROWN

Chicago indices reflect that the name WALTER BROWN came up in connection with the investigation to locate [REDACTED] however, it does not appear that this person is identical to the person in this matter. A toll record check of the telephone of [REDACTED] father of [REDACTED] disclosed that he had called a number listed to WALTER BROWN, 247 Whipstick Road, Wilton, Connecticut, 772-5916, during mid-1973; however, further investigation disclosed that this BROWN had died. Chicago notes that [REDACTED] is a [REDACTED] and a monitoring of his toll and mail correspondences for several years disclosed that most of his contacts were with individuals who were also engaged in this hobby-business. Chicago doubts that this person is connected with [REDACTED] Other references to BROWN in Chicago indices do not appear to be identical to the BROWN in this matter.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~Regarding TOM GRIFFIN

Chicago indices discloses New York airtel to Bureau captioned [REDACTED], dated 6/1/73, dealing with an individual named [REDACTED]. According to this airtel, on June 1, 1973, [REDACTED] encountered one [REDACTED] who told him that a member of the WUO underground, [REDACTED] who had attended Bennington College, had surfaced in the New York area and was then residing in Brooklyn. New York indicated that their indices reflected that one [REDACTED] [REDACTED] at Washington, D.C. had been a member of the radical counter-culture movie and media service entitled, "NEWSREEL". He was the subject of New York file [REDACTED]. Chicago is not aware of further developments concerning this information.

Chicago indices are totally negative on the following names which were mentioned in the enclosure to reairtel:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Chicago indices reflect references for the following names, however, based on the information known about these individuals in question, none appear to be identical to these references:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Chicago indices do reflect the following information which may be identical to the below-mentioned names:

Regarding [redacted] and [redacted]

wa. Detroit letter to the Bureau, dated 11/5/73, captioned "WEATHERMAN" reported that investigation had determined that [redacted] had utilized the name [redacted] from March, 1970 until his arrest in New York on September 19, 1973. Much of his existence during that time had been in the Seattle, Washington area where [redacted] associated with [redacted] DOB [redacted]. It was subsequently determined that [redacted] identification was stolen during the Spring of 1970 and that he was not the individual using the identity in Washington. It was further reported that on March 5, 1970, an unknown male and a female utilizing the name [redacted] purchased six blasting caps in a Detroit, Michigan store. At the time, they were driving a vehicle registered to WUO support person [redacted]. This is of great significance insofar as a bomb was placed in the Detroit Police Association Building on March 6, 1970. It is almost certain that the WUO was

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CG 174-1769

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

MLL responsible for this action as it was known they had been planning this bombing for several weeks prior to the bomb being discovered. On March 16, 1970, [redacted] car was used to transport [redacted] to a Detroit area airport. Later in the day, police stopped the vehicle and identified the driver as being [redacted]. Passengers were former underground WUO members [redacted] and [redacted].

On April 15, 1971, [redacted] was located and advised that her purse containing her identification had been stolen from Michigan State University during the Spring, 1970.

It is not known who utilized either the [redacted] stolen identifications, although it was theorized that [redacted] might have been used by such WUO members as [redacted] and/or [redacted].

Regarding [redacted] and [redacted]

Ca Chicago indices reflect Los Angeles airtel to Bureau dated March 5, 1971, captioned [redacted] - "FUGITIVE", reported that MERRIE CORRINE ALBRECHT, DOB May 15, 1949, and GLORIA KATHLEEN YANDL, DOB March 23, 1946, were deceased infants from Los Angeles whose birth certificates were applied for during 1970. It was opined that members of the WUO might be utilizing these identities at that time because [redacted] was utilizing the identity of [redacted] which was also secured in Los Angeles in 1970.

Regarding [redacted] also known as [redacted]

Chicago indices disclose that one [redacted] testified for the Defense during the "Conspiracy 8" (later "Conspiracy 7") Trial in Chicago, on December 15, 1969, claiming alleged misconduct on the part of Chicago Police Officers on August 28, 1968, in connection with the 1968 Democratic National Convention riots (DEMCON). Other than that this person was from Winnetka, Illinois, nothing further is known about [redacted]. It is doubtful that this individual is identical to the individual of concern at this time.

Regarding [redacted]

Chicago indices discloses that when Agents of the San Francisco Division discovered the WUO's "Bomb Factory" in an apartment at [redacted] on April 13, 1971, one of the items they found therein was a certified copy of a Boston, Massachusetts' birth certificate for [redacted] DOB [redacted] parents were reflected to be [redacted] and [redacted] (See San Francisco airtels to the Bureau captioned [redacted] and [redacted] dated April 9 and 16, 1971, and Boston letter to the Bureau captioned [redacted], dated June 17, 1971.)

Regarding [redacted]

Chicago indices reflect that the identification of [redacted] was stolen on February 27, 1970 from the campus of Bryn Mawr College. During the latter part of February and March, 1970, a number of checks were cashed against [redacted] identification in Philadelphia and New York. (See Philadelphia report of SA [redacted] captioned "UNSUBS; [redacted] ITSP", dated November 30, 1970.)

Regarding [redacted]

Chicago indices contain many references to this individual whose identification has apparently been utilized by the WUO. In Chicago report of SA [redacted] captioned "WUO", dated October 1, 1976 (Page 200), it was indicated that missing underground WUO member, [redacted] had utilized the name [redacted] DOB [redacted] when arrested with fellow WUO members [redacted] and [redacted] in Albany, Oregon, on September 9, 1970. On June 13, 1975, the real [redacted] nee [redacted] was interviewed at her residence in [redacted] at which time she stated that her billfold had been stolen in around May, 1970, when she was visiting a friend on the campus of Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut.

Regarding [redacted]

Portland airtel to Bureau, dual-captioned [redacted] and [redacted] dated July 1, 1977, indicated that [redacted] resided at [redacted]

They reported one [redacted] DOB [redacted] of [redacted] was one of these individuals.

Regarding LINDA LOUIS MC LAUGHLIN

By LHM dated 4/24/75, and captioned "FALSE IDENTIFICATION, INFORMATION CONCERNING", the Los Angeles Division reported that LINDA LOUISE MC LAUGHLIN DOB 12/13/45, was a deceased infant who died on 1/1/48.

Regarding ROBERT ERVIN KLEY

The routing slip dated 3/3/76, captioned "FALSE IDENTIFICATION PROGRAM, SM-EM," the Los Angeles Division reported that ROBERT ERVIN KLEY, DOB 8/30/46, was a deceased infant who died on October 15, 1946, in Los Angeles.

Regarding [redacted]

Chicago indices reflect that Minneapolis letter to Chicago, captioned [redacted] IS-WUO", dated 5/20/75, reflected that one of [redacted] friends and/or acquaintances was one [redacted] Chicago has no further descriptive data on this individual.

October 28, 1975

On October 27, 1975, source indicated that a conversation was held between CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF and [redacted]. During the course of this conversation, VAN LYDEGRAF stated that [redacted] told him that he heard a rumor which stated that [redacted] announced that he was going to have "Prairie Fire" published commercially, possibly back east, and sold to raise money for some revolutionary projects. VAN LYDEGRAF seemed very disturbed at this idea because he is the only one that holds the copyright to "Prairie Fire" and no one else can reprint it or sell it without his consent. VAN LYDEGRAF further advised that he would sue anyone who did publish and resell "Prairie Fire", including [redacted] or any member in the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC). U

Source stated that VAN LYDEGRAF [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted] Source further advised that VAN LYDEGRAF told [redacted] that he was going down to his lawyer, [redacted] to prepare for some legal proceedings if necessary. Source stated that word would get to the underground very shortly concerning this matter because VAN LYDEGRAF had advised [redacted] and [redacted] of his intentions concerning the copyright of "Prairie Fire". U

Source advised that VAN LYDEGRAF stated to [redacted] that VAN LYDEGRAF is currently considering having a commercial company reprint and sell "Prairie Fire" for only one edition. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that he would either keep the money and put it toward his work in the prison movement or would give some money to the WU and keep the rest. /

Source further advised that VAN LYDEGRAF feels that the WU will shortly get word of his intentions and possibly set up a meet with VAN LYDEGRAF at some time in the near future, but this has not been determined as yet. J

San Francisco, California
January 22, 1976

On January 9, 1976, source stated that a conversation was had between [redacted] and CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF. During this conversation, VAN LYDEGRAF stated he was in contact with a few book publishers who are interested in commercially publishing "Prairie Fire". VAN LYDEGRAF further stated that one of these publishers was Penguin Press [redacted]

[redacted] This publishing company is headquartered in London, England. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that the proceeds from the sale of the book will be divided by himself and the Weather Underground Organization (WUO). It is believed that VAN LYDEGRAF will either give the WUO cash or that he will put it in a bank for them to use sometime in the future. U

VAN LYDEGRAF is certain that the commercial sale of the book for one edition will cause political differences with the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC) members throughout the country and also with the WUO. He has stated that he does not care what PFOC members think, but he is concerned with what the WUO may think. VAN LYDEGRAF has indicated that when the book is sold, he would like to explain his political reasons for the sale of the book to the WUO directly. This would be in the form of a person to person meeting or in the form of mail correspondence. U

San Francisco, California

Source advised that [redacted] and CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF held a conversation at 180 Duboce Avenue, San Francisco, California. U

Source stated that during this conversation [redacted]

[redacted] Source stated that [redacted] went on to say that the WUO hopes the book will be widely circulated and that a mass revolutionary organization will be formed around the politics of the book. Source stated that to facilitate the circulation and reprint of the book, the WUO was turning over the copyright to an aboveground comrade. U

Source stated that VAN LYDEGRAF told [redacted] that he wrote the introduction, conclusion and Chapter Three of "Prairie Fire" and that the WUO has turned the copyright over to him. VAN LYDEGRAF further stated that in an effort to obtain a copyright, he had to write Washington, D. C. on three separate occasions before it was approved. He said that it normally takes only one letter but the people in Washington know of his politics and those of the book and therefore they were probably harassing him. U

San Francisco, California
February 20, 1976

[] Source stated that CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF and [] had a discussion concerning the reprinting of "Prairie Fire". VAN LYDEGRAF told [] that he had a meeting with People's Press which is located at 2680 21st Street, San Francisco, California. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that People's Press stated that they would take responsibility for reprinting 5,000 copies of "Prairie Fire", but under the name of Communications Company and not People's Press. VAN LYDEGRAF further stated that People's Press will take care of distributing the book to bookstores in the bay area as well as mail orders. VAN LYDEGRAF further stated that he would personally receive 22¢ per copy of every book sold since he is Communications Company and he is authorizing the reprint of the book. VAN LYDEGRAF further stated that the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC) would not receive any revenue from the book and that if they wanted to raise money, they would have to buy books from People's Press at $1.00 per copy and sell them for the retail price of $2.00 per copy. U

At this point, VAN LYDEGRAF stated to [] that no one in PFOC except [] and a few close friends would know that VAN LYDEGRAF is personally receiving 22¢ per copy for the book. U

VAN LYDEGRAF also told [] that he was approached a few weeks before by some individuals within the Bay Area PFOC and they stated to him that when "Prairie Fire" is reprinted, they would like to have the article written by BERNARDINE DOHRN, which appears in "Osawatomie" #3, to be included in the new edition of "Prairie Fire". VAN LYDEGRAF stated that he has read DOHRN's article and does not agree with it politically and that it has some political shortcomings and that he would not include it in the new edition of "Prairie Fire". VAN LYDEGRAF told [] that he has written a three page paper stating his reasons for disagreeing with BERNARDINE's article and that it would be circulated within the Bay Area PFOC. U

VAN LYDEGRAF stated that BERNARDINE DOHRN is a very strong revolutionary and would take his criticism of her article in a positive manner. U

During this discussion of the book "Prairie Fire", VAN LYDEGRAF told [] that VAN LYDEGRAF was very instrumental in the content of the book "Prairie Fire". He stated that the Weather Underground Organization contacted him (possibly my mail) and asked him if he would write something that could be put into the book. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that he wrote the introduction, the conclusion, and Chapter Three of "Prairie Fire". J

LA 174-3233

San Francisco, California

Source advised that on October 23, 1976, [] traveled to Eugene, Oregon, where he was to meet with CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF, who had arrived in Eugene on October 21, 1976. []

[] While in Eugene, [] and VAN LYDEGRAF stayed with an individual named [] who resides at []

Source advised that [] told [] that [] operates the Jack Rabbit Press, which is located at 454 Willamette Avenue, Eugene. She stated that Jack Rabbit is a women's print collective involved in producing radical women's literature on women's oppression. She told [] that they do some commercial work but only to bring in money to keep the print shop operating. Source stated that []

Source advised that [] met [] at Reflections Press, which is [] located in a yellow building on Pearl Street between 2nd and 3rd Street, Eugene, Oregon. [] told [] that Reflections Press was started after Jack Rabbit Press became solely a women's print collective. []

LA 174-3233

[redacted] At the conclusion of the discussion that night, [redacted] stated that he would have some papers the next day and [redacted] was supposed to meet him at Jack Rabbit Press late in the afternoon. [redacted]

[redacted] U
Source stated that VAN LYDEGRAF told [redacted] that it was important that he meet [redacted] because, some time in the future, [redacted] may be needed to supply other friends with identification papers should any problems with the "state" arise. Source advised that VAN LYDEGRAF told [redacted] that he may be the person to contact [redacted] in the future since the "state" is aware of most of the other revolutionaries in the movement. U

LA 174-3233

San Francisco, California
January 26, 1977

Source advised that on December 6, 1976, [] and CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF held a conversation outside the residence of [] [] told VAN LYDEGRAF that as of January 31, 1977, he was going to leave the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC). [] stated that he was going to help a friend who has some problems set up a secure residence which is out of the way of ordinary traffic. [] stated that his last two years in the PFOC had been very important to his political development but that now he feels the struggle should be carried on at a different level, a level that will benefit everyone. VAN LYDEGRAF reacted very favorably to what [] had said and added that presently, there is a need for secure houses where people could discuss politics and what has to be done in the future. He further stated that as PFOC grows into a more revolutionary organization, it will become of much more interest to the state and this will mean closer surveillances and much more harassment of PFOC. ✓

VAN LYDEGRAF referred to the recent split within the Weather Underground Organization (WUO) and stated that one faction, led by [] and [] is very seriously considering surfacing in order to lead an above ground communist organization which has politics that are opposed to the present PFOC politics. VAN LYDEGRAF further stated that the other faction of the WUO, the Revolutionary Committee, which is presumably led by [] and [] and whose politics are very close to those of PFOC's, is considering remaining underground to carry on a struggle from there. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that although the Revolutionary Committee remains committed to armed struggle, they may be isolated due to the recent split in the WUO. Due to this recent split, they may not have been as active as he had hoped they would be.

VAN LYDEGRAF asked [] what sort of training he had while he was in the Army and [] stated that his firearms training included the M-14 as well as the .45 caliber automatic and that he had been taught different military techniques using both of these weapons. VAN LYDEGRAF told [] that it would be a good idea if he could get a secure house that had land where people could practice firearms training. VAN LYDEGRAF further stated that he would like [] and his friend to "hook up" with the Revolutionary Committee sometime in the very near future and conduct firearms training for these individuals. Source advised that [] seemed interested and told VAN LYDEGRAF he would do whatever he could to help this situation out. U

[] told VAN LYDEGRAF that within a week, he was going to leave with his friend in order to collect some money that was owed to the friend and that he would return to the Bay Area sometime within the first week of January 1977. U

On [] and CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF held a conversation out at Seal Beach in San Francisco, California. VAN LYDEGRAF asked [] if he collected the money and if the date of January 31, 1977 was still set for his departure. [] responded by stating that he and his friend collected approximately $3,000 and that more money would be coming within the next few months. He further stated that the date of January 31 was all set and that he would be departing the Bay Area on that day. U

VAN LYDEGRAF stated that during the past few weeks, he had had numerous meetings with leaders of PFOC concerning the financial condition of the organization. He stated that as PFOC attempts to put chapters in different cities across the country, much money would be needed to set up these chapters and to travel there and he stated that benefits have been organized in the Bay Area to raise money for this purpose. VAN LYDEGRAF referred to the financial condition of the WUO and stated that one of the main reasons they have been able to exist for as long as they have is that many people throughout the country were giving them money and one of their main sources was a woman in New York who inherited approximately $15,000 and who was giving the WUO $1,000 a month. He did not say who this woman was, however, she is believed to be either a member of the New York Chapter of the PFOC or a woman who is close to the New York PFOC Chapter. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that in addition to the benefits being planned in the Bay Area, it is possible that some wealthy people in the Bay Area may be willing to contribute substantial amounts of money to help build the organization. He did not mention any of these individuals by name. U

Source advised that on the morning of [redacted] CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF and [redacted] held a conversation outside the residence of [redacted] VAN LYDEGRAF stated that during the past few days, he had told [redacted] and [redacted] who are in PFOC leadership positions with VAN LYDEGRAF, of [redacted] intentions. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that these three women would inevitably find out about the setting up of the Safehouse and would severely criticize VAN LYDEGRAF of male chauvinism and of not confiding this plan to them had he not told them. He stated that these suspicions would endanger his position and would hamper the development of PFOC into a truly revolutionary communist organization. U

[redacted] asked VAN LYDEGRAF if there were any serious security problems with these three women and VAN LYDEGRAF stated that all three of them had been in the movement for a long time and were truly committed to the development of a revolutionary communist organization. U

VAN LYDEGRAF stated that at approximately two o'clock that afternoon, a meeting was going to be held with himself, [redacted] and [redacted] to further discuss the details of this plan. U

LA 174-3233

Source advised that on [redacted] [redacted] CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF and [redacted] held a conversation in a coffee shop on Market Street, San Francisco, California. Source advised that [redacted] told [redacted] of the plan to set up the Safehouse and the reasons for doing so and that [redacted] responded very favorably, although she did have some criticisms concerning women's leadership in setting up this house. [redacted] stated that, at the present time, there were no women involved in setting up the Safehouse, however, he stated that if this operation is to be successful, women's leadership will be necessary. U

[redacted] stated that she was a little disappointed that she, [redacted] and [redacted] were not included when the plan was originated and [redacted] stated that their exclusion was not motivated by male supremacist ideas but a desire not to bring anyone else into the operation who did not desire to become a part of it. [redacted] responded by saying she felt that there was a definite need to set up a Safehouse where people could have political discussions and plan future strategies. U

[redacted] asked [redacted] if he was still leaving at the end of the month and, when [redacted] replied to the affirmative, she stated that it would be good to have another meeting with him, VAN LYDEGRAF, [redacted] and herself to discuss in more detail the political strategies of this operation. [redacted] stated that since there were only a few more weeks before he was ready to leave, [redacted] should, if at all possible, come back to the Bay Area sometime in February and spend a few weeks where political discussions could be held concerning the focus and the relationship of this operation to PFOC. U

San Francisco, California

Source advised that on [redacted] [redacted] CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF and [redacted] held a conversation in a restaurant on 24th Street in San Francisco, California. U

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss and evaluate the progress being made on setting up a "safe-house" to be used for training revolutionaries in the use of weapons, as well as using the house for contacts with other revolutionaries and possibly fugitives. U

[redacted] stated that the accessibility of a "safehouse" is a very good idea. She said that since PFOC seems to be united around a political line that calls for support of black and third world struggles, it is time to put into operation a network that can give underground aid, such as weapons training and safehouses, to hide people from the state, as well as above ground political backing. U

[redacted] told [redacted] and VAN LYDEGRAF that the "safehouse" in operation in Los Angeles would probably be moved to Northern California where it is more secluded and better suited for our present needs. [redacted] and VAN LYDEGRAF agreed with this proposal and further stated that if Northern California is a more secure area, then the location of the house should be changed. U

[redacted] said that it would be a good idea for [redacted] to stay with PFOC for another four weeks before leaving the organization permanently. She stated that these four weeks would be used to discuss the different aspects of PFOC's political line. The purpose of these discussions would be to make sure politics are in command of actions, whether they be above ground or underground. [redacted] stated that a good example of an organization that had revisionist and male supremacist politics in command was the Zapata Organization. These politics were the major reasons for that organization being destroyed.

LA 174-3233

San Francisco, California
March 24, 1977

Source advised that on March 11, 1977, a meeting was held at the J & J Lunch House, 3325 - 20th Street, San Francisco, California. Present at this meeting were [REDACTED] CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF and [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated to VAN LYDEGRAF and [REDACTED] that as of March 1, 1977, the safe house had been set up in Guerneville, California. U

VAN LYDEGRAF stated that he had just returned from a ten day trip to Los Angeles and San Diego for the purpose of organizing new Prairie Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC) chapters in those cities. He stated that the prospects for organizing a chapter in the Los Angeles area are very good as there seems to be a lot of interest generated in the politics that the PFOC has at the present time. However, he stated that the San Diego area is not very receptive at this time to the politics that the PFOC is pursuing. U

VAN LYDEGRAF and [REDACTED] both concurred that although the safe house in the Guerneville area may be secluded and secure, they feel that a safe house in the Los Angeles area is absolutely necessary at this time. At this point, [REDACTED] asked VAN LYDEGRAF and [REDACTED] why they were so adamant about setting up a safe house in Los Angeles as opposed to the Guerneville area. VAN LYDEGRAF replied by saying that for the past two years, the Bay Area PFOC chapter has been organizing above ground and that the police and FBI probably have identified everyone belonging to the chapter and he feels that due to the proximity of Guerneville to the Bay Area, it would be too easy for the police to follow and harass members in this area and to possibly follow them to the safe house. [REDACTED] stated that certain procedures could be set up which would make the Guerneville area much more secluded and, at this point, VAN LYDEGRAF and [REDACTED] both stated that there were other reasons for setting up a safe house in Los Angeles. U

VAN LYDEGRAF stated that within the next six weeks to two months, there is a possibility that a large group of Chicanos, Mexicanos and Native Americans are going to attempt to reclaim some land in the southwestern area of the United States that they feel was illegally taken from them. He did not elaborate as to how he got this information or what methods will be used by these groups in their attempts to reclaim the land. VAN LYDEGRAF further stated that in August or September, there will probably be some violent demonstrations down in the Los Angeles area concerning the busing situation. He stated that demonstrations connected with the busing situation will make the violence that occurred in Boston over the busing situation look like a "tea party". U

VAN LYDEGRAF stated that since PFOC members are white revolutionary communists, it is their duty to give any type of support possible to black and third world struggles going on within the United States. He stated that these are two good reasons why a safe house in the Los Angeles area is absolutely necessary. He further stated that he is hopeful that a safe house in the Los Angeles area could be operational within six weeks. U

[redacted] asked VAN LYDEGRAF if the split in the Weather Underground Organization (WUO) was final and he stated that it was. The Revolutionary Committee is in the process of severing all their old contacts with the WUO faction led by [redacted] and [redacted]. VAN LYDEGRAF believes that [redacted] and [redacted] are going ahead with their plans to surface and it would be a breach of security for the Revolutionary Committee to use any of the old safe houses and contacts that they had prior to the split in the WUO. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that he still plans to connect [redacted] and his friend with the Revolutionary Committee sometime in the very near future and stated that he would like to meet again with [redacted] in two weeks. Source advised that on April 20, 1977, a meeting was held between [] and CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF at the Copper Penny Restaurant on the corner of Geary Boulevard and Masonic Avenue, San Francisco, California. U

VAN LYDEGRAF stated that he has set up a meeting site in which he will introduce [] to some underground members on May 15, 1977 at 11:00 a.m. at the corner of Broadway and Promenade in Santa Monica, California. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that [] should be in the area but not directly at the meet site and he further stated [] was to wait twenty minutes at this intersection and, should no one appear, the meeting would be rescheduled for May 21, 1977 at 11:00 a.m. at the corner of Broadway and Promenade. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that once the introductions have been made, it would be up to [] and [] to set up further meetings with these people to discuss different guerrilla tactics and how they can best be used to support violent, black and third world struggles that will be coming down in the very near future. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that the underground members have been close friends of his for a number of years and have extensive knowledge in the composition of explosive devices and further stated that these people would instruct [] and [] on how to build these devices. VAN LYDEGRAF further stated that [] and [] knowledge in weapons would also be useful to these people. U

VAN LYDEGRAF stated he would like [] and [] to have a safe house operational by the 15th of May 1977 in the Los Angeles area. U

LA 174-3233

VAN LYDEGRAF stated that the Bay Area PFOC has taken in ten new members which has increased its membership to approximately 50 people, but he is concerned about the security of the organization. When queried about this security problem, VAN LYDEGRAF stated that recently, two members of the Weather Underground Organization (WUO) by the names of [] and [] surfaced in Chicago. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that [] was a member of the Central Committee of the WUO and was writing communiques and other revolutionary articles under the name []. He further stated that [] was recently released on $100 bond and he feels the FBI knows he was a member of the Central Committee of the WUO and since he disagrees with the politics being put forth by the Bay Area PFOC, [] may be sent out to the Bay Area to attempt to disrupt the political development of the PFOC. U

VAN LYDEGRAF terminated the conversation by stating he would meet [] in Santa Monica on May 15, 1977 at 11:00 a.m. U

March 25, 1977

On March 25, 1977, a meeting was held at a Chinese restaurant on the corner of 27th Avenue and Geary Boulevard, San Francisco, California. Present at this meeting were CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF [redacted] and [redacted]
[redacted]

At the outset of the meeting, VAN LYDEGRAF advised that he took special precautions in getting to the first meet site with [redacted] inasmuch as [redacted] is a fugitive. He stated that he changed buses three times before he met with [redacted]. He and [redacted] thereafter drove around the city for approximately 45 minutes "cleaning themselves" prior to meeting with [redacted] U

During the course of the meeting, VAN LYDEGRAF was asked by [redacted] whether or not he still intended to place [redacted] and [redacted] in contact with the Revolutionary Committee (RC). VAN LYDEGRAF stated that he definitely intended to place [redacted] and [redacted] in contact with the RC. He then explained that the RC has recently been formed by the main women from the old Weather Underground Organization (WUO). VAN LYDEGRAF stated that there was an irreconcilable split among the members of the WUO, and that as a result of this split, these women have formed a new group which they call the RC. He stated that inasmuch as some of those who split might surface, those who remain underground are going to need new contacts, including safe houses, etc. He advised that some of the WUO have been living in the same place for as many as five and six years and, therefore, new contacts would be necessary in view of the split. U

VAN LYDEGRAF stated he had in mind the following with regard to the secure location in Los Angeles: U

He was hoping that [redacted] and [redacted] could provide some survival training for the RC women inasmuch as it is his impression that they feel they need further training in guerrilla type activities. He said that in addition to these women, at some point in the future, he would take selected members from the surface group known as the Praire Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC) and send them at various times for training. [] and [] pointed out to him that training cannot be a one day session. Training to be a revolutionary is a full time process. It takes a lot of personal discipline and development, including such things as mountaineering skills and survival skills. Even though the main area of attack would be in the cities, these other disciplines are useful, particularly in case of emergency escape. VAN LYDEGRAF agreed this would be a good idea. U

VAN LYDEGRAF again stated that the RC people would be starting anew and that they would be needing money, as well as new contacts and places to stay. He stated that the urgency of getting to Los Angeles within four weeks is no longer present inasmuch as the planned action which [] and [] were going to be part of is no longer possible. He explained that this action was to be a takeover of a ranch in Colorado similar to the takeover that arose in Wounded Knee, however, this takeover would involve Latinos living in Colorado. He stated that the rancher has been shot at in the past and that there has been considerable attention given in the Colorado area to this problem. U

VAN LYDEGRAF advised that he would like the proposed location to be in the Los Angeles area, and he said that he would leave it to [] and [] to reconnoiter the area in an effort to pick out the best place. He said when he and other people were faced with the problem of finding a training area in the past, they found one in southeast Livermore, California, and that it was on the land of a farmer who rented part of this space out to hunters so they could practice shooting. He indicated that he did not wish to return to any spot he used in the past, and again indicated he wants the setup to be in the Los Angeles area. U

Regarding a time schedule, VAN LYDEGRAF stated that he is personally too busy to get anything done during the month of April. He stated he would be spending at least one week in Portland and would also travel to the State of Washington to renew his driver's license, which he keeps in that state. He stated additionally that inasmuch as [] was going to Cuba with a contingent of the Venceremos

Brigade (VB) and would not be back until mid-May, he would be burdened with most of the leadership duties of the PFOC. Inasmuch as there is no urgency to get to Los Angeles, he stated that the best thing for [] and [] to do would be to stay in Guerneville until the end of April and contact him on the 18th of April, at which time he would say whether or not it would be urgent to get to the Los Angeles area by the beginning of May. U

When discussing the nature of the training to be provided, [] asked if VAN LYDEGRAF had any materials which he could provide. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that he would be able to provide certain materials later that night and that he would continue to look for additional manuals. VAN LYDEGRAF said that Los Angeles is the main target area of the future inasmuch as he anticipates that there will be black and Latino people down there who will be having difficulties with the police, and in particular, there will likely be some activities in September stemming from the busing plans that have been set for Los Angeles. VAN LYDEGRAF stated that in order to be operational in that area, [] and [] would have to be residing near Los Angeles. In discussing a location, he stated that it would not be smart to go into a heavy radical area such as Venice, but that an area bordering on the black or Latino ghetto would be best. He pointed out that whites living in the heart of the ghetto often have problems blending into the area. He stated that in San Francisco (for instance), political organizers could live in the Haight, but it would be foolish for people who were "wanted" to live in the Haight or certain areas of North Beach. He said that if you lived in North Beach, the ideal location would be on Telegraph Hill as opposed to Grant Street. He also added that good areas in San Francisco would include the outer Mission, the upper Haight, lower Richmond District and even parts of Pacific Heights, particularly near the water. U

In discussing the future intend of the RC, he stated that the women who have formed the RC are convinced that the era of the symbolic bombing is over, that they no longer provide the type of propaganda that they once did. He stated, as an example, that a recent symbolic bombing did not really draw much attention and that the RC was going to have to push forward from this type of activity into more violent street acts. He discussed the fact that the RC would be getting into street urban guerrilla type tactics, including defending homes against the police. He indicated that there would be situations arising where several people might be attempting takeovers of homes or hiding fugitives, etc., and that guerrilla type activities might be formed around this. [] and [] stated that they had street experience which would be relevant to such activity. U

At the conclusion of the meeting, VAN LYDEGRAF was driven home by []. VAN LYDEGRAF told [] to stop a block or so away and that he would go into his house and pick up some pamphlets he wanted [] and [] to have. He then went into the house, assembled a few pamphlets and put them in a manila envelope, which he then placed in a trash can. [] watched to be sure that no one was watching this action and he then picked up the pamphlets from the trash can. The pamphlets provided by VAN LYDEGRAF at this point are listed as follows: U

1. "Problems of Strategy in Guerrilla War Against Japan"
By MAO Tse-tung
2. "Unprotracted War"
By MAO Tse-tung
3. "The Split of the Weather Underground Organization"
4. "Breakthrough"
(Publication put out by the PFOC)

On the way home, VAN LYDEGRAF told [] that he approved of the selection and handling of the meeting place. U

On September 9, 1977, a physical surveillance was instituted in Griffith Park with SA [] and SA []

[] (Last Name Unknown) (LNU), CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF, and an unknown white female, later identified as [] were observed entering Griffith Park for what at the time was thought to be a meeting with other individuals. Due to the nature of the terrain in Griffith Park, as well as the surveilled individuals' awareness of a possible surveillance, it was very difficult to keep a constant watch on the four individuals. U

Keeping that in mind, it was decided to send SA [] and SA [] into the park to determine if a meeting was taking place. U

At 11:30 AM, SAs [] and [] entered the park in an undercover vehicle and parked in the general vicinity of the automobile that had been driven by the four individuals upon entering the park. The two Special Agents departed their vehicle and walked approximately 200 yards through the park until the four were spotted. U

At this time an observation point was undertaken where the four individuals could be continuously watched without them being aware. It was determined at this time that only four individuals were present and that these four were the same as described above. U

At approximately 11:45 AM, VAN LYDEGRAF was observed leaving the picnic table and walking towards the parking lot. He returned approximately three minutes later. Upon his return, he carried a paper sack, the contents of which were not observed. U

While VAN LYDEGRAF was away, [] was observed to stand up and leave the picnic table and walk approximately 20 feet away to another picnic table. At this time, she had in her possession what appeared to be a packet of papers. She stayed at this picnic table reading through the papers for approximately 15 minutes. Upon returning to the other picnic table, she traded packets of papers with [] VAN LYDEGRAF and [] (LNU). U

The individuals were observed looking through the packets and trading back and forth for approximately the next 15 minutes. VAN LYDEGRAF then stood up and collected all the packets, placing them in what appeared to be one folder. The four individuals then sat down and began talking. It was shortly thereafter that SA [] and SA KIRK left the park area. U

During the time that SA [] and SA [] were in the park, no individuals were observed making any type of contact with any of the four individuals. U

The following automobile licenses were copied as the Agents departed the parking lot area: U

On September 1, 1977, the property at [redacted] Echo Park District of Los Angeles, California, was visited and the following observations were made. U

The terrain is generally hilly. [redacted] rises generally northeasterly from Echo Park Avenue and makes a bend to the east directly in front of the [redacted] address. The address is located on the northern side of [redacted] U

Several vehicles were observed to be parked on the premises. Next to the street, a small European sports car, gray in color, was resting off the ground on jacks. The vehicle, not further identified, had been observed on many occasions in the past and does not appear to be operable at this time. U

Directly off of [redacted] stands a two vehicle carport. The carport is open on all sides with lattice work on the east and west sides. U

A whitish Jaguar sedan was parked in the western half of the carport and was currently disabled. The hood was off and observation revealed the valve cover, the overhead cam and valve gear has been removed from the engine. The vehicle faced south. U

On the eastern half of the carport, a black over gray Chevrolet Camaro was parked. This vehicle had been recently seen in operation and it was concluded to be fully operational. U

Parked somewhat between but behind the above described vehicles was a white Volvo station wagon bearing California License [redacted] U

Affixed to the southwest corner post of the carport are several mailboxes. They are numbered [] and [] U

The site, as previously mentioned, is very hilly and a lush canopy of vegetation covers most of the site. U

A small squat, mostly black dog was loose and barking intensely, however, he quieted down when we called him and rubbed his head. U

Directly to the right (east) stood a green frame house. The grade of the finish floor is several feet above the grade of the carport. Access to the green house is via curved exterior steps to a porch across the entire southern elevation of the structure. U

A radio type sound was heard from within, but no one answered the knock at the door. One cannot see into the building. The house bore numerals identifying it as [] U

Directly to the left of the carport, at a finish floor grade several feet below the grade of the carport stands a small white frame structure. A curved stepped path leads from the front of the carport to an arbor type cover affixed to the southern exposure of the house. The natural grade falls away abruptly beyond the house and there is a commanding view to the west from the building. U

There are windows on the south and west. One could easily see a very small, neat, modestly furnished residence. There is a small kitchen area and, to the northeast, a door leads presumably to a small bathroom area. U

Nothing unusual was noted except a telescope mounted on a tripod was observed folded and leaning against the wall within the residence. The house bore numerals identifying it as [] U

Walking through the carport revealed a walk area continued northward to a third structure on the site situated behind and north of the above described structure designated [] U

The rear building appears to be two distinct residences, joined physically but probably not connected functionally, inasmuch as the finish floor levels are vastly different, possibly five or six feet apart. U

At roughly a level one or two feet below the level of the carport, there is a lower living unit designated [] The walk from the carport seems to direct one to the unit. U

The southern elevation is mostly glass French doors and observation revealed the interior was very cluttered with what is presumably bedding lying directly on the floor. A motorcycle was parked in the structure. U

As we walked up, we caught a glimpse of a white female, known as [] standing in the doorway to the adjoining upper unit. U

No one answered the knock at [] U

Returning a short distance back up the walk area towards the carport, a narrow, crude, course walkway was observed to lead through a small gate (no fence) to a patio type area in front of the adjoining upper unit, a vertical climb of several feet. U

A rather large brown and white dog was tied near the gate. [] came from the door, pulled back and quieted the dog and asked what we wanted. Her manner was pleasant. She was dressed in a long, floor length print dress, open bodice, simple design, bare feet. [] appeared to be wearing no makeup. She appeared thinner than anticipated and older, possibly 35 years old. Her hair seemed shorter than anticipated and "salt and pepper" gray. We inquired if the party was home next door. She stated the occupants left very early in the morning. L

During the brief encounter, her residence was carefully viewed, but no numerals could be seen. We could not see within the residence. We immediately departed the area without further contact. L

On December 1, 1977, [redacted] was shown photographic spread III and positively identified photograph number five (photograph of CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF) as the individual she had seen in the parking lot of her employment. U

[redacted] stated that she placed the observation of VAN LYDEGRAF as sometime during the week beginning September 19, 1977 and ending September 23, 1977. She observed VAN LYDEGRAF while she was walking out of her employment and headed toward her car in the parking lot, and he was walking south in the parking lot apparently coming from the vicinity of the office of Senator JOHN BRIGGS, which is located two doors north of her office. She stated the individual she believes to be VAN LYDEGRAF was wearing jean-type clothing, which was inconsistent with a large majority of people seen in that particular neighborhood. She recalls thinking first he might have been working for the telephone company, which was installing a new telephone system in her office during the week of September 19, 1977 through September 23, 1977, and remembers seeing a telephone service truck parked near her car. However, she concluded that the individual she believes to be VAN LYDEGRAF could not have been a telephone company employee because he did not have that type of uniform on. She stated she was about to approach him to ask him if she could offer assistance in locating an address when she was approached by a customer. U

The purpose of the meeting was to continue a brief discussion concerning women's role in armed struggle at the beginning of the class state and then to discuss the political consequences that may emerge from the women's conference to be held in Houston, Texas, beginning November 18, 1977. U

Prior to the start of the meeting, [redacted] and [redacted] stood in line to place the dinner orders. [redacted] and [redacted] discussed the session held Sunday, November 6, 1977, in the desert. [] and [] stated that they had done some further reading concerning women's roles in armed struggle and stated that with the emergence of the nuclear family as an economic unit, women were stripped of all means of production and were solely dependant upon the man for survival. In effect, they were held as virtual slaves to the men. [] stated that an important aspect of the nuclear family is that the women became the private property of men and in order to completely liberate themselves, the nuclear family as an economic unit must be totally destroyed and, in doing so, women have to take it upon themselves to fight for their liberation with the use of arms. U

[] further stated that the women were excluded from having arms by men because, in effect, the men were afraid that the women would use these weapons against the men in their effort to fight for women's liberation. U

It was decided at this time to conclude this part of the discussion and proceed to discuss the political significance of the women's conference in Houston. [] stated that the political significance of the conference in relation to our own politics is that the state will be making an attempt in Houston to co-opt the women's movement by bringing women with opportunistic politics closer to the state's politics on women's rights and to isolate the gay and lesbian movement and to ultimately destroy it. U

[] and [] both stated that our role down there will be to make sure that the radical, revolutionary and women's liberation struggles are able to voice their disapproval with the state's interpretation of the family and the women's role in the family. [] and [] both stated that the state's role in isolating the gay and lesbian movement is to maintain their white and male supremacy and it is up to us to fight this white and male supremacy and hopefully to work with some of these more progressive women in an attempt to put our politics forward.
